Large Doors Feature of 1940 Dodge

Large, full-width, walk-in doors are among the new comfort items found on the four-door Sedans of the 1940 line of the Dodge Luxury Liner. The construction of the doors, giving easy access to wider seats, makes it possible to lower windows all the way down, for maximum ventilation.

WOMEN URGED TO JOIN SEWING BEE

Another call was issued yesterday for valley women to give their time to sewing and cutting of garments for war refugees. The meetings are held each Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a. m. to noon and from 1 to 5 p. m. at the Red Cross office rooms in the Jackson county courthouse.

WHEAT AND CORN MARKETS FIRMER

Chicago, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The wheat market displayed strength today, prices advancing as much as 1 1/2 cents a bushel and closing near the session's best level.

83 1/2 cents strength in wheat helped firm the corn market, which scored net gains up to 1/2 cent after having lost fractions early.

Ohio State Comes From Behind; Wins

Minneapolis, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Ohio State, surging from behind, then standing off a terrific Gopher attack which twice carried deep into Buckeye territory, won a spectacular 23-20 victory from Minnesota today before 55,000 home coming fans.

It was the first conference feat for the Big Ten champions. Ohio State meantime kept its slate clean, hanging up its second conference victory.

FEARS 'BLACKOUT' FOR NEW DEALISM

Portland, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The European war must not be used as an excuse for a "black-out" of new deal "reforms," Mrs. Thomas F. McAllister, director of the Democratic national committee's women's division, told Oregon women Democrats today.

"The best national defense is a progressive government which fortified itself with the armaments of a democracy—equal opportunities for livelihood, health and education," Mrs. McAllister said.

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Lemery Away—Dr. Charles W. Lemery left Saturday to join friends in Klamath county for a hunting trip in eastern Oregon. He is expected to return to Medford Wednesday.

At Game—Among Medford residents attending the Medford-Klamath Falls football game in Klamath Falls Friday night were Capt. and Mrs. Lee M. Bown, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Sherwood and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Bell.

From Merlin—Col. and Mrs. Will G. Davis of Merlin arrived in Medford Friday for a ten-day vacation. They are staying at the Ever Shady auto camp. Mr. Davis is a twin brother of D. D. Davis, well known local man.

Medford Visitors—R. B. Trautwein and J. E. Reimers, real estate men from Pomona, Cal., are spending several days in Medford on business. Mr. Trautwein, until a year ago, was owner of the Pomona Valley Weekly Tribune for 14 years.

Kimes Away—Mr. and Mrs. Nick Kime left last evening for San Francisco to spend two weeks attending the Golden Gate International exposition on Treasure Island. They were to visit Mr. and Mrs. Norval Stine, Sr., in Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Kime and Mrs. Stine are sisters.

Flue Fire—The fire department's chemical crew was called at 4:35 p. m. yesterday to extinguish a flue blaze in the home of Mrs. Mary K. Weston, 52 North Peach street. The fire was controlled without damage.

Attend Game—Among Medfordites traveling to Klamath Falls Friday evening to attend the Klamath Falls-Medford high school football game were Dr. James C. Hayes and children, Dorothy, Virginia, Larry, Dan and Patricia, Dr. and Mrs. Walt E. Hoppe and Miss Margo Boyle.

For Pilot Training—Included in 30 Oregon State college students selected from 83 applicants for the government's civilian pilot training course were Dean Ford of Medford, a junior, and R. E. Phelps of Grants Pass, a senior. Selections were announced in Corvallis yesterday by Director Ben Ruffner and reported by the Associated Press.

Chairmen to Meet—All chairmen of Armistice Day committees of Medford post, American Legion, are to meet at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday in the Hotel Medford. Purpose is to give impetus to plans for the annual Armistice Day celebration and to get all committees functioning immediately. Because of the nature of the meeting, Commander H. J. Melring asks that all Armistice Day committee chairmen attend.

Fines Levied—James Walter Berry of Medford was fined $5 in city court yesterday for turning on a highway at a posted intersection. Stanley G. Ravi of Oakland, Cal., was fined $5 in Gold Hill justice of the peace court for passing without sufficient clearance. When James F. Nutter, 22, of Merlin and William J. Tavis, 36, of Tugo refused to pay $1 fines and costs in Gold Hill justice court Friday on charges of driving vehicles without tail-lights, they were sentenced to serve one day in the county jail. Melvin J. Beagle of 1013 West 10th street, charged by state police with violation of the basic rule was cited to appear in Medford justice court Wednesday morning on the south Pacific highway.
