FLINT RADIO MAN ESCAPES CAPTORS IN TROMSOE STOP

Germans Planted Explosives in Hold Ready to Blow Up Ship; Flew Danish Flag

Bergen, Norway, Oct. 27 —(P)—James McConnochie, radio operator of the American freighter City of Flint, declared today the ship's German prize crew took her through ice-strewn waters with explosives planted in the engine room while they flew the Danish flag and repainted the ship's name to "Alf." McConnochie, a Scot, gave the German captors the slip when they stopped at Tromsoe, Norway, to unload survivors of the British ship Stonegate, sunk by the raider that took the Flint captive.

Mixing with the British sailors, he managed to get ashore undetected and came to Bergen with them.

His story to the Bergen newspaper Aftenbladet after his arrival here said the City of Flint sighted a foreign warship October 9 which at first was assumed to be British or French, but proved to be the German pocket battleship Deutschland.

The raider halted the freighter, placed the survivors of the torpedoed British ship aboard and then proceeded to check the cargo, finding "a considerable quantity of oil."

Declaring this was serious, the German commander said he would not sink the ship, McConnochie related, but placed 18 Germans on board to take possession.

The Scottish radio operator said the City of Flint thereupon began a slow, "unpleasant" trip northward through "terribly cold" seas.

Explosives Placed Enroute, he continued, the German crewmen planted a heavy charge of explosives in the engine room, prepared to blow up the ship if they encountered trouble. Later they entered an area of floating ice, and the Germans painted out the freighter's name, substituting "Alf" for "City of Flint" and painting the Danish flag on the side.

McConnochie said it was untrue there was anything wrong either with the engines or navigation facilities of the City of Flint.

LONDON COMPARES AMERICAN JOBLESS TO WAR REFUGEES

Mount Vernon, Ia., Oct. 27. —(P)—Alfred M. Landon, 1936 Republican presidential nominee, today declared unemployment in the United States has left almost as many persons homeless and hungry "as has the ruthless force of Hitler and Stalin."

In a speech prepared for delivery at the inauguration of Dr. J. B. Magee as president of Cornell college here, Landon pointed out that Americans have watched the shifting and regrouping of European populations "with something akin to horror."

"But what of the great shifting of population in this country?" he asked. "A shift from steady jobs to makeshift existence in unemployment?"

"Has not the ruthless force of economic displacement left almost as many people homeless and hungry as has the ruthless force of Hitler and Stalin?"

Assailing "experimental expedients such as pump priming," Landon declared national safety and individual security "rest upon engagement of the greatest number of men in private enterprises of their own."

CURRY COUNTY WOMAN GUILTY STEALING STOCK

Gold Beach, Oct. 27.—(P)—Mrs. Myrtle A. Garner, Curry county ranch owner, was convicted of larceny of livestock yesterday by a circuit court jury that deliberated 15 minutes.

She was arrested with seven men, five of them from Portland, July 22 and charged with taking cattle from Ellis Dement's ranch.

Her attorneys announced they would appeal to the supreme court.

DOLLARHIDE RANCH BOUGHT BY HAINES

Ashland, Oct. 27.—(Sp)—Dr. C. A. Haines this week announced the purchase of the pioneer Dollarhide ranch in the Siskiyou from L. D. Dollarhide.

The 480-acre place consists of rangeland, pasture and general crop areas. It has house, barn and outbuildings. The Dollarhide ranch is one of the oldest farms in the Siskiyou area and was the site of the old "Dollarhide toll road."

L. D. Dollarhide received it from his father, and Verne Dollarhide and others of the family were born at the old home-site.

The recent sale marks the end of a family ownership of over 75 years.

Estonia became a nation in 1917 at the outbreak of the Russian revolution when she declared her independence of Russia.
