Fred MacMurray in Romantic Hit With Madeleine Carroll

Fred MacMurray and Madeleine Carroll prove that they are among the screen's peers when it comes to romantic teams, in "Honey Moon in Bali," a gay, romantic comedy, which opened its three-day run at the Craterian theater yesterday.

Using a smart New York department store, Nassau and Ball for background, the picture casts the ethereally lovely Miss Carroll as a department store executive who is so wrapped up in being competent and independent that she has no time for romance. Fred is cast as the young man who is the disturbing factor in her little scheme of things—a reckless, carefree adventurer who has just returned from Bali, and is more or less convinced that woman's place is in the home and in a man's arms.
