ASHLAND PIONEER TAKEN BY DEATH

E. B. Barron, one of the oldest native sons of the Ashland district, died early this morning at the age of 80 years at the ranch on which he was born, eight miles southeast of Ashland. He had not been in good health for several years.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m., Thursday in the Ashland Elks temple, in charge of the lodge, of which he was a member. Interment will be in Ashland mausoleum. Arrangements for the speaker had not been completed today.

Mr. Barron was born on January 25, 1859, and lived his entire life on the large Barron ranch, which was one of the first donation land claims in the upper part of the Oregon marriage-medical examination law last December. However, a vast improvement is shown over last February when the grand total was three. There has been a decided falling off in local couples going to California points to have the knot tied.

Sister Writes To Mrs. Kenly About British War Drama

Details of a thrilling drama on a British submarine are presented vividly in a newspaper clipping received by Mrs. F. Corning Kenly of route 1 from her sister, Mrs. Farwell Boston.

of Hoyleake, Cheshire county, England.

The story pertained to the submarine that had been patched up by her crew after it had been badly crippled by enemy depth charges. After being patched up, the submarine limped across the North sea until she was picked up by an escort of British destroyers.

Mrs. Boston is well known in the Rogue River valley, being a periodic visitor here. The European war has touched her home closely, for she has three sons in military service and her city, she wrote to her sister here, is now housing 1500 persons evacuated from Liverpool.

"At the start you're sure of your motors. You've got ice to help the cooling... and regular stock Lion Head motor oil* to protect the 24 cylinders against searing heat. AAA officials give the signal and the lorry behind begins shoving. You wait until you're doing about 60 and then that Gilmore motor fuel takes hold in grand fashion. You zoom up to 150 and go into second. At 240 you get into the sensitive third gear and the back of the seat smacks you between the shoulder blades. You're on your way... keeping your eyes glued to that rushing black line in front. Red banners beside the track leap at you, and you know the Railton Red Lion is in the middle of the measured mile. You glance at the tachometer and see you're nearing 380 so you ease up on the throttle... those tires must be watched. And then in 9.7 seconds you've done the measured mile with a new world record of 368 miles per hour... a record that proves, to my mind, more than ever that Gilmore products are the world's best!"
