

ARGENTINA TURKEY IMPORTATIONS HIT IN TARIFF HEARING

Reduction in Ten Cent Tariff Would Injure Domestic Industry Is Testimony

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Additional congressional opposition to the granting of tariff concessions on agricultural products from Argentina was voiced today at a hearing on a proposed trade treaty between the United States and the South American republic.

Urging no reduction be made in the tariff of 10 cents a pound on turkeys, Representative Robertson (D-Va.) told the committee for reciprocity information the United States would have an immense crop of 32,000,000 of the birds this year.

Would Hurt Farmers
Senator Byrd (D-Va.) said that while he had been an ardent supporter of the trade agreement program, he felt Argentina should not be permitted to send turkeys into this country and injure the domestic industry.

Robertson said he also had supported the trade agreement program and added, "but certainly there was no intention on the part of any one who supported this program to injure farmers."

"Ten cent dressed Argentine turkeys could go to every market," Robertson said, "and would drive down the prices of American turkeys which must be sold promptly."

He said the Argentine turkeys were inferior, but a small shipment would depress the whole market.

Principle Periled
Senator Schwelmbach (D-Wash.) told the committee he believed in and supported the reciprocal trade agreement policy of the government, but was anxious the law be administered so as not to arouse antagonism of a great percentage of the nation.

"The members of this committee must realize," he said, "that if the 25 percent of our population engaged in agriculture and the additional 15 per cent directly dependent upon agriculture become too antagonistic against the method of administration of this law, the congress will eventually terminate the law and the whole principle of reciprocal trade will be forfeited."

AVERAGE INCOME MAN TO RECEIVE SERVICES OF SKILLED SURGEONS
Philadelphia, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Plans to train 500 new American surgeons each year, to give the average income man the highly skilled surgery which has belonged largely to the rich and the indigent, were announced by the American College of Surgeons today.

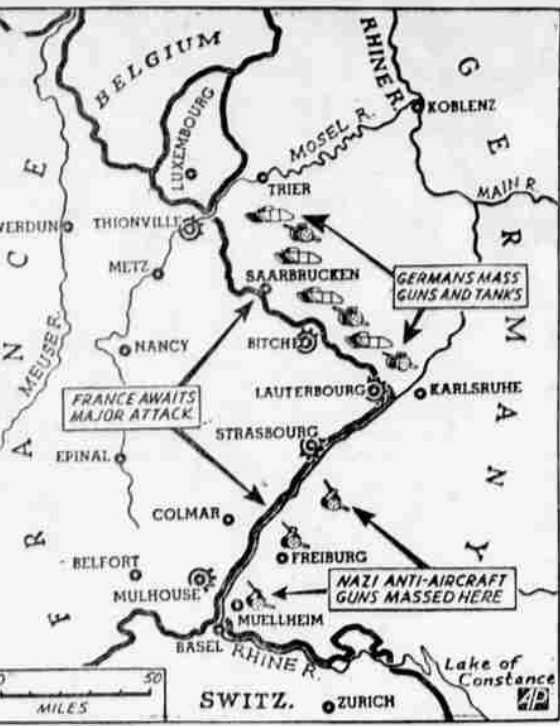

The plan is a three-year system of super-training in surgery which it is hoped will ultimately raise the crop of completely trained new surgeons yearly to 600 or more and spread them into the rural districts instead of having only enough to concentrate in the cities.

The college announced the names of 381 hospitals, including five in Canada, which have been approved for this kind of training. The move sets up an official medical standard in surgery, to replace voluntary training methods of the past which produced many surgical supermen but at the same time others who were not fully trained.

Three years study of surgical training problems preceded today's selection of the 381 institutions. This list is not fixed and it is expected to grow as the idea of better-trained surgeons spreads.

Geneva, Oct. 17.—(AP)—International Red Cross officials received a report today that 100,000 Polish refugees from regions occupied by Russia are making their way to Wilno, now under

French Say Nazis Massed

French soldiers reported that Germany had massed sufficient tanks and heavy artillery to launch a large scale offensive at any moment on the western front. Nazi strength was estimated at 2,000,000 men. Arrows indicate areas of troop and artillery concentration.

Hitler "Madman In Despair" Is Refugee's View

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Reichsleiter Adolph Hitler is a "madman in despair," Klaus Mann, literary refugee from Germany, and son of the 1938 Nobel peace prize winner, Thomas Mann, said here last night.

Speaking to a Spokane dinner club, Mann added "Hitler is not going to win this war, and he knows it."

"Otherwise, why should he be so anxious for acceptance of his so-called peace proposals. Hitler is not only a madman, but a madman in despair."

"The Soviet Russian-German pact," he added, "may be historically significant, but for Hitler it was the beginning of the end. Hitler finds himself dependent on Stalin and is his prisoner."

Wall St. Report

New York, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The stock market's war infants leaped from their cradles today and put on a rallying sprint of 1 to more than 4 points.

The list got off to a quiet start, but bidders for steels, aircrafts, rails and specialties soon became insistent and quotations and volume mounted.

Turnover of around 1,800,000 shares was the largest in about three weeks.

Helping pull the market out of the doldrums, where it has been since the first of the month, brokers said, were the latest news despatches telling of Nazi air raids on Scotland and the British naval base at Scapa Flow, together with the onslaught of reich troops on French positions. All of this added up, apparently, to revive the idea among speculative forces that the recently so-called "unreal" overseas conflict had now become "real."
