

MIGRATORY CAMP READY TO OPEN IN YAMHILL COUNTY

$298,000 Spent To Provide Housing For Farm Labor—Mobile Units Planned.

McMinnville, Oct. 26—(AP)—The government's campaign to eliminate rural instability and poverty will advance another step tomorrow with the farm security administration's acceptance of a $298,000 migratory farm labor camp near Dayton in the heart of a rich agricultural region first reclaimed from the wilderness by pioneers almost a century ago.

The camp, first of its kind completed in the Pacific northwest, will receive economically pressed families, some of them refugees from midwestern dust-bowls and others the victims of unproductive lands nearer home.

58 Month Rent

Pat Hughes, FSA family selection specialist, has established headquarters at the camp. Interviewing tenant applicants who, if accepted, will pay $8 a month to live in one of the 47 four-room dwellings.

FSA regional director Walter A. Duffy, who appointed Charles Blanding acting manager, will accept the project for the government and head an inspection tour of FSA officials.

The camp is a small city with two miles of paved streets, water and sewage disposal systems, concrete sidewalks, playgrounds and community hall. It has 147 migrant shelters and 44 tent platforms in addition to the 47 permanent homes. The shelters are one-room houses built of wood. Other facilities include a first aid station, dairy and poultry farm unit, nursery and child clinic, mattress factory and shops.

On Abandoned Land

In constructing the camp, the government used more than a million board feet of lumber, eight miles of tile for the drainage system and 700 tons of lime and fertilizer to give new life to 120 acres of land abandoned because of alkali conditions.

The Yamhill county camp will become the headquarters for other developments. Duffy said its primary function was to provide "a good environment to build good citizens" and sanitary living quarters for agricultural workers during the harvest.

The camp will act as an operating base for four mobile units which will serve other harvest areas in the Willamette Valley and Malheur and Klamath counties.

ITALY, YUGOSLAVIA TO HELP HUNGARY REPULSE RUSSIANS

Hungary Supported in Plans To Keep Communists Out Of Southeastern Europe.

By Edward Kennedy.

Budapest, Oct. 26—(AP)—The presence of Soviet Russian troops on the Polish side of the Carpathian mountains is forging unity among Hungary, Yugoslavia and Italy to prevent any march of communism into southeastern Europe, it was indicated in authoritative quarters today.

It was said authoritatively, should there materialize any threat of a Russian advance into Rumania, the former Czechoslovak province which Hungary occupied last March, Hungary would have the aid of Italy and Yugoslavia, if it became necessary for her to take up arms.

Assurances Given.

These quarters said Hungary had received such assurances from Italy and Yugoslavia.

Hungary, an anti-communist stronghold since the communist rule of Bela Kun in 1919, it was said, is determined to make the Carpathians a barrier to any further westward advance of communism.

This objective, it was said, is supported by Italy and Yugoslavia, the one fascist, the other strongly anti-communist, because they fear that if the red army once passed this natural bulwark, it would find little to stop it short of the Adriatic.

Threat Undeveloped.

It also was said authoritatively should there be a Russian invasion of the Rumania province of Bessarabia, Hungarians probably would be impelled to march to the Carpathian range in that country—through the western Rumanian province of Transylvania.

So far, there has been no clear indication such a threat, to Rumania or Bessarabia, would develop. Rumania has received official assurances Russia does not intend to make any demands against her, and the Russian press has been emphasizing a desire for more friendly relations with Hungary.

But red troops in considerable numbers have been reported across the border from Rumania, largely populated by Ukrainians such as inhabit the southern part of Poland. The red army "liberated" the Ukrainians in Poland during the German invasion.

Tension in Rumania.

New tension also has been reported in Rumania, despite Russian assurances, where it was reported by political circles that "important developments are imminent in the Balkans." King Carol's envoys to Bulgaria and Turkey were summoned home for consultation.

Authoritative quarters reflected the widely expressed view among Balkan diplomats that if it were Russia's purpose to thrust her influence into the Balkans, she would move as soon as she has disposed of her negotiations with Finland and while Germany is occupied by Great Britain and France.

WESTERN RAILROADS TO CUT COACH FARES

Chicago, Oct. 26—(AP)—Round trip coach fares on all western railroads will be reduced temporarily by approximately 5 percent effective Dec. 15, the Transcontinental-Western Passenger association announced today.

The new reduction is from 1.9 cents a mile to 1.8 cents.

"This reduction in fares is to encourage more holiday traffic via the railroads in our western area," Hugh Siddall, association chairman said. "We are hopeful that public response to this offer will result in this lower rate being made permanent."

FIRST LADY NOT SEEKING OFFICE

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 26—(AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, arriving here yesterday for a speaking engagement, was asked by a newspaperman how she would like to be vice president.

"I am not a candidate for any public office," the First Lady replied. "The vice president has to preside over the senate, and I would know nothing about that. That has always been a man's job."

Tom Turkeys Lower

Portland, Oct. 26—(AP)—The market for tom turkeys dropped a cent in spots today to 15 cents a pound, the lowest ever known in the local trade. The decline was attributed to eastern influences. There was no change in the price for hens.
