

LOCAL and PERSONAL

To Have Sale—D.A.V. auxiliary will sponsor a rummage sale, bazaar and food sale Saturday in the old Golden Rule store on North Central avenue.

To Have Sale—Pythian Sisters will sponsor a rummage sale Friday and Saturday at 125 East 6th street. Clean and usable merchandise will be on sale, the order said.

Newbrys Leave—Mr. and Mrs. E. Lester Newbry and sons left their Phoenix home recently for Yreka, Cal., where they will make their home. Mr. Newbry will be engaged in the wholesale poultry, feed and other produce business.

Plane Passengers—Clayton Kirk arrived from the north by United Mainliner this forenoon. W. Alfonso left for Portland by Mainliner early this morning. Walter W. Abbey and W. G. Hannam arrived from the north last night and J. A. Grutch and R. Barol left on the same plane for San Francisco. H. L. Jones left by Mainliner last night for Portland.

Back from Rites—Mrs. T. K. Bellamy of Gold Hill returned last week to her home from Forest Grove where she attended funeral services for her husband. Mr. Bellamy died at Forest Grove on September 20 and final rites were held there at the Masonic chapel on September 23. Interment was made in the Forest Grove Masonic cemetery.

Leg Broken—Gus A. Peck of Lake Creek reported to city police today that a yearling calf broke its leg when it ran into the right rear fender of his automobile on the Lake Creek road Tuesday morning. Mr. Peck said that he slowed down for a herd of cattle on the road but that the yearling became frightened and galloped into the side of his car.

Clear in Park—Clear weather prevailed today in Crater Lake national park, rangers reported by short-wave radio. This morning a light northwest wind was blowing and visibility was good, the rangers said. South and west entrance roads were dry. The temperature was 35 degrees at 8 a. m. Temperature ranged in the previous 24 hours from a maximum of 59 to a minimum of 34.

Transfers Prisoners—Paul Hanlin, U. S. deputy marshal, left today for Klamath Falls with two federal prisoners. Mr. Hanlin was to deliver Roy Truax, 22, an alleged parole violator from Detroit, and Ralph Stevens, an asserted parole violator from El Reno, Okla., to other deputy marshals at Klamath Falls. Truax was then to be taken to a federal prison near Los Angeles and Stevens to a prison in Oklahoma. Mr. Hanlin was to return to Medford tonight.

Probing Burglary—Nothing appeared to be stolen but the door to the living quarters was smashed to pieces and the place had been occupied, District Ranger Lee Port reported to Rogue River national forest headquarters today regarding the burglary at the lookout station on the Ashland scenic loop drive. Instead of removing a panel of the door to reach the inside lock, the burglar or burglars broke the door beyond repair. Mr. Port stated, Entry was made also to a tool house from where wood was removed, presumably for heating the living quarters, he related. Rangers were continuing an investigation of the break today. Forest executives said they had been informed by state police that a Hyatt lake cabin had been entered recently. The entry was blamed on migrants in search of cached food.

Business Callers—L. R. Burke and R. R. Greene of the Railway Express Agency, are transacting business in this city and will be here for several days.

Ranger Here—Homer Hixon, ranger in charge of the Union Creek district of the Rogue River national forest, transacted business here today. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hixon. The Hixons plan to move to Medford soon for the winter. Mr. Hixon will work at forest headquarters here during the winter period.

VALLEY CANNERIES WIND UP SEASON

Rogue River Valley Canning company plant has completed its season's run and, according to E. P. Boutelle, general manager, "a fair season, not quite as good as last year, was enjoyed."

Operations were confined to canning beans, beans and pears. The beans and pears were produced by Manager Boutelle as being of exceptional quality. The plant canned no tomatoes, and will make no apple cider or vinegar this season.

The Bagley cannery at Ashland, Ralph E. Kooser, manager, completed tomato canning last week, with a pack of 55,000 cases of tomatoes and tomato juice under the "Del Rogue" label. Tomato sauce is being put up this week and it is expected that apples will be handled next week.

Burelson's Begin Anniversary Sale; Here Eleven Years

Marking the completion of 11 years of service to the people of southern Oregon, Burelson's will celebrate the event with a store-wide anniversary sale beginning tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Outstanding values from an exceptionally large stock of high quality fall merchandise will be featured on both the main floor and in the large downstairs bargain basement with extra sales-ladies to assist southern Oregon women in making selection. Mrs. Burelson announced today.

Eleven years ago Burelson's store was established on south Central avenue at Eighth street, where their business showed a rapid growth necessitating a number of expansions. From the South Central avenue location the store moved to their present location in the Medford Center building on North Central avenue, where 12 salespeople are now employed in the exclusive ladies' ready-to-wear shop.

Harold Burelson, formerly associated with ladies' ready-to-wear shops in Minneapolis, has been added to the staff in the capacity of assistant manager.

11th Polio Case

Portland, Nov. 1—(AP)—Portland's 11th case of infantile paralysis this year was reported yesterday by City Health Officer Dr. Adolph Weinzirl, who said there was no danger of an epidemic.

PAIR PLEAD GUILTY IN FLATIRON THEFT; SENTENCE DEFERRED

Fred Lorentzen, Jr., and Jasper Foster, Eagle Point district residents indicted for burglary in a dwelling, entered pleas of guilty, before Judge H. D. Norton in circuit court yesterday. They stand charged with theft of an electric flatiron and an embroidered cloth, from the home of Charles Edmonson near Butte Falls.

Advised by District Attorney F. J. Newman, the grand jury was still investigating suspicions the pair were involved in the burglary of Faber's Grocery at Butte Falls last summer, the court deferred passing of sentence until this matter was settled.

The Faber store robbery netted $52 in cash, and some cigarettes.

Lorentzen, Jr., and Foster were arrested at Long Beach, Calif., last August and returned here, where they have since been held in the county jail.

No date has been set for recalling the grand jury. Royal G. Brown, Eagle Point, foreman, which recessed last Thursday subject to call, after returning indictments against Lorentzen, Jr., and Foster, and three secret indictments not yet made public, because those named are not in custody.

Phoenix

Phoenix, Nov. 1.—(Sp.)—Word was received recently from Tacoma of the birth of a son, Larry Kay, weight 6 1/2 pounds, to Dr. and Mrs. L. K. Todd of Tacoma. Mrs. Todd was formerly Miss Doris Holmes. Celebrating the thirty-ninth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Caster last Sunday evening, members of the family enjoyed a dinner and presented the honored guests with a gift. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brooks, Shirley Burelson, Tom Caster and sons Otto, Norman and Dick. Mrs. Lena Burelson, Elva Caster, Mr. and Mrs. E. Brasher of Eureka, Calif., were dinner guests at the Caster home Saturday. When a young man Mr. Caster worked at the home of Mrs. Brasher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wiley, who lived at the place now known as the Coleman ranch.

Avril Welt of Roseburg visited the Cobbleth and Parks families last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Shields of Portland stopped en route from the fair and a California coast trip and visited Raymond Furry and Mrs. Belle Furry. The visitors accompanied by Marita Furry, Patty Nannette and Mrs. Belle Furry motored to Crater Lake while here and returning to Portland were accompanied by Mrs. Furry.

Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church October 20 for Mrs. Helen Webster who passed away at Pasadena October 17. Doctor and Mrs. Joseph B. Webster came to Oregon from Baltimore, Md., in 1910 and purchased an orchard on the Pioneer road west of Phoenix. They immediately identified themselves with all community and church enterprises.

The doctor served as a school director and during his term the present high school building was purchased from the Christian church people and made suitable for school purposes. Mrs. Webster was active in Parent-Teacher groups. They took

"Golden Boy" Coming Sunday

From Hollywood, home of motion pictures and superlatives, there is coming to the Craterian theater screen on Sunday a motion picture of so stirring dramatic impact that it has left its audiences groping for new descriptive phrases. The film is "Golden Boy," a screen version of the acclaimed stage success, with Barbara Stanwyck, Adolphe Menjou and William Holden starred.

Adroitly coming drama, color, characterization and romance. "Golden Boy" is the story of a youth with the sensitive soul of a musician who abandons his heart to win fame and fortune as a prize-ring champion.

Holden, 21-year-old college student, won the title role over 3000 other candidates. That a new star has been born has been amply proven in those cities where the picture has already played. Others in the cast include Sam Laverne, Ed Brophy, Frank Jenks and Lee Cobb.

an active part in the Presbyterian church. The doctor served as Sunday school superintendent and was chairman of the board of trustees during the period the present church building was being erected.

Mrs. Webster was an efficient worker and officer in the Missionary society and Ladies Aid and taught a Sunday school class. During the World war, Dr. and Mrs. Webster practiced as a physician who entered the service. They later returned to Phoenix where the doctor entered the real estate and insurance business, which he carried on until his death Dec. 11, 1935.

Helen Bartley Webster was born in Evansville, Wis., July 14, 1889. She was laid to rest in Phoenix cemetery by the side of her husband, The Rev. Newell S. Fiscus officiated at the last rites.

Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Hallcraft and sons of Roseburg spent the weekend in Phoenix Saturday evening they attended the convention of Neighbor of Woodcraft members at Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Barkley spent several days last week on a vacation trip to the San Francisco fair.

Harry Reames left Monday with Mrs. and Mrs. Berkley for San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Urdel entertained at a Halloween dinner Sunday. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hallgren, Mr. and Mrs. V. F. Birdseye and R. Bois.

Annual fall carnival is planned by the Grange for November 10 and a fish pond, handwork booth, candy booth, popcorn stand and many more attractions are being scheduled in addition to an entertaining program with amateurs participating.

Each Tuesday at 10 a. m. a group of ladies gather at the Presbyterian church and spend the afternoon sewing for the Red Cross, making nightgowns for refugees. Any lady in the community who desires to give of her time to this worthy cause is asked to come out and help.

Weather Northern California: Fair tonight and Thursday, but cloudy or foggy along coast; normal temperature; gentle northwest wind off coast.

Smelt Early Clatskanie, Ore., Nov. 1—(AP)—Smelt runs in the Columbia appeared off Clatskanie yesterday and Isaac Jalma, old-time fisher, declared they were the earliest in 30 years.

Autry Coming

Public Cowboy Number One—Gene Autry—heads a cast of stellar western stars in a new musical western, "Colorado Sunset," which comes to the New Rialto theater tomorrow for a three-day run as the added thrill hit with "Coast Guard," starring Randolph Scott, Frances Dee, Ralph Bellamy and Walter Connolly.

Larry (Buster) Crabbe, Robert Barrat, June Storey and ever-popular Smiley Burnette are starred with Autry in the action story of Colorado before it was a state.

Ossy Renardy Will Appear On Stage at Holly Next Tuesday

The 18-year-old violinist, Ossy Renardy, who astounded an ever-widening circle of this country's critics last season on his second American tour, will be presented at the Holly theater next Tuesday evening, as the first of three concerts to be held here during the season of 1939-40.

Young Renardy, who is a "pre-anschulux" Viennese, did not appear in public until he was 13, when Italy's concert managers, besieged him with offers of which his teacher permitted him to accept only a few. Renardy then returned to Vienna to study and mature his musical knowledge.

Since that initial tour of Italy in 1933, he gave a recital in the Konzerthaus of his native city, and concertized through the Baltic states, accompanied on the piano by Walter Tausig, assistant musical director of the Salzburg Opera Guild. In Kovno, Renardy played the Tschalkowsky Concerto with Tausig conducting the orchestra. Another tour took the young vio-

Corrigan Stars

Douglas (Wrong Way) Corrigan stars today only at the Roxy theater in his own story, the thrilling photoplay of his life and his daring flight in "The Flying Irishman."

Paul Kelly heads the supporting cast of players.

Too Late to Classify

FOR SALE—Modern four-room cottage, beautiful yard, near school. Bargain at $1900. H. G. Wilson. Phone 873-1584.

FOR SALE—Hay, Hungarian and common vetch seed mixed. Ed Hanley Ranch, Rt. 2, Box 201.

SALESMEN—Earn $5.00 a day and up selling service cards. $12.00 value that sells for $1.00. Apply Room 204, Liberty Bldg.

FOR LEASE to right party, service station on main highway in Central Point. Has lunch room facilities and living quarters. For information phone 952 or write P. O. Box 1074, Medford.

SELECT GREEN PINE SLABS, big load, $4.00. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631.

LOST—Toy wire-haired female dog, Phone 868-J.

FOR SALE—Six Jersey milk cows, one Jersey bull. Same Valley Turlock Ranch, McConnell.

MODERN 4-room furnished duplex. Reasonable. Phone 543-M or inquire 301 Beatty.

FOR SALE—Jonathan and Winter Banana apples; walnuts 2c lb. Jess Eldridge, Rt. 4, Fern Valley.

FOR RENT—4-room furnished house, 334 Apple.

WANTED—Passenger to Chicago, share expenses. 30 Plymouth, Leaving Friday, 609 Dakota. Phone 1417-Y.

RUMMAGE SALE Pythian Sisters. Clean usable merchandise to be sold reasonable. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 3 and 4, 125 East Sixth street.

FOR SALE—Ideal location for court. Six lots facing East 13th street between Franquette and Stevens street. Very cheap for cash. 712 Palm street.

FOR RENT—Furnished house 712 Pine street, 3 bedrooms. Reduced rent to small family for winter months. Inquire Mrs. Carley, North Pacific highway junction.

FOR SALE—Rabbitry at a bargain. 25 does, 100 young, 2 bucks, 50 portable hutches. C. W. Smith, Rogue River.

FOR SALE—4 acres, all level and irrigated, good soil, new 4-room plastered house and bath, cement foundation, barn, well located, near Medford. Owner leaving—has offered to sell for $2650. Terms: L. G. Pickell, 16 So. Bartlett.

AUCTION SALE at Pavilion, north Medford, Sat., Nov. 4. Sale commences at 1:30 sharp. Have lots of pigs consigned for this sale. If you have property you want converted into cash try our auction market. Always attend the auction. Bro. C. W. Livestock Auction Co. Col. A. H. Dudley, auctioneer. Phone 891-J-3.

AUCTION SALE REGISTERED HEREFOOT 50 BULLS AND HEIFERS 50 Fat Steers consigned from Steer Show. Consignment of Southern Oregon and Northern California Fat Steer show and awards will be held prior to sale. Field representatives: Nelson R. Crow, Westport; Fred Reppert, Decatur, Ind.; Indiana, auctioneer, assisted by Col. A. H. Dudley, Medford, Oregon.

STILL AVAILABLE Double Lead Green Pine Slabs, 84 VALLEY FUEL CO. Tel. 78

FOR RENT—Nicely furnished duplex; oil heater, electric range, refrigerator, Maytag, etc. Adults. 619 N. Riverside.

WANTED—Scrap iron, to supply increasing demand. Spot cash paid at latest market price. MEDFORD BARGAIN HOUSE 27 North Grape St. Phone 1063.

FOR SALE—By the lug or by the truck load New Towns. Nice quality, good steers. Bring containers. MYRON ROOT & CO., INC. Warehouse 47 South 3rd St.

SEE BARNEY for carefree winter driving. BARNEY'S SIGNAL 8th and Riverside.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning! It's the Little Liver Pills that get the bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Refuse anything else. At all drug stores, 10¢ and 25¢.

Large advertisement for the movie 'The Road to Glory' featuring James Cagney and Priscilla Lane. The ad includes the title 'The Auto-Biography of a Nation On a Jag!', the names of the stars, and promotional text like 'starts TODAY for FOUR DAYS!' and 'The thrills of 30 breathless years in one breath-taking picture... told in a way you'll never forget!'. It also lists other cast members: Humphrey Bogart, Gladys George, Jeffrey Lynn, Frank McHugh, and Paul Kelly. The ad is for the Craterian theater.

Advertisement for the movie 'The Spellbinder' featuring Lee Tracy and Richard Arlen. Text: 'HURRY! THEY END TONITE! Lee Tracy in "The Spellbinder" Plus Richard Arlen-Rochelle Hudson in "Missing Daughters"'

Advertisement for the movie 'Coast Guard' featuring Randolph Scott, Frances Dee, and Gene Autry. Text: 'TOMORROW for 3 Thrill-Packed Days! Out of raging seas and howling gales... comes a drama of the service that never sleeps... "COAST GUARD" with RANDOLPH SCOTT • FRANCES DEE Ralph BELLAMY • Walter CONNOLLY plus this companion thrill! GENE AUTRY in "COLORADO SUNSET" Smiley Burnette - Larry Crabbe'

Advertisement for Ossa Renardy's performance at Pruitt's Radio Music Center. Text: 'Don't Sell Yourself Short! Don't allow this grand opportunity of hearing world-famed artists pass you by... make reservations NOW... OSSY RENARDY DONALD DICKSON MARIAN ANDERSON Season Tickets Now On Sale 20 rows-$6.60 7 rows-$5.50 7 rows-$4.40 Incl. Tax. Concert Series Boxoffice PRUITT'S RADIO MUSIC CENTER 111 W. Main Phone 725'

Advertisement for the movie 'The Flying Irishman' featuring Douglas Corrigan and Paul Kelly. Text: 'TOMORROW and Friday! A MIGHTY KING... A PROUD QUEEN... Paul MUNI with Bette DAVIS "JUAREZ" with BRIAN ARNOLD CLAUDE RAINS & Renee Rappaport The Story of Mexico's Liberator TODAY ONLY! THE FLYING IRISHMAN with DOUGLAS CORRIGAN - PAUL KELLY "Wrong Way's" Real Story'