

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Guests From Roseburg—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Unrath and baby daughter, Mary Elise, of Roseburg, visited at the home of Mrs. Unrath's aunt, Mrs. Susan Eads, 29 Kenwood, Sunday.

Continues Flight—Lieut. A. B. Edwards left Medford municipal airport this morning for Fort Lewis, Wash., in an army Douglas observation plane. He arrived here late yesterday from Sacramento, Cal.

Mothers To March — Rogue River Valley Navy Mother's club members are to meet at Ivy and Main streets at 10:30 Saturday morning, Armistice Day, preparatory to marching in the parade at 11:05.

At Matches—Among Ashland residents attending the wrestling matches in the Medford armory last night were Earl Leevee, George Shaffer, Aubrey Miles, P. D. McDougall, W. D. Jackson, Harry Chipman, Allen Aury and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Jackson.

To Give Course—An advanced course in first aid will be held in the Red Cross office at the county courthouse Thursday evening at 7:30. All persons who have completed the standard first aid course are eligible to take this advanced course. John Nagley will instruct the class.

To Elect—Annual election of officers will be held by the Jacksonville Home Economics club Wednesday afternoon. The meeting will be held at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Emma Conger. Because of the importance of the meeting, all members were requested to attend.

Correction — In Monday's Roxy Anne Grange news it was erroneously announced that members were planning to spend Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Maddern in their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Maddern are entertaining tomorrow night, Wednesday, instead of Saturday.

Have Baby—Medford friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson of Klamath Falls will be interested to know that a girl was born to them on November 1. The baby has been named Sue Kathleen. Mrs. Thompson has visited here often and is prominent in Klamath Falls American Association of University Women. The Thompsons own the Pioneer Tobacco company in Klamath Falls.

Unit Is Sponsor—Eagle Point extension unit is sponsoring the talk to be given by Mrs. A. T. Lathrop in the Eagle Point Grange hall at 8 p.m. Wednesday. It was erroneously announced at first that the Grange was sponsoring the lecture. Everyone is invited to attend and there will be no charge of any kind. Mrs. Lathrop will tell of her experiences as Jackson county delegate to the convention of Associated Country Women of the World in London, England, last summer.

Plane Passengers—Miss Virginia Bauman arrived by United Mainliner last midnight from Seattle, Wash. Departing by Mainliner last night for Billings, Mont., via Seattle were Fred Reppert, noted auctioneer, and Forrest Bassford of the American Hereford Journal, both of whom were here for the Caloregon Hereford Breeders association's auction sale yesterday. C. M. Hurd, Chevrolet dealer, returned from Portland last evening and W. M. Gleason left on the same plane for San Francisco. Gleason had arrived from San Francisco on the afternoon Mainliner. C. M. Starnes and H. L. Smith left on the afternoon plane for Portland.

Tentatively Accepted — Five youths have been accepted tentatively for enlistment in the U. S. navy and they will leave here Monday night by train for Portland where they will be given their final physical examinations. It was announced today by George E. Patterson, in charge of the naval recruiting office in Medford federal building. The youths are Harold T. Pierce of Central Point, Francis O. Gero of Hill, Cal., Odem L. Ford of Myrtle Creek and John E. Warren and Harvey J. Ovgard of Klamath Falls. If they pass the examinations in Portland, they will go immediately to San Diego, Cal., for three months of preliminary training before being assigned to actual duty. Applications for enlistment are still being received by Mr. Patterson.

Building Permit — C. A. Schmidt of 540 South Fir street applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to make an addition to his garage at a stated cost of $50

Ginger Rogers Here Wednesday

When a millionaire's wife plans a trip to Reno so she can marry a playboy, his son neglects the family pump-making business for polo and the daughter travels with a crowd of gold-fish gulpers, something should be done. How the two get together, with Ginger acting as a little gold-digger and playgirl in an effort to make the family "snap out of it" makes delightful entertainment.

Reese Creek

Reese Creek, Nov. 7.—(Sp.)—Morning and evening services were attended by a full house Sunday. Mrs. Etna Davis led the Young People's meeting. W. Harold Reedy will lead Young People's meeting Sunday evening, Nov. 12. Midweek Prayer meeting will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Ish, near Eagle Point, Wednesday evening, Nov. 8. All are invited.

Home and School Circle ladies met November 3 with Mrs. E. E. Jackson in chair. L. E. Francis, county 4-H club agent, was present and discussed 4-H club work and its possibilities with the school work. Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. George Millard served delicious refreshments. There will be a meeting at the home of Mrs. Sam Redding to organize a Red Cross unit in Reese creek Thursday at 2 p. m. The work will be sewing, with all materials furnished by the Red Cross. All ladies of the community are invited.

Mr. Reedy, the teacher, accompanied by Eugene Bellows, Glenn Wadell, David Jackson, Donald Shearin, Jim Jackson, Stanley Martin, Eldred Jack and Lloyd Myrtate, took their lunches and hiked Saturday to the top of Old Baldy or Vestal peak.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bromer and two daughters, also the mother, Mrs. Mabel Brumbe, and friend Mrs. Clark, from Klamath Falls, also Ralph Lamb, were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lamb November 2, enjoying a bear feed.

Miss Etna Davis was dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Merritt Sunday and accompanied them to Medford for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hatfield and Mrs. Sarah Holiday, "grandmother," as she is lovingly called, spent the past week-end visiting old friends and neighbors at Reese Creek. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jack, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lamb, Mrs. Mary Brouse, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cummons and Mrs. Agnes Moffitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Redding and family, Robert Alcho, Miriam and Sammy, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lamb November 5.

Mr. Lamb was one of the lucky hunters around here, being able to bag a fine black bear. The roast meat was delicious.

Ralph Lamb was home for the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lamb. He is a student at the College of Education at Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lamb accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Sam Redding and family Sunday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Dickerson and family, former residents of this district, now living at Cascade Gorge, taking their son Elcho, and Thayer Shearin back to attend Prospect high school.

Upside Governor Providence, R. I. (U.P.)—While entertaining half the state police force at his Oakland Farm in Portsmouth, Gov. William H. Vanderbilt suffered a sacro-iliac misplacement during a soft ball game. He contented himself with acting as umpire when he entertained the other half of the force a week later.

CO. JAIL MATRON INJURED BY AUTO AT INTERSECTION

Mrs. Lovica Waynack, police matron at the county jail, was struck by an automobile driven by A. L. Vroman of 124 Tripp street at the intersection of Main and Bartlett streets at 7:30 last night, and today was confined in Community hospital with injuries which may possibly prove serious, according to her attending physician.

Mrs. Dora Robinson of 807 West Eighth street, who was walking with Mrs. Waynack, also was knocked to the pavement by the impact, but was not injured.

Mrs. Waynack's physician said today that she suffered a severe head blow, an injured left knee, a bruised right hand, a slight scalp wound and shock. The doctor said Mrs. Waynack was suffering from distress in her chest, which may be a possible internal injury. X-ray pictures were to be taken today when she was more rested, the doctor said. He added that she spent a fairly restful night.

Mrs. Waynack and Mrs. Robinson were crossing Main street from north to south on the west side of Bartlett street when the accident occurred, according to investigating city police officers. The Vroman machine, traveling west on Main street, struck the two women a few feet from the north curb. Mrs. Waynack, nearest the car, took the full brunt of the collision. In falling she struck Mrs. Robinson and both fell to the pavement, police stated. Mrs. Waynack's head cracked against the street.

Vroman and Mrs. Robinson placed the injured woman in the Vroman auto and rushed her to the hospital. The driver of the car told police he didn't see the two women until it was too late to avoid striking them. He was not held.

DREARY OUTLOOK FOR HORSES AND MULES

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The agriculture department forecast a dreary future today for the American horse and mule. In an outlook report, it said the probability of increased tractor competition, declining prices for the work animals, the inroads of disease in some sections plus a high old-age toll and a decreased colt crop, all point to a further decrease in horses and mules on farms.
