Mr. Meeker said that places visited have proved to be interesting and that he and his wife expect to return to Medford November 8 or 10.

Weather Clear—Crater Lake national park's south and west roads to the lake rim were clear of snow and dry today, rangers said in their morning short-wave radio broadcast. The weather was clear but visibility was somewhat poor because of a smoke haze from slash burnings outside the park, rangers said. Minimum temperature during the night was 38 degrees.

Well-Baby Clinic—Monthly well-baby clinic will be held in the Sparrow memorial suite of the Jackson county courthouse from 1:30 to 4 p. m. Thursday. Dr. A. E. Merkel, county health officer, will be in charge. He will be assisted by Elizabeth McCalliard, county nurse. Parents are requested to telephone 1359 for appointment. The health department emphasized that the clinic is for well babies only, as the name implies. No babies having colds or coughs will be admitted, parents were counseled.

Pays Tribute—Capt. Reginald H. Vincent today paid a tribute to General Evangeline Booth, who retired today as international head of the Salvation Army after directing the organization's many-phased operations in 97 countries and colonies for the past five years. Captain Vincent, head of the Salvation Army unit here, declared that the retiring leader "has made the world a better place in which to live." Her long career, he continued, "is a saga of tremendous loves for the masses as a devoted servant of God; of an inborn dramatic talent and eloquence applied in all its fervor to the cause of militant gospel; of exceptional administrative gifts, business vision and sane imagination; of travels that have encircled the globe; of countless honors, even to those conferred by presidents and kings; of results abundant in tens of thousands helped to better things, and thousands lifted from the depths to a high plateau of noble living and useful citizenship."

On Business—Elmer Riley and John A. Hutchins of Ashland transacted business in Medford this morning.

Criminal Lawyer

Another rapid-fire verbal exhibition may be expected from Lee Tracy in his latest starring vehicle, "The Spellbinder," which opens a two-day run today at the New Rialto theatre. Barbara Read and Patrick Knowles also have roles in this screen-drama of a criminal lawyer and his ups and downs. "Missing Daughters," starring Richard Arlen, Rochelle Hudson, Marian Marsh and Isabel Jewell, plays as the added feature with the Tracy film. "Missing Daughters" is the dramatic and heart-rending story of the millions of girls each year, who go out into the world to seek their fortunes, and who, unable to cope with the outside world, end up in houses of prostitution and vice. The film is based upon the hectic career of "Lucky" Luciano, who ruled New York's largest vice syndicate until he was trapped and sent to prison by dynamic Thomas Dewey.
