

F. D. R. DEDICATES ARMISTICE DAY TO CAUSE OF PEACE

Proclamation Makes November 11 Legal Holiday — Urges People to Reflect

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Proclaiming November 11 as Armistice Day, President Roosevelt asserted today it was appropriate for the American people to reflect upon the hour "when the voices of war were silenced and to look forward even now to a time when a just and enduring peace shall be established among all the peoples of the earth."

The proclamation, issued at a time when Europe is engaged in conflict, commented on the "tragic situation in which the world finds itself today, with the destructive forces of war once again unleashed."
The President acted in accordance with an act of congress, passed in 1926, requesting the chief executive to issue an Armistice proclamation. An act in 1938 provided that each November 11 shall be "dedicated to the cause of world peace," and made a legal public holiday.

Text of President Roosevelt's proclamation follows:
By the President of the United States—A Proclamation:
Whereas twenty-one years ago, on November 11, 1918, the nations then engaged in the World War agreed to an armistice terminating hostilities; and Whereas a senate concurrent resolution 18, sixty-ninth congress, passed June 4, 1926 (44 Stat. 1982), reads in part:
"That the President of the United States is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the officials to display the flag of the United States on all government buildings on November 11 and inviting the people of the United States to observe the day in schools and churches, or other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies expressive of our gratitude for peace and our desire for the continuance of friendly relations with all other peoples."

And the act approved May 13, 1938 (52 Stat. 351), provides that the 11th day of November in each year, a day to be dedicated to the cause of world peace and to be hereafter celebrated and known as Armistice Day, is hereby made a legal public holiday"; and
Whereas, in the tragic situation in which the world finds itself today, with the destructive forces of war once again unleashed, it is appropriate for the people of the United States to reflect upon that hour of November 11, 1918, when the voices of war were silenced, and to look forward even now to a time when a just and enduring peace shall be established among all the peoples of the earth:

Now, therefore, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do hereby direct that on November 11, 1939, the flag of the United States be displayed on all government buildings, and I invite the people of the United States to observe the day in schools and churches or other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.
Done at the City of Washington this 16th day of October, in the year of Our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-fourth.
Franklin D. Roosevelt.
(Seal)
By the President:
Cordell Hull,
Secretary of State.
