Mrs. Heath, the former Miss Nelda McClanahan, attended Medford high school. Mr. Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Heath of Central Point, attended Central Point high school.

The popular young couple will make their home in Central Point.

Standard Home Scene of Family Reunion Tuesday

A family dinner party attended by three generations was enjoyed Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. Susie Standard on West Main street.

Members of the family who were out-of-town guests included Albert Vincent of Burns, Lydia Roberts and her son Sydney of Palo Alto, Cal. Others were Mrs. Lydia Vincent, Dr. Stand ard, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. N. Poling, Mr. and Mrs. L. Van Gordon, and the Misses Mildred and Gweneith Poling and Lottie Watkins.

A Hallowe'en motif was used as decorations at the pleasant family affair.

Wings Leave on Extended Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wing planned to leave this morning by motorcar for an extended vacation to be spent in the east.

The Wings will visit in Kansas, Minnesota, Chicago, New York and Miami, Fla., for two months, returning here around the first of the year.

During the Wings' absence from this city, Mrs. Wing's mother, Dr. Mary Strickler of Long Beach, Cal., will stay with the two Wing children, Charlotte and Jean.

St. Mark's to Dine Monday

St. Mark's Altar Guild will meet Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the parish hall on North Oakdale avenue for a regular session and a cafeteria dinner.

Golf Champion

Janet Ross is the new women's golf champion at the Grants Pass Country club. She is a high school senior and last Sunday won the fall handicap tournament trophy. She is the niece of Mrs. C. C. McCredie, Mrs. Elmer Childers and Mrs. Gene Childers, all of Medford. Janet defeated Mrs. S. W. McQuat in the final match of the 1939 fall tournament. Twice one of the winners, until this year, of the spring two-ball foursome trophy, Miss Ross will receive the new award at a housewarming party at the club today.

Study Club Has Interesting Meet On Wednesday

Wednesday Study club held a regular meeting last week with Mrs. N. T. Hodges, vice-president presiding.

Mrs. F. K. Duell, in an entertaining manner reviewed the book, "I Wanted To Be An Actress" by Katherine Cornell. She told of the actress' early life, her struggles to establish herself as an actress, the influence of Maud Adams in "Peter Pan" and her work during the World war. The speaker also told of the actress' meeting with Guthrie McClintic who is now her husband, her huge success in "Barretts of Wimpole Street" and her six months tour to many large cities.

A paper on "The Theater Away From Broadway" was given by Mrs. Silas King. She outlined the divisions of the tributary theaters as being the little theater movement started in 1911, the part colleges are playing in this movement, the Federal Projects. She mentioned the Shakespearean Festival in Ashland and its fame in all parts of the country and she told of the revival of the road companies and their part in theater away from Broadway.

Mrs. W. J. Warner addressed the group on her recent visit to the little theater in New Orleans while on a trip this summer. She described the grounds and building which were built in 1794. Plays are given in both French and English, Mrs. Warner said. She told of viewing the building where Patti was born and raised. Current events pertaining to the theater concluded the interesting session.

St. Anne's To Meet Tuesday

Mrs. Everett Brayton's unit of St. Anne's Altar society will meet at the parish hall Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members are asked to attend.

Large Crowd at Church Homecoming Wednesday Noon

The Adult Missionary society of the First Christian church observed its first "home-coming" with a covered dish luncheon, Wednesday in the church parlors.

The society consists of six groups and each group leader and her assistant arranged and decorated their own table.

Mrs. Kathleen Scovell and group won a beautifully decorated cake for having the largest number of members present.

During the luncheon hour Mrs. Arnold Bohnert sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Sims, who also led in group singing. Mrs. Julia Gregory read a poem, "The Big Little Church," and Mrs. Susie Eads presented Mrs. Gregory with a lovely gift from the executive committee, honoring her birthday.

Later the regular monthly meeting was held.

Mrs. Della Childs, as program chairman, presented the following program: The theme for the worship period, "To Witness for Christ," was conducted by Mrs. Ireland. She told several interesting stories to stress the lesson.

Mrs. Lois Young sang a solo, "Open Mine Eyes That I May See." She was accompanied by Mrs. E. R. Cobb.

Mrs. Cora Archer gave a talk on "The Church; Its Inner Life."

The question, "Are the members of my church as active in evangelism as the lay members of India?" was discussed by Mrs. C. C. Drummond, who spent 29 years in India.

Seventy members and guests attended this meeting and it was decided to make the home-coming an annual affair.

Mrs. Wait Honored At Birthday Party
