Flies To Eureka—W. H. Fluhrer, president of the Fluhrer Bakeries, Inc., and a sportsman pilot, left yesterday in his Fairchild plane for Eureka, Cal., to transact business at one of the company units. He planned to return this afternoon.

To Give Play—"Spooky Tavern," a three-act mystery farce, will be presented by the young people of the First Christian church in the Lincoln school gymnasium at 8 p. m. next Wednesday. The production is being sponsored by the Lincoln school P.T.A. The public is invited.

To Take Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bacheider, who recently sold the Oakdale grocery store to Alton M. Anderson, plan to leave soon for a month's vacation in the north before returning to make their home at 626 Park avenue. They will travel by motor car.

Snow Trace—A trace of snow fell in Crater Lake national park last night, rangers reported by short-wave radio this morning. Temperature at 8 a. m. was given as 25 degrees, the range in the past 24 hours being from a maximum of 50 to a minimum of 24. Partly cloudy weather prevailed this morning but visibility was good, the rangers said. Roads in the park were in good condition.

Fishermen Return—W. C. McCulston and Frank Howell of Medford returned home Thursday from a two-day fishing trip to the Chetco river. They brought back a 33-pound Royal Chinook salmon. They reported fishing fair with fishermen averaging 1 1/2 to two salmon per boat each day.

Completes Visits Mrs. Emma Merriman returned yesterday to her home at 515 North Bartlett street after a month's absence during which she visited relatives. She was a guest of her son, Lester Merriman, and his family in Chillicothe, and her niece, Mrs. M. F. Biden, and her family in Klamath Falls.

Maryama Pledges—Yoshio Maryama, son of Masuzo Maryama of Medford, was pledged last week to Delta Psi Delta, Greek letter social fraternity at Linfield college in McMinnville. Maryama, an outstanding tennis player, chose the fraternity after a rush season that brought forward a two weeks' entertainment schedule from the five college fraternities.

Hold Fire Drills—Pupils of the Central Point grade school were given fire drills this morning under the supervision of Medford Fire Chief Roy Elliott, Fireman Vern Woods and Mrs. Una B. Inch, rural school supervisor. After a number of drills, the evacuation signal was given and the 240 pupils got out of the school in orderly fashion in 45 seconds. The children were alert in responding to the drills and did exceptionally well in the evacuation, Chief Elliott said.

To Attend Game—George Robertson, Russell D. Davis and Billy Hulen, sports editor of the Mail Tribune, left this noon by motorcar for Eugene where they will attend the Medford-Eugene high school football game this evening. They plan to travel on to Portland tomorrow to view the U.S.C. University of Oregon game Saturday afternoon.

New Residence—Ed Janney applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a new residence at 39 Berkeley Way at a stated cost of $5,500. Legion Warns—Medford post of the American Legion today counseled merchants against purchasing Armistice day window cards in the belief that sale of the cards is sponsored by the veterans' organization. The Medford post distributes window cards to all merchants without charge and anyone attempting to collect in the name of the American Legion is operating under false pretenses, a notice from the post stated. Each year at this time merchants are approached by men pretending to be representatives of the American Legion selling Armistice day cards, the post notice stated. Commander H. J. Meiring should be notified of any attempts to sell Armistice day display cards in the name of the American Legion, the announcement said. His telephone numbers are 1264 and 956-L.

BILLION DOLLARS IN PLANE ORDERS AWAITING REPEAL

governments, to be signed as soon as final action is taken on the neutrality bill, include one for $30,000,000 for planes from the Douglas Aircraft company and one for $5,000,000 from Lockheed Aircraft.

Huge Orders Placed British and French orders placed before the arms embargo went into effect early last September amount to about $30,000,000, the remaining orders representing war and navy department expansion business and non-military commercial trade.
