

Oregon Routs Stanford 10 to 0; Staters Nose Out Idaho 7 to 6

BOB SMITH HURLS TOUCHDOWN PASS TO JAY GRAYBEAL

Cardinal Threats Are Twice Halted — Webfoots Out-gain Californians in Air, On Land.

MULTNOMAH STADIUM, Portland, Ore., Oct. 7.—(AP)—The University of Oregon fought through the second game of its "sudden death" Pacific Coast conference schedule today before 20,000 fans, adding a 10-0 victory over Stanford to its previous 7-7 tie with Southern California.

Emulating their feat of last week when they scored on U.S.C. in the final seconds of the first half, the team-yellowed Stanford in a brilliant aerial drive of 80 yards in the last half minute.

Stanford made its strongest touchdown bid in the first and last periods and twice got inside the Oregon 20. Victim tackle plunges by Norman Standlee moved the ball to the Webfoot 10 stripe early in the game and Graves tried a field goal but the ball sailed wide.

Two Stanford punts enabled Oregon to get out of difficulty and open up an offense but the Ducks were unable to sustain an attack until the final minute of the half although Berry nearly got after intercepting Kmetovic's pass in the second period. He was brought down on the Stanford 23 but the Indian defenses stopped Oregon there.

Oregon took its passing game out of the tool kit at the start of the last period, completing four out of six passes, the last for 30 yards to reach the three yard line, but on the first play the Ducks lost five on an off-side penalty.

The Indians broke up three passes and Graybeal booted the field goal. Stanford made a desperate bid in the final minutes after a bad pass from Oregon's center gave the Indians the ball on the Stanford 48-yard line. Muller pitched a pass to Graff for 24 yards and Standlee slashed through tackle for 11 more but the Oregonians threw up a barricade that Stanford couldn't crack on the 13-yard line.

Oregon made 10 first downs to Stanford's 7, outgained Stanford in rushing 184 yards to 71. The Ducks made good on seven out of 19 passes for 101 yards, the Indians eked six out of 18 times for 47 yards.

STATERS MANAGE TO DEFEAT IDAHO BY SINGLE POINT

Vandal Line Unyielding — Smith Carries Ball Length of Field for Score.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Oregon State barely eked out a 7-6 victory over Idaho today in a King-K Pacific coast conference game marked principally by fumbles and intercepted passes.

Oregon State scored in the second quarter on a line smash by Fullback Kieselburgh. The Beavers were driving for another score in the third quarter when Idaho's Captain Ray Smith stole the ball from a pileup and ran 95 yards for a touchdown.

What would have been the tying point failed when Harris' kick went wide. Aside from the one Idaho dash, the game was all Oregon State. Idaho made only one first down on a 13-yard pass in the third quarter. Idaho never got beyond Oregon State's 34-yard line except on Smith's touchdown run.

Idaho's famed line lived up to advance notices in the first quarter when the Beavers failed to carry the ball into Vandal territory. Then, from deep in its own ground, Oregon State started making its own breaks. Just as Idaho's safety, Acuff, caught Kieselburgh's punt on his own 45, Walt Jelena, Beaver tackle, hit him so hard he dropped the ball and State recovered.

After Kieselburgh kicked out on Idaho's 20, Durham tumbled on the first play and Batley recovered for Oregon State. Tomich, Vic Kohler and Kieselburgh alternated in driving through to score, sided by one short pass.

Idaho's score may become the subject of hot stove controversy. Late in the third quarter, Kieselburgh had just intercepted Acuff's desperation pass on the Idaho 31 and was barely dragged down on the five. On second down, Kieselburgh was stopped by a pile-up on the 3-yard line. With play apparently stopped but no whistle blown, Smith wrested the ball from Kieselburgh before it had touched the ground and dashed the length of the field for a score.

Vic Kohler was the only Beaver within 10 yards of Smith but failed to overtake the fleet-footed Smith until he had crossed the line. Oregon State carried the ball inside the 10-yard line five times, made 237 yards from scrimmage to 27 for Idaho and made 49 from passes to reach the three yard line, but on the first down to Idaho's one.

Willamette Tied. SALEM, Ore., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Although each team had several scoring opportunities neither could cash in and Portland and Willamette universities tied and tied a 0-0 football tie in last night Superb punting by Carl Deck of the Pilots and Al Warden of Willamette counteracted the offensive powers of the two clubs.

SOUTHERN SQUADS DEFLATE EASTERN FOOTBALL BOOMS

Louisiana Crushes Holy Cross, Alabama Drops Fordham — Notre Dame Triumphs.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Pre-season football booms for Holy Cross, Northwestern, Minnesota and Fordham ended in an extremely painful death today as a brilliant card of intersectional games found the south and southwest emerging with most of the scalp.

Flatly refusing to believe all the tall talks they heard of Holy Cross power, the Tigers of Louisiana state shelved the Crusaders 26-7 at Worcester as Ken Kavanaugh, great end, caught three passes for touchdowns and scored the other on an 80-yard run after intercepting a Holy Cross aerial.

Oklahoma Surprises. Hayward Stanford's accurate try for point after touchdown provided Alabama with a 7-6 triumph over Fordham but actually the southerners outplayed the Rams by a wide margin. Northwestern made entirely too many mistakes against alert Oklahoma and the Sooners romped off with an astounding 23-0 decision. Bill De Corvont, lightly publicized Northwest back, made his varsity debut and looked good in spots.

Nebraska's Cornhuskers rushed over a second period touchdown against Minnesota and then held off every other contender to win 6-0. Duke and Texas were responsible for two more brilliant victories for the south and southwest. Duke, unbeaten during the regular season a year ago, rolled all over Colgate, 37-0, as Texas uncorked an effective attack that routed Wisconsin, 17-7. Missouri Falls.

George Tech and Missouri were the principal casualties among invading southern and southwestern teams. For the second year in a row, a field goal, this time by Harry Stevenson, provided Notre Dame with its winning margin, a 17-14 triumph over Georgia Tech in a sensational game the Engineers nearly pulled out of the fire. Missouri was no match for Ohio State and bowed, 19-0.

ounding out the great middle western program for the day, Iowa came through with two touchdowns in the final period to nose out Indiana, 32-29. The Hawkeyes' first Big Ten conference victory since 1933; Michigan outscored Michigan State, 26-13, and Kansas won a Big Six encounter from Iowa State, 14-0.

Service Teams Win. In the east, both service eleven's barely came through. Army had to score nine points in the final quarter from Virginia, 14-12, only by blocking two Virginia attempts at extra points.

Yale opened its league competition with an unexpected 10-7 victory over Columbia as Cornell, avenging its sole 1938 defeat, routed Syracuse, 19-6. Penn just made the grade against Lafayette, 6-0. Princeton, Harvard and Dartmouth all scored over minor opponents.

Pitt again used deception and the air-lanes, rather than sheer power to stop West Virginia, 20-0, as Carnegie Tech squandered the most important Tulsa hang up by the most important Southeastern conference victory of the day, halting Auburn, 12-0 and ending a string of three successive scoreless ties between the rivals. Kentucky showed surprising strength in whipping Vanderbilt, 21-18. Tennessee routed Sewanee as scheduled, 40-0. In the Southern conference, North Carolina topped Virginia Tech, 13-0. Clemson routed North Carolina State, 23-0. Richmond beat Washington and Lee, 7-0 and Virginia Military won from Davidson, 2-0.

TROJANS MANGLE FEEBLE COUGARS; LANSDSELL STARS

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Southern California got its mighty football machine in working order this afternoon and sent it rolling over hapless Washington State in a Pacific Coast conference encounter. The final score found the Trojans on top, 27 to 0, and never in danger.

Rouandy criticized after last week's slow start, which saw the favored Trojans held to a 7-7 tie by Oregon, the cardinal and gold juggernaut spent about four minutes warming and then was off to the races.

The big red-shirted outfit traveled 74 yards for the first touchdown in the first, sputtered around in a peltting rain in the second without getting anywhere, drove over the helpless Cougars twice in the third and added one more in the fourth when the lineup was dotted with sophomores, substitutes and sixth string reserves.

Washington State got into Troy's side of the field only three times all afternoon and the nearest to the Trojan goal was 37 yards. Its expected aerial attack proved ineffective—the pass of the day turned into a fumble and U. S. C. converted the break into a 55-yard march for one of its four touchdowns.

Condensed, the Trojans scoring: First touchdown—74 yards, 13 plays, Lansdell over the center of the line; second, 56 yards, 10 plays, Reserve Fullback Bill Sangster scored, hurling himself over the Cougar defense from the two-yard line; third, Lansdell, on a 39-yard dash after a drive that originally started on the Trojan 35-yard stripe; fourth, Jerry Bowman, fourth string quarterback, from the six-yard line after a 23-yard push by the Trojan reserve forces.

A wet ball and wet grass hampered aerial play, and the crowd of 40,000 got a drizzling in the second quarter when the rains came.

Belcastro Faces Big Nazi Meantime on Armory Card. DUE NOT often you see Cowboy Dude Chick wrestling under the main event, for the big fellow from Wyoming, former junior heavyweight champion, is headline stuff in anybody's league.

But tomorrow night in the Medford armory the larial-spinning Chick will be no better than a semi-windup attraction, and the reason is that Mack Lillard, promoter, has reached down and come up with a main event tussle that may overshadow anything seen in the local arena in years.

The bout which relegates Chick to a minor role on the weekly mat program is Pete Belcastro versus Hans Schulz, a couple of the manliest grapple characters now inflicting punishment on their brethren.

Schulz, 218-pound Nazi German, has yet to lose a match in southern Oregon. In four local starts he has completely and conclusively got rid of as many opponents, and in all that action he has lost only one fall, to Dave Levin last week. He is by far and large, the most serious scourge to hit this territory in a week of Mondays, and an expected capacity crowd will turn out to see whether he can make it five straight at the expense of Mr. Belcastro, nobody's setup.

ST. MARY'S BANGS OUT BITTER WIN OVER BEARS, 7 TO 3

BRIDGEVILLE, Calif., Oct. 7.—(AP)—St. Mary's' Gaelis galloped over an old time football rival today with a 7 to 3 victory over the University of California Bears in a bitter battle that keyed up 55,000 fans with a flat fight between two rival players in the opening period.

In the 25 years the two schools have banged each other around on the gridiron this latest encounter probably equaled if not exceeded any other in intensity.

It started out in sensational fashion. Shortly after the Bears had kicked off, Lee Artoe, 210 pound California tackle who transferred from Santa Clara a couple of years ago, and St. Mary's tackle Richard Darling, 207 pounder from Los Angeles, hooked up a punch throwing match on the huge green turf "ring."

Neither appeared to be a match for better champion Joe Louis and the two were ordered out.

California rang the bell with the first score—a second period field goal which Ray Rosso, sub guard, place kicked from the 20 yard line. The Bears had reached St. Mary's 13 yard marker on a combined passing-plunging march after intercepting a pass on the Gaelis' 48 yard line.

A weak punt by substitute right half Gerald Lutes, a left footed kicker, gave St. Mary's the ball 38 yards from scoring turf in the second half. Swiftly the Gaelis charged into action and despite a five yard penalty, smashed down to the 4 yard marker from where fullback Herb Smith bored through center for the touchdown. Nick Katzmeyer, tackle, place kicked the extra point.

The last period developed into a wild scramble with California making one advance of 59 yards to reach St. Mary's 18 while the Gaelis came back with a 65 yard return of an intercepted pass to get down to the Bears 20.

It was St. Mary's first win since 1936 in the 25-year series and their sixth since the start of gridiron rivalry in 1915. California has won 17 with two ties.

Statistically the game was fairly even, St. Mary's having an edge in rushing with 145 yards to 100 yards and California netting 77 yards from passes against 17 yards for the opposition.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Unless the statisticians find, some time next winter, that they have been making a tremendous mistake, Johnny Mine of St. Louis is the 1939 batting champion of the National League.

DUSKY BACKFIELD AGES GIVE UCLANS WIN OVER HUSKIES

SEATTLE, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The spectacular ball-handling Bruins from U. C. L. A. led by two dusky backfield acres, Jack Robinson and Kenny Washington, came from behind to outscore the University of Washington Huskies today, 14 to 7.

The Bruins had to do it the hard way, too, as Coach Babe Horrell's strategy in starting his second lineup was almost disastrous. Washington scoring in the first five minutes.

It took UCLA until the third quarter to punch across the tying score, and it was a sensational 64-yard punt return by Robinson that set up the score. Robinson was thrown off stride by Halfback Dean McAdams on his run, and Marx finally dragged him down on the Husky 5.

Washington then rammed over right tackle for the touchdown. Robinson converted to tie the count.

Sterling line play pushed both clubs back until late in the final quarter, when Dale Gilmore intercepted a pass on the middle of the field. Nine plays and three first downs later Gilmore went over, taking a wide pass from Washington.

The victory stamped the Bruins as the Pacific Coast conference darkhorse. UCLA showed fine line play and the Washington-Robinson touchdown twins were always threats.

That, too, was the end of the Yankees' assault, for Lefty Lay, Grierson and young Loyly (Whitely) Moore handcuffed them completely all the way through the last four innings. Not a Yankee reached base in that time, and only three of them managed to hit balls out of the infield.

Lefty Gomez, holder of the all-time record of six straight world series triumphs without a defeat, started for the American League but it wasn't Lefty's day. He tossed only one inning, and was promptly tagged for a run when, with two out, Iral Goodman beat out an infield hit. Buck McCormick slud a single to right, and Ernie Lombardi slashed a grounder through the infield for a run-producing base hit.

The victory today was the eighth straight world series triumph for the New Yorkers, starting with the last game of the '37 set.

4 YANKEE HOMERS FROM CINCINNATI

but Catcher Bill Dickey, up right behind him, crashed a homer deep into the bleachers.

That was the end of Junior, the 22-year-old righthander who didn't have anything even closely resembling the stuff shown by his pitching mates. Paul Derringer and Buckie Walters, who lost the first two games in New York despite heroic hurling.

Altogether, Goodman was the Reds' hitting hero for the day, with three singles, two of them figuring in the Cincinnati scoring.

By the end of the second, Hadley had hit his stride, and for the last seven innings he gave up only three hits. In that stretch only two of the Rhinelanders reached third base, one of them, oddly enough, on Hadley's wild throw of Lombardi's grounder in the seventh, for the first error of the series by either club. The victory was Hadley's second in world series competition.

With three straight decisions already locked up in his safe, Manager Joe McCarthy decided to give another of his "second string" hurling corps a chance in tomorrow's fourth game, so he will trot out Oral Hildebrand, a 32-year-old righthander.

Manager Bill McKenney of the downcast National League will shoot with Paul Derringer, his tall righthander who hurled a brilliant game in dropping a 2-1 decision in the first tilt of the series.

With his fearful flailing today, young Keller established himself alongside of Babe Dahlgren, the Yankees' "weak strike" hitting first baseman, the surprise batting stars of the series. Dahlgren hit for eight bases in the first two games, but was unable to connect today.

Base out, was the end of the Yankees' assault, for Lefty Lay, Grierson and young Loyly (Whitely) Moore handcuffed them completely all the way through the last four innings. Not a Yankee reached base in that time, and only three of them managed to hit balls out of the infield.

JUNIOR HALFBACK BREAKS HIS LEG

Hai Adams, star left halfback on the Medford junior high school football team, suffered a broken leg Thursday afternoon as his team beat the Medford senior high school sophomores at the stadium, 6 to 0.

The accident occurred in the first quarter. Adams, playing safety, ran forward to help stop a sophomore ball carrier and in the ensuing mix-up his leg was rolled on by several players of both teams. The leg was broken below the knee, on the shinbone. It was his left leg.

JACKSONVILLE, PHOENIX LEAGUE WINNERS

Jacksonville defeated Gold Hill, 27 to 14, and Phoenix nosed out Talent, 14 to 12, in six-man football games of the Jackson county class B high school conference Friday afternoon. The games marked the halfway mark in the six-game schedule.

At Jacksonville, coach Pat Patterson's Miners were paced by Bians and Boyd, who scored two touchdowns each. The Talent-Phoenix game was a thriller, with the issue in doubt until the final gun.
