

Fred MacMurray, Madeleine Carroll Head Cast of Romance At Craterian

ALLAN JONES, AKIM TAMIROFF, CAROLYN LEE SUPPORT STARS

Fred MacMurray, tall dark and handsome, and Madeleine Carroll, one of the screen's most beautiful women, are teamed for romance and comedy in the gay "Honeymoon in Bali," opening a three day showing today at the Craterian Theatre. Allan Jones, Akim Tamiroff, Helen Broderick, Osa Massen and Carolyn Lee, four-year-old film find, have supporting roles.

In the picture, MacMurray is cast as an adventurous lad, just returned from Bali, who believes that the proper position for a woman is in a man's arms, not at the head of a Fifth Avenue department store, as Miss Carroll is cast.

She however, believes in her career until she meets Fred. Just after he has returned from the lovely South Sea island. When her friends try to persuade Madeleine that she should listen to her heart and reciprocate Fred's affection, she retreats behind her nice cozy desk of defense. For a while she even refuses to care for a four-year-old girl, a waif left on Fred's hands by an old friend. But she does relent, after another woman comes into the scene and makes a play for Fred. His proposals of marriage rebuffed, MacMurray proceeds to Bali and it isn't too long before Madeleine follows and proposes to him. Sort of "you chase me, and then I'll chase you" proposition.

"The Roaring Twenties" Coming Wednesday

"The Roaring Twenties," saga of the most glittering, gaudy, fantastic age of America, brings James Cagney and Priscilla Lane in the starring roles of this Mark Hellinger story to the Craterian theater Wednesday.

The era of prohibition, bathtub gin, votes for women, sex and psychoanalysis, flaming youth, speakeasies, returning doughboys, the Charleston, gang wars, soaring stocks and rising skirts are brought to vivid life on the screen in the exciting film. Humphrey Bogart, Gladys George, Jeffrey Lynn and Frank McHugh have important roles.

Madeleine's attempts to show Fred that she does love him brings the picture to a romantic and hilarious conclusion. Allan Jones, whose splendid baritone voice has been heard in several big films, is heard in two numbers in "Honeymoon in Bali."
