FRIENDS URGING GARNER, WHEELER SEEK NOMINATION

Texan's Associates Seeking Declaration in Hope of Gaining Early Support

Washington, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Friends of Vice-President Garner and Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) were reported authoritatively today to have urged them to make formal declarations of candidacy for the next democratic presidential nomination. Before leaving Washington last week-end for his Uvalde, Tex., home, Garner was said to have declined a "yes" or "no" answer to these suggestions. Some of Garner's associates were described as believing that he should make a general declaration of his views in order to gain the early support of like-minded voters. Others, it was said, advised him his position on fundamental policies already was well known and that nothing would be gained from their public reiteration. Wheeler was understood to have decided to withhold comment on the presidential race. Authoritative sources said he believed an effort to step into the 1940 situation would be politically ill-advised until after President Roosevelt has made known whether he would stand for a third term. Capital speculation on potential Democratic candidates was stirred anew by Secretary Wallace's reiteration of his belief Mr. Roosevelt should have another term.

JOHN M. ALLEN, 81, TAKEN BY DEATH

FUEHRER'S CAREER MARKED BY MANY ATTEMPTS ON LIFE

Streicher, anti-Semite leader, charges "a murderer was bought for 50,000 marks to kill Hitler at Nuremberg party congress."

Dec. 18, 1934: Rumors Hitler wounded by a German girl denied by officials, who also scoff at London report Hitler's plane fired upon recently in East Prussia.

Jan. 6, 1935: Unconfirmed reports from Munich and Berlin say two storm troopers shot at Hitler December 31, but hit his chauffeur instead; story denied but it is noted that Hitler has new chauffeur.

March 6, 1935: Copenhagen police arrest eight men, including three Americans, expressing fear they were plotting against Hitler.

June 15, 1935: Vienna newspaper says a companion of Hitler wounded in attack on him at Berchtesgaden retreat.

June 15, 1936: Paris newspapers report followers of late Captain Roehm conducting campaign of terrorism with death warnings sent to Hitler; Berlin denies it.

June 4, 1937: Helmuth Hirsch, 21-year old Jewish grandson of a naturalized American, executed for attempt on life of Julius Streicher; nazis deny Hitler was his object.

Oct. 7, 1938: Hitler struck in face and scratched by bunch of roses tossed during his triumphal tour of Sudetenland; general order issued against any bouquets along his route in future.

April 4, 1935: Spoke from behind glass shield at Wilhelmshaven; nazis said it was for protection of his throat and not a bullet-proof device.
