

CASCADE EXHIBIT IN AUTUMN DRESS

Treasure Island, Oct. 20.—(Sp.)—The gorgeous autumn coloring of the leaves and the equally gorgeous colors on the wild birds of the Wonderland court have been the lure that has attracted thousands to the Shasta-Cascade exhibit during the closing days of the fair. One of the melancholy aspects of the autumn surroundings, however, was the absence of the Wonderland ranger who has escorted some 5,000 persons on daily tours through the exhibit. Lee B. Johnson, U. S. forest ranger, who has been with the exhibit all summer having checked out Sunday night and left for a two weeks vacation before reporting back to the Angeles forest.

Visitors registering recently at the building from Jackson county included the following: Mrs. H. W. Conger, Nell Cator, J. H. Philpott, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Owens, Mrs. M. N. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Keeney, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph V. Boutele, Richard Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mee, Mrs. Chester Fitch, Chester Fitch, Jr., Ruth Fitch, Mrs. Timothy Daily, Mrs. M. E. Royce, Ruby Lusk, Herman Lusk, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Yost, R. L. Humphrey, George Hopkins, Robert Mullin, Mrs. Adela Swartz, Wm. Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Stark, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bohnert, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Everett, J. Duckett and family, Ronald Smith, Amy Smith, Jeanne Smith, Mrs. Leola Wright, Mrs. Walter E. Flynn, Allan Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clark, Michael and Douglas Clark, Marjorie Fundsen.

Big Applegate

Big Applegate, Oct. 20.—(Sp.) Norman Kubli is president of the student body in the Applegate grade school, according to "The Applegater," school newspaper printed monthly. Other student body officers include Carolyn Benedict, vice-president; Jean Brown, secretary; Beverly Mea, treasurer. The September issue of "The Applegater" includes community and war news, as well as school notes. Carolyn Benedict is editor-in-chief, with the remainder of the staff comprised of Bobby Wallis, Silas Davis, Elinor Mee, Melvina Rowden, Georgia Benedict, Wesley Surran, Bill Wright, Temple Rose and Lorraine Rowden.

Mr. and Mrs. John Byrne and daughters, Gladys and Evelyn, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Byrne, left Wednesday for San Francisco to attend the exposition. At Pinole they will be guests of John Byrne's sister, Mrs. Emmett O'Brien. The group will return in a week.

Willis Scott, accompanied by friends from Talent, is spending several days hunting in eastern Oregon. Mrs. Barbara Jennings of Medford is spending the week as a guest of Mrs. Scott.

Fred McPherson of Medford is in charge of an emergency relief administration crew of 22 men building a five and one-half mile stretch of road from the Carbury-Thompson creek divide down Thompson creek. A CCC crew from the former Camp Carbury cleared the right of way several years ago. The county recently completed a new bridge on Carbury, replacing the low water bridge which had been a traffic hazard in the past.

Port Hubbard of Seattle, who is spending three weeks with friends and relatives at Applegate and Medford, is a guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Amos McKee. He also will visit Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Phillips at Squaw Lake.

Mrs. Hazel Truax and grandson, Gordon, spent the week with Mrs. Truax's sister at Doris, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Smith are among stock owners bringing their cattle from the high Siakiyou ranges for the winter. They are fortunate in rounding up their entire herd with the exception of two. They say this is due to being good to their cows and never footing them with an empty salt sack.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Offenbacher are spending several days on a motor trip to Crescent City and other California points.

Alva Coffee and E. B. Gabriel have returned to Salem after spending several days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bonney near Squaw Lake.

A Sunday school was organized this month in the Watkins district with the following officers: Superintendent, Mrs. Albert Collins; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. James Winningham; librarian, LeRoy Hanson; song leader, Mrs. O. N. Hobbe. Teachers include Mrs. Bert Harr, Bible class, and Mrs. Hobbe, primary class. The Sunday school convenes at the Watkins school building from 10 to 11 a. m. and the group extends an invitation to everyone to attend.

Although Edward Kubli was credited with having the meteorological sky box, which he discovered in the slushy last week, in good condition, it was a big job to keep it that way, Mr. Kubli says. When he found the radiograph, the hat down crochets accompanying him insisted on removing its interior workings to satisfy their curiosity. Even when the instrument was taken to his home, it was a little difficult to protect it from interested visitors, Mr. Kubli said. The sky box was sent up by the Medford weather bureau to chart atmospheric conditions, and the size of the reward the finder will receive upon sending it to Baltimore, Md., will depend upon its condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Michalla and son Norman of Jacksonville are new residents of Medford.

idents of Big Applegate, having located on the Herschell Alired property. Mr. Michalla is employed on the ERA road project on Thompson creek.

T. C. McDaniel and Sinclair Dobbins of Vacaville spent last week-end as a guest of the former's father-in-law, Wm. Buck. The Californians devoted their time to hunting white here.

Much lively discussion was brought forth in the parent education study club which met Wednesday, supplementing the projects of the Applegate extension unit. Mrs. Helen Davis and Mrs. Audrey Greshaw led the topic, "The Cooperative Family," with Mrs. John Black acting as chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McMullen and Walter Meisner of Glendale, Oregon, spent Sunday here as guests of Mrs. McMullen's sister, Mrs. Fred Straube.

Robert Lewis, son of Mrs. Gerald Buck, enrolled last month for training as an aviation mechanic at March field near Riverside, Cal. In a few months he will be required to a parachute jump, he has written relatives here.

Joe and Henry Stottick, veteran miners of Ward's Ford section of the Applegate, have leased the Union service station on top of the Jacksonville hill, which they will operate this winter.

Fred Dorn returned from Portland recently, where he spent a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dorn, visiting his new granddaughter, Nancy Lee Dorn.
