

Beavers Score 13 to 7 Win Over Huskies - Gonzaga Upsets Oregon

CORVALLIS TEAM THWARTS AERIAL ATTACKS TO WIN

Lead Coast Conference - First Touchdown Ruling Puzzles Fans.

Seattle, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The burly Beavers from Oregon State college continued their undefeated status in the Pacific Coast conference gridiron race today, defeating the University of Washington Huskies, 13 to 7, before 14,000 fans.

It was the fourth consecutive win for the Beavers, and their second in conference competition.

Despite the fact Oregon State's lead was safe throughout, the Huskies put on a dazzling passing attack that twice just failed to bring touchdowns.

Oregon State got its first touchdown in the second period when sub fullback Dow partially blocked McAdams' punt behind the Husky goal line. The ball came to rest on the Husky 2, and halfback Olson plunged over on the first succeeding play. Younce's kick was low.

The Huskies took command in the third period, mixing short passes and line plunges for 44 yards to the Beaver 22 before a fourth down pass failed by inches to make the necessary yardage.

After a few punt exchanges, Dow opened the last quarter with a 10-yard sprint to the Husky 44 and sub halfback Kohler cut outside left tackle for the remaining distance on the next play. Kohler passed to End Hammers for the extra point.

Undaunted, the Huskies came right back to roll up five first downs and travel to the O. S. C. 26. Tomich then intercepted a pass, but fumbled, Conley of Washington recovering on the Beaver 20. McAdams later hit right end for 13 yards to the Beaver 7, fumbling, but Conley again recovered. A crack at the line, two attempted forwards and a shovel pass failed.

With only a minute and six seconds remaining, sub halfback Carlson of Washington flipped a long pass to End MacDowell, who caught the ball on the goal line and fell over for the score. It was good for 37 yards. Mizen kicked the point.

The Beavers took the following kickoff and froze the ball until the finish.

The Beavers' first touchdown sent the fans to the rulebooks. Discussion arose over the blocked punt, Washington's quarterback, Don Means, caught the ball in the air, but the ball was given to the Beavers.

After the game, Referee Bob Morris explained that the ball carried beyond the line of scrimmage, which automatically gives a punt to the defensive team. He said Means caught it on the five-yard line and was smashed back to the two before the ball was grounded. If the Huskies had caught it inside the 4-yard line the ball would have gone to Washington.

The Huskies were vastly improved over previous showings, but still lacked punch in the goal line precincts. It was Washington's fourth straight loss.

Rooks Beat C. of P. The Dalles, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Superior power in the last two minutes gave the Oregon State college rooks a 6 to 0 football victory over the Portland university freshmen here Friday night. Harold Fox, rook fullback, bucked across the score from the four-yard line after an advance from the Portland 20-yard line.

GONZAGA PASSES FOR TOUCHDOWNS CONQUER OREGON

Webfoots Lack Punch—Reserve Back Goat of Defeat—First Loss This Year

Hayward Field, Eugene, Ore., Oct. 21.—(AP)—Tony Canadeo, a left halfback with a pitching arm like a big league baseball player, and his Gonzaga team mates exploded the heretofore undefeated Oregon football team, 12 to 7, today.

The Spokane led hurried two touchdowns passes, one in the closing seconds of the third period and the other in the first two minutes of the final quarter.

Gonzaga's victory over Oregon, a team that aspired to the Rose Bowl after deadlocking with Southern California and locking California and Stanford in Pacific Coast conference games, was its first in six years.

The Webfoots showed only one spark of greatness—a third period advance from their 39 to Gonzaga's 24 on seven plays that, with the aid of an offside penalty, set up a touchdown pass from halfback Jay Graybeal to Vic Reginato, end. Graybeal booted the try for point to give Oregon a short-lived lead before Gonzaga's coach, Puggy Hunton, dipped into a bag of touchdown tricks.

The non-conference nature of the contest was insufficient to afford the Webfoot consolation in bitter defeat.

Canadeo grabbed a lateral on his own 20 and rifled a pass that traveled 37 yards in the air to Bob Jones, reserve end. Jones pulled in the ball behind the Oregon safety and darted lightly to the goal line. Jim Bryant's effort to tie the score with a place kick was blocked by the Oregon center, Jim Canadesso.

Len Isberg, reserve halfback for Oregon, was the major victim of Gonzaga's second score. His quick kick was blocked on the Oregon 34 and recovered for the Zags on the 24. A running combination, Canadeo and Cecil Hare, reached the 12 where the pass-tossing back heaved one into Bert Jacobson's arms over the goal line.

Oregon couldn't get past Gonzaga's 44-yard marker the rest of the battle.

Oregon outgained the Zags 185 to 134 yards at scrimmage but the Bulldogs gained 181 yards from seven completed passes out of 12 tries. Oregon's three successful throws out of 13 attempts netted 60 yards.

Gonzaga and Oregon each made ten first downs.

NEGRO HALFBACK LEADS UCLANS TO WIN O'ER MONTANA

Los Angeles, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Kenny Washington, Brilliant Negro halfback, led the University of California at Los Angeles to an easy 20-6 victory over Montana before 25,000 today.

Shufflin' Kenny's big feet traveled to all three of the Bruin touchdowns during the brief time the Uclan's first team was in the game, while Montana, after one disappointing goal march, finally checked in a touchdown with less than two minutes of the game left to play.

The Washington field day began midway in the first period. The lanky Negro broke away on a wild gallop for 68 yards to set the Bruins up for a score. With the ball on the Montana 15, Fullback Leo Cantor banged off six, and Washington barged over the right side of the Grizzly line for the touchdown. John Frawley kicked the added point.

Jackie Robinson, dusky halfback companion of Washington, returned a Montana punt 40 yards to the Montana 39, and again Cantor and Kenny went to work. Cantor made 15, Washington 18, in two drives, and from the sixyard stripe Washington skirted his own right end for the score. Montana blocked the conversion.

Coach Babe Horrell sent in his second team and it could never score, while Montana's scrappy backfield performers kept peppering away in the hot sun.

Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 21.—(AP)—University of California scored its first football victory in four starts today with a 13 to 7 win over Washington State college in a Pacific Coast conference game.

California, beaten in its last three games, scored touchdowns in the first and second periods, but the Cougars came back with a strong second half drive to run up one touchdown in the third and come within two yards of another.

The first Bear tally came on a 55-yard run by right halfback Gerald Lutes, who had intercepted a pass by WSC's halfback, Dick Emerson. An 80-yard drive aided by two five-yard Cougar penalties when going became tough, gave California its second tally, with fullback Jack McQuary scoring from the one-yard line.

In the third, Washington State drove to the Bear 30, where Cougar center Ken Devine grabbed a fumble in mid-air and raced 25 yards to the goal line. Later in the period Washington State hammered to the Bear two but lost the ball on downs.

Some 20,000 saw the game in mild weather.

Seattle, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Three up and three to go. Hemlock Henry Armstrong was ready to leave for Los Angeles and another title fight today after turning in a three-round technical knockout over Richie Fontaine of Missoula, Mont., last night.

Armstrong, the world's welterweight champion who weighed 129 3/4, bounced Fontaine to the canvas seven times before the fowl came in from Richie's corner in two minutes and three seconds of the third.

PELICANS BATTLE PEARPICKERS TO A SCORELESS TIE

Punting Duel Features Thrilling Game—Medford Touchdown Drive Misses

Medford's Black Tornado and the Pelicans of Klamath high topped up impregnable defensive works to battle to a scoreless tie in their traditional Southern Oregon conference struggle in Klamath Falls Friday night before 5,000 highly partisan fans.

It was Klamath's fourth deadlock of the 1939 season and the first time this year the Tigers have failed to score a victory. Neither team has been defeated.

With the two powerful forward walls locked in a death grip and throttling almost every threatening offensive gesture of both clubs, the game developed into the most remarkable punting duels of the year in southern Oregon prep football.

It was a kicking contest between left halfback Bob Newland of Medford and Bill Rush and Melvin Ramos of Klamath Falls, with a slight edge going to the Tiger booter. Newland socked the leather nine times for an average of 44.6 yards per boot, while the two Pelican punters combined on 10 kicks to average 41.8 yards. Time after time thundering punts sent the opposition reeling back on its heels, and although Newland turned up the best average it remained for fullback Rush of the Pelicans to get off the night's most spectacular kick. It was a 75-yard beauty in the first period.

Newland's nine punts were of 41, 51, 30, 38, 45, 40, 54, 46 and 56 yards. Rush had boots of 75, 41, 30, 37 and 46 yards, and Ramos came through with kicks of 34, 41, 38, 31 and 45 yards. The foot was truly back in football in this savagely fought ball game.

It was the Black Tornado, shooting for its fifth straight victory, that came closest to ramming over that elusive touchdown. With seven minutes of the fourth quarter remaining the Tigers reached a first down on the Klamath five yard line, but the Pelican line rose up to throw back three plays for a one yard loss. On fourth down Ike Orr attempted to pass, and although it was partly blocked Louie Thurman grabbed it and made a gallant attempt to cross the line. He was brought down on the one-foot stripe and Klamath's Rush immediately punted 45 yards out of danger.

That Medford drive started when Newland recovered a Klamath fumble on his own 45-yard line. Sausberry and Louie Thurman hammered to two first downs on the Klamath 29-yard line where, on fourth down, Newland fired a 16-yard forward pass to Billy Piche. Piche fought his way eight more yards before being run out of bounds on the Klamath five-yard line. On the first play Sausberry lost a half yard at center, then Piche was dropped for a three-yard loss on a reverse. A pass from Newland to Piche gained one yard, placing the ball on the six-yard stripe, from where Orr tried his pass.

After Rush punted out, the Tigers came right back to reach the 22-yard line as Newland returned the kick 12 yards and Orr broke loose for 10 around the Klamath right end. However, three passes were incomplete and Klamath took the ball on downs on their own 26 when another pass lost four yards.

With two minutes to play the Pelicans launched their final desperate scoring drive. Louie Thurman moved the ball to the Medford 27-yard stripe but Piche intercepted a Lowe serial shot on his own 15-yard line to halt the attack.

The nearest Klamath Falls came to the Medford end zone was in the opening seconds of the second period. Bobby Anacker started the fireworks by returning a punt 28 yards to the Medford 36. Rush made 10 over Medford's right guard and Anacker picked up four at center as the first quarter ended.

On the opening play of the second period Rush hit center for three yards, placing the ball on Medford's 19-yard line, but on the next play Don Moyer, Tiger right end, recovered a Rush fumble on his own nine-yard marker.

From then until the final quarter neither team got within its opponents 20-yard line as Newland and Rush and Ramos booted them far and wide. In the remaining minutes of the first half Klamath got to Medford's 29, but lost the ball on downs. A moment later Newland passed to Thurman for 19 yards and Klamath was penalized 15 yards for unnecessary roughness, putting the Tigers on the Klamath 29. But Medford fumbled there to bog down, as Klamath's Wilson recovered. Just before the half ended Anacker returned a punt 31 yards to Medford's 29.

The Tigers struck for 53 yards in two plays just before the third quarter ended but lost the ball on downs on the Klamath 27. From his own 12-yard line, Orr slammed over the Klamath right guard for 27 yards and Newland fired a pass good for 26 yards to Piche. Klamath took the ball when passes were incomplete.

The Tigers emerged with quite an edge in yardage gained, picking up 128.5 from scrimmage to Klamath's 117, and 76 from passes to Klamath's 41, or a total of 204.5 to Klamath's 158. The Pelicans made 10 first downs to Medford's 9. An exceptionally clean game, Klamath lost only 20 yards from penalties and Medford five.

The linemen of both teams turned in great defensive exhibitions. Medford's leading ground-gainers were Sausberry, who accounted for 52 yards in 13 tries, and Piche, with 44 yards in 5 carries. Rush of Klamath gained 42 yards in 10 attempts while Anacker, who played only the first half, was held to three yards gained in six attempts.

The game was almost a replica of the 0 to 0 tie played by the two teams in Klamath Falls two years ago. Last season Medford won, 8 to 0.

Texas Christian a touchdown but came on to win easily, 20-6. In New Orleans, two unbeaten southern outfits, Tulane and North Carolina, fought to a 14-14 draw as Jim LaLanne's passes for North Carolina overcame a two-touchdown deficit. Kentucky mopped up Georgia, 13-6, and Georgia Tech halted Vanderbilt, 14-6, in Southeastern conference games.

Duke rolled up a 33-6 count on Syracuse, and Washington & Lee checked West Virginia, 9-0, in inter-sectional games, but Auburn of the Southeastern group, dropped a surprising 7-0 decision to Manhattan; North Carolina State was beaten by Detroit, 21-6, and Maryland bowed to Rutgers, 25-12.

Nebraska ran up a decisive 20-0 count on Baylor and Southern Methodist held Marquette without a first down in punching out a 16-0 triumph.

Cornell continued to impress in the east, rolling up a 47-0 count on Penn State. Army gave another disappointing exhibition, bowing to Yale, 20-15. Harvard Gustafson caught two touchdowns as Penn routed Harvard, 22-7, and Dave Alderdice's passing skill carried Princeton to a 14-7 verdict over Columbia.

Holy Cross stopped Brown easily, 20-0, and Dartmouth topped Lafayette, 14-0. Indiana scored its second Big Ten victory, nosing out Illinois, 7-6, and Northwestern finally woke up long enough to halt Wisconsin, 13-7. Mike Byelene led Purdue to a 20-7 conquest of Michigan State.

Oklahoma opened defense of the Big Six crown and crushed Kansas, 27-7, as Missouri barely got past Kansas State, 9-7. Iowa State surrendered to Drake of the Missouri Valley conference, 7-0.

Jack Crain's 61-yard run for touchdown in the final minute carried Texas to a 14-13 decision over Arkansas.

Utah, strong team of the Rocky mountain Big Seven, routed non-conference Idaho, 35-0.

Frank Reinhart won the Rogue Valley Golf club's hole-in-one tournament completed Friday, his 140-yard approach shot stopping three inches short of the cup. Charley Clay, 18 inches away, was second, followed by Lloyd Nass, whose best shot was 24 inches distant, and C. M. Starnes, whose ball was three feet from the can.

Bernie Williams won fifth place, his ball being three inches from the ring. One of Charley Clay's shots was four inches from the circle. Other prize-winners and their best shots were Paul Meyers, 24 inches from ring; Ed Drysdale, 24 inches from ring; Willie Pruitt, 36 inches from ring; and Jim Kimball, 36 inches from ring. Eleventh prize went to Bunny Jerome, her best shot being four feet from the circle.

It was announced that Club Pro Bill (Laddie) Selkirk would be in charge of women's tournaments from now on, the first of which will be staged next Wednesday. It will be a blind bogey affair. There will also be a sycpestakes tourney for women next Saturday, and all those who can't enter the Wednesday event are urged to play in the sweetstakes.

NAZI MEANIE TO FACE BELCASTRO BY UTAH 35 TO 0

Boise, Idaho, Oct. 21.—(AP)—University of Utah used passes and power to whip University of Idaho, 35 to 0, in an interstate football game before 6,500 here today.

The Utes struck twice in the first period, added another touchdown in the second and two more in the third.

Before the game was five minutes old Isadore Spector, Utah halfback, went into right end on a reverse from the 5 to score the first touchdown.

Only a few minutes later fullback Charles Turner went over from the one-foot line after halfback Clarence Gehrke put the Indians in scoring position.

Halfback Tom Pace counted the third Utah touchdown, sweeping around his left end. Gehrke tallied the fourth on an off-tackle drive from the 10 and Pete Bogden, end, scored the last one after he took a lateral from Turner on the Idaho 15.

Grappling fireworks are expected to explode all over the place tomorrow night when Pete Belcastro gets his second crack at Hans (Hitler) Schulz, the German badman, in the main event of Promoter Mack Lillard's weekly program in the local armory.

Winding up a powerful card, Pete and the Nazi will battle for one hour or until one or the other obtains two tumbles. If the match is anything like that which the pair staged two weeks ago it might not last long enough for the customers to settle down in their seats after their between-match stretch.

Pete, it will be remembered, was blasting the sauerkraut out of Schulz in their first match when he misjudged the location of the Teuton Terror and catapulted through the ropes to knock himself goofy on the floor outside the arena. Until that unfortunate occurrence Belcastro was top man by a wide margin. He had the German on the run and was on the verge of handing him his first local defeat.

The middle event will bring together two former world champions. Cowboy Dude Chick, ex-king of the junior heavyweight, will match clean and scientific holds with Dave Levin, who for a short time ruled the heavyweights. Both are fine wrestlers.

Speed LaRance, husky Canadian and El Pulpo, giant Mexican with the marvelous leg action, come together in the six-round opener.

New York, Oct. 21.—(AP)—C. S. Howard's Argentine star, Kayad 2d, raced to an easy one-length victory in the mile and a sixteenth Continental handicap before 12,000 fans at Jamaica today.

Mrs. Payne Whitney's Hush was second and J. S. Riley's tired pacemaker, Journey On, ran third. Kayad 2d's time was 1:45 and he earned a purse of $8,800. His price to win was 9-10.
