Wall St. Report

New York, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The stock market showed a distinctive lack of punch today, although a few utilities, motor trucks, amusements and specialties managed to register modest hits. Transfers approximated $900,000 shares. What some Wall Streeters have been terming "the querrest of queer wars" seemed to have lost much of its influence on buyers, and news from foreign centers was hardly of a character to stimulate the speculative urge, brokers said. Charlie Chan Back A new kind of crime riddle in "Charlie Chan at Treasure Island" brings Sidney Toler to the New Rialto theater for tomorrow and Wednesday as the famous Earl Derr Biggers detective. Charlie Chan defies the supernatural to solve the latest and most unusual crime to ever confront him—a master of the occult dealing death in the weird Temple of Magic at San Francisco's world's fair. "Career" starring Anne Shirley and Edward Ellis in Phil Stong's drama of small town life, will play as the second feature on the program.

Kay Francis, Cary Grant And Carole Lombard Top Cast

A vivid, memorable presentation of a modern social problem is "In Name Only," which opened at the Craterian theater yesterday with Carole Lombard, Cary Grant and Kay Francis comprising its dramatic triangle. "In Name Only" is a sincerely told story fashioned into an excellent entertainment. A selfish, mercenary woman has married a wealthy young man for whom she has no love whatever. By the time he learns what his wife is really like she has firmly entrenched herself in the affections of his unsuspecting parents. He does nothing about his marital difficulties until he meets a charming young widow and falls in love. When he asks his wife for his freedom she refuses, having no intention of giving up her secure position and her prospects. Out of this impasse the story climbs to gripping dramatic heights, with splendid performances of the three principals aiding vastly in building its realism and emotional appeal. Miss Lombard's work as the "other woman" and the portrayals of the married couple by Grant and Miss Francis are superlative, ranking among the finest of these three favorites. Supporting players are equally notable, particularly Charles Coburn, Helen Vinson, Katharine Alexander, Jonathan Hale and Maurice Moscovitch.

Thief Visits Church

Eugene, Oct. 23.—(AP)—A thief went to church last night but he wasn't converted. The national president of W.C.T.U., Mrs. Ida B. Smith, a speaker at the services, lost her coat!

Sprague Wins Bet

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Said the governor of Oregon to the governor of Washington today—"Come on, chum, cough up!" During a telephone conversation last week Governor Clarence D. Martin of Washington offered to wager $1 (no tax) that Washington would liquidate Oregon State. Governor Charles A. Sprague accepted. Oregon State won, 13-7.

4600 at O. S. C.

CORVALLIS, Oct. 23.—(AP)—William C. Dockery, Portland, a graduate student in education, was the first student in history to become No. 4600 at Oregon State college. Total registration now stands at 4603 compared with 4375 at this time in the fall term last year.

Lumber Orders Skid

Washington, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Orders slumped seven per cent but shipments increased 2 per cent in the lumber business for the week ended Oct. 14, the National Lumber Manufacturers association said today. A total of 14,495 reporting mills cut 237,929,000 feet of hardwoods and softwoods combined, shipped 265,315,000, booked orders for 261,613,000 feet.
