

Beavers Vanquish Oregon 19 to 14; Medford Boys Do Stuff

EX-TIGER TAKES KICKOFF; SPEEDS 93 YDS. TO SCORE

Four Victors Badly Hurt In Battle—Bob Smith's Pass To Graybeal Nets Touchdown.

Eugene, Nov. 11.—(P)—Oregon State college's 19-14 victory over Oregon here this afternoon was a costly triumph for the Beavers and hopes of completing the remainder of their coast conference game without another defeat were virtually shattered.

Four Beavers were badly hurt, two with broken bones that will probably keep them on the bench the remainder of the season. Coach Lon Stiner of O.S.C. blamed a "slow whistle" for the injuries.

Morris Kohler, regular right halfback, broke his left hand, his pitching palm; Walt Jelsma, regular right tackle, broke his right knee; Jim Kisselburgh, hard-running and long-punting fullback, suffered a dislocated and possible broken left shoulder, and Don Durdan, end-study for Kohler, was carried away in an ambulance during the game when he suffered a cut lip that severed a blood vessel.

Webfoot team doctors stated that not a single Oregon player received more than the usual bumps and bruises.

Hayward Field, Eugene, Ore., Nov. 11.—(P)—Oregon State college clung to the heels of the Pacific Coast conference leaders here today by winning its fourth straight football game from an ancient rival, the University of Oregon, 19 to 14, in a battle that saw the Webfoots threaten to the very end.

The Beavers showed the effect of last week's heavy pounding from Southern California but managed to build up a lead the Webfoots couldn't quite overcome.

An injury to big Jim Kisselburgh, Beaver fullback who had to be taken from the game in the third period, slowed the Oregon State offense but the Orangemen's stalwart line held the fort after an explosive 50 seconds at the start of the second half scored two touchdowns before the crowd of 20,500 had finished its hot dogs.

The half ended with Oregon State leading 10 to 7. The Orangemen extended the lead to 17 to 7 when Bob Olson took Jay Graybeal's kickoff on the 7-yard line and ran 93 yards for a score. Leonard Younce kicked the point.

Oregon counter-punched in two plays. Younce kicked off to Oregon State and Graybeal returned the ball to Oregon's 34-yard line. Bob Smith faded deep and whipped a 16-yard pass to Graybeal. The Oregon star caught the ball on the 50 and ran the remaining distance for a touchdown. He also converted and the tally was 17-14.

Oregon State scored on a break in the first period when Smith fumbled a punt and Walt Jelsma recovered for the Orangemen on Oregon's 13.

Olsen pitched the ball to George Peters for a touchdown. Younce converted and the score stood at 7-0 until the second period was half over when Oregon State worked to the Webfoot 10-yard line and Younce placed kicked a field goal from the 13. After the kick-off Smith flipped a pass to Graybeal who scampered 62 yards to the Beaver 43-yard line before Olson and Kisselburgh collared him. Graybeal rifled the ball to Frank Emmons for score.

Oregon State got a safety in the last minute when Graybeal tried to pass from his own end zone and was downed by Byington of Oregon State.

The summary:

Husky Babes Win

Seattle, Nov. 11.—(P)—A star-studded Washington State college freshman lineup fell before a heavier, smoother-operating University of Washington freshman football squad in the state's "little civil war" game today, the Husky Pups beating the Cou-babes, 12-6.

MEDFORD POUNDS OUT 38 TO 6 WIN OVER GRIZZLIES

Three Tallies In Fourth Quarter Turns Game Into Rout—Clute Scores Point

Even Left Tackle Al Barrow scored a touchdown and 250-pound Bill (Willie) Clute attained his heart's desire by tallying a point as Medford's Black Tornado, pounding toward the mythical state championship, kept its 1939 slate clear with a 38 to 6 victory over Ashland's Grizzlies before 3,000 fans at the stadium yesterday afternoon.

It was a fairly close ball game for three quarters, with the Tigers, using second and third-stringers most of the time, enjoying only a 19 to 6 lead as the fourth period opened. In the final 12 minutes, however, the Tornado smashed across three touchdowns to turn the battle into a rout, as the out-manned Grizzlies tired.

Ike Orr and Cato Wray, halfbacks, each tallied two touchdowns, and Barrow and John Saulsbury, fullback, got one apiece. Wray, starting his place in place of Bob Newland, led Medford's ground gainers with 139 yards from scrimmage, including a sensational 80-yard dash for a touchdown. Saulsbury accounted for 103 yards from rushing, 24 of them coming on a touchdown gallop, and was probably the best back on the field.

Jandreau scored Ashland's lone touchdown in the second quarter, going over Medford's left guard from two yards out after a 40-yard pass from him to Silver placed the ball in scoring position.

Ashland should have scored another touchdown, in the opening minutes of the game, but Bostwick dropped an aerial shot squarely in his arms over the goal line. Ardie Warren fired the pass from the Medford six yard line, where the Grizzlies advanced the ball on passes and line bucks following a 21-yard kick by Saulsbury.

The Black Tornado marched 80 yards for its first score with Saulsbury climaxing the drive by plunging off Ashland's left tackle and getting great interference for 24 yards and a touchdown. Howard's place-kick was short for the extra point. The Tigers put together three first downs in this first-quarter scoring advance, with Wray being shaken loose for two runs of 10 and one of 20 yards.

Just before the first quarter ended Barrow recovered an Ashland fumble on the Ashland 28-yard line to set up the Tigers for their second touchdown. Saulsbury, Wray and Orr took it to the five in the opening moments of the second heat and Orr hit over right tackle for the score. Howard converted with a place-kick.

Another Ashland fumble was recovered on the 28-yard line by James, to give Medford its third scoring opportunity, and the Tigers took advantage of it. Wray and Saulsbury plunged it to the five-yard line and Wray went off tackle for the touchdown. A run by Stead failed for the extra point.

There was no scoring in the third period, but just before the quarter ended Bob Newland returned a punt 32 yards to the Ashland 16-yard line. As the fourth stanza opened Orr went 14 yards over right guard and then Barrow on a tackle-around reverse, crashed over for the first points he has scored in three years of competition. Louie Thurman's place-kick was wide.

After Silver, on a reverse on the kickoff, raced 48 yards to the Medford 33-yard line, the Tigers took the ball on downs on their own 20, when Ashland passes were incomplete, and struck for their fifth touchdown. On the first play Wray swung wide around Ashland's right end and with marvelous down-field blocking by almost the entire Tiger team, swept 80 yards to cross the goal line. A plunge by Orr failed for the extra point.

Midway through the final quarter Medford got its last touchdown. Orr caught a short punt on Ashland's 25-yard line, and on the next play he socked straight through a gaping hole at center and galloped into the end zone. It was here that Clute accounted for his precious point. He booted a perfect place-kick over the crossbar for the extra point.

Medford's line from end to end—Miksche, Wall, Howard, Wallis, Hibbert, Barrow and Winter, and the numerous replacements, turned in outstanding defensive and offensive exhibitions. On offense it held Ashland to 74 yards net from scrimmage, and opened up holes on offense that Medford backs converted into a total of 340 yards from rushing. The younger players looked especially good.

Failing to gain consistently through the Tornado forward wall, the Grizzlies took to the air and completed seven out of 13 passes for 85 yards. The Tigers tried only six aerials, completing two for 25 yards.

Ardie Warren was Ashland's chief ground-gainer, accounting for 25 yards, while Bostwick got 21. Schilling and Silver in the Ashland line played fine football.

The victory was Medford's seventh of the year in eight starts, and was Ashland's sixth without a victory.

ROSE BOWL PLANS NO PRICE BOOST

Los Angeles, Nov. 11.—(P)—Willis O. Hunter, director of athletics of the University of Southern California, said flatly today the Pacific Coast conference Rose Bowl committee had rejected any idea of boosting ticket prices for the Rose Bowl football game.

"The recommendation of the committee," Hunter said, "is that there need be no increase in the ticket rates, and the scale will remain as it was last year. The committee feels confident that the conference proper will approve its recommendation when it is submitted to it November 15."

The scale last year included prices of $4.40 per seat between the goal posts, $3.30 for seats back of the goal posts, and $5.50 for box seats. It had been proposed that a flat scale of $4.40 be initiated for all seats except boxes, which would remain at $5.50.

MIGHTY TROJANS BLAST STANFORD WITH GREAT EASE

Los Angeles, Nov. 11.—(P)—Southern California's mighty Trojans, driving like a juggernaut on along the road to the Rose bowl, routed Stanford today in the biggest demonstration of scoring since the ancient rivals began their grid relations back in 1905.

When the final gun sounded, the score was: Southern California 33, Stanford 0.

The game was played—and thoroughly decided—in the first half. The warriors of Troy, performing before 50,000 fans in the Pacific Coast conference encounter, scored one touchdown in the first quarter, added three more in the second with a powerful display of strength on the ground and in the air, and quit the field at half time with a 27-0 lead.

Long before the score reached this all-time high, however, Coach Howard Jones had reached far back on his list of reserves, playing fourth, fifth and sixth string subs.

Star of the game, if one outstanding man can be singled out of the Trojan machine, was Grenville Lansell, with big Harry Smith, running guard, socking when socking was needed.

Lansell engineered the first drive, a 72-yard affair, and counted the initial touchdown. He came back in the third period to further baffle the Stanford with aerial skill, and after passing the team 80 yards, scored on an end run from the four-yard line. His were the first and last touchdowns of the game, which dragged on so the arc lights were turned on.

As soon as Lansell left the lineup, Amby Schindler took his place, led the charge and passed for the second touchdown. Doyle Nave rushed into relieve Schindler, and he accounted for two touchdowns—one personally, the other on a short but certain pass to Sub Halfback Phil Duboski.

UNVEILED DRAGON TO FACE SCHULZ

One of wrestling's greatest manipulators of the excruciating Boston crab hold will perform before another expected capacity crowd of ladies nighters when Paul Bozell, well-known here as the Black Dragon, goes against Hans Schulz in the armory main event Monday night.

Bozell hasn't grappled in southern Oregon for almost two years but he is well remembered by all fans. It was Bozell, then the masked Black Dragon, who was the number one muscle-mangler of this territory, and since he has been gone he has improved to the point where he now is recognized as one of the nation's leading heavyweights.

Bozell's favorite pinning hold is the Boston crab, and with it he defeated Belcastro, Chick, Britt and many other top-notchers during his stay here. Fans will welcome him back with open arms, although he is inclined to be slightly off-color in his tactics. If he can beat Schulz, though, he will become positively a hero.

The middle clash will pit Pete Belcastro against King Kong Clayton, sensational Negro. The opener will see Ernie Piluso of Portland, Pacific coast light-heavyweight champion, tangling with Duke Pettigrove in a rematch. Last week the pair staged a bloody thriller, with Piluso pounding Duke into helplessness.

HUSKIES DEFEAT CALIFORNIA, 13-6, IN HECTIC TILT

Berkeley, Calif., Nov. 11.—(P)—The Washington Huskies and California Bears, both boosted around considerably this season in Pacific Coast conference competition, staged a wild and exciting football game here today with the Huskies taking the decision, 13 to 6.

The Bears smashed through the Washington guards and tackles almost at will in the first quarter and set themselves up for the first touchdown of the game which came after two plays in the second quarter.

Firpo, California left halfback, passed from the Washington 13 over the goal line to Right End Paul Semmens for the score. The try for point was blocked. Then the fireworks started.

California kicked off and Washington put the ball in play on its own 18-yard line. Right Halfback MacAdams passed to Left End MacDowell who caught the ball on the Washington 40 and ran on to score. It was Washington's first touchdown in Memorial stadium here since 1927.

A fumble by Firpo of California late in the second quarter set the stage for Washington's winning touchdown. Washington's quarterback, Donald Means, grabbed Firpo's fumble in mid-air on California's 38 and then rambled to the six before he was nailed. In three plays the Huskies gained only three yards, but on the fourth down Right Halfback MacAdams made a sensational one-handed catch of Sub Quarterback Bill Gleason's pitch over the goal line. Sub Halfback John Mizen kicked from placement to give Washington the extra point.

IDAHO CONQUERED BY COUGARS, 21-13

Pullman, Wash., Nov. 11.—(P)—The Vandals of Idaho twice burned a 98-yard touchdown fuse today on Rogers field, but the Washington State college dynamite was potent enough to blow the invaders home on the losing end of a 21 to 13 count.

Thrills enough to satisfy the crowd of 12,000 were packed in two minutes of the opening quarter when the W.S.C. Cougars powered 60 yards for the first touchdown and University of Idaho immediately knotted the count at 7-all on a 98-yard kickoff return by left half Maurice Young.

The Vandals struck again as the second half opened, gamboling on a pass with 90 yards of turf between them and the Cougar goal. The ball actually moved 98 yards, quarterback Merle Stoddard standing on the two when he lined the leather to right half Chick Atkinson, who caught it on the 30 and went the route untouched.

But two state college touchdowns had climaxed a pair of second-quarter air attacks to give the Cougars a comfortable margin. Sophomore Bill Sewell, substitute left halfback, sparked them both, passing 16 to Earle Ross for the first one.

He set the other up with a 38-yard toss to Ross on the Idaho 10, and fullback Rex Bantz plowed over for the score a moment later from the one-yard line. Brown place-kicked every try for point for the Cougars.

Idaho fought to State's 17 in the final period, but an intercepted pass choked off the threat.

Apostoli Signs
Denver, Nov. 11.—(P)—Promoter Jack Kanner announced today he had signed Fred Apostoli, former middleweight boxing champion, for a bout with Eddie Pierce of Johannesburg, South Africa, here December 5.

MICHIGAN STATE LOSES TO BRONCOS BY TOUCHDOWN

San Francisco, Nov. 11.—(P)—One flashing drive, 62 yards piled up in a combined aerial and ground attack, and University of Santa Clara defeated Michigan State 6-0 today to uphold the finest traditions of far western football.

Some 18,000 fans, sitting in almost summer-like weather, saw a contest which opened practically as a rout end up after a bitter struggle.

Pre-game odds favored the western Broncos but after the first period touchdown, it developed into a terrific struggle that once saw the Spartans from the middle part of the country deny a touchdown by the margin of four yards.

Gaining steadily on punt exchanges, Michigan State found itself in possession of the ball on its own 47. Five runs, through and around the Santa Clara line and a 13-yard pass from right half Ed Pearce to right end Mike Kinek carried the oval 49 yards almost to scoring turf.

It was Michigan State's big moment. The Spartans couldn't quite muster the final push. Lewis Smiley, left end, had his fingers on one pass, then dropped it at the one yard marker. The Broncos, sleek in telling fashion, had swept into the lead shortly after the contest started.

The Santa Clara scoring thrust started on its 38. Two tackle plunges put the ball on the mid-field marker. Clark followed with a 17-yard pass to right end Anahu. Three line plunges followed and from the 25-yard line Clark whipped the leather to Anahu who caught it over the goal. Bill Batchelor, Spartan center, blocked the try for point.

The next three periods, scoreless but hard fought, saw Santa Clara hold a slight edge in the second, completely out-played in the third and held practically even in the fourth.

SHORTY CAMPBELL HEAVES VICTORY

McMinnville, Ore., Nov. 11.—(P)—Linfield college, trailing 12-0 at the time, scored three touchdowns in the third quarter against College of Puget Sound Friday night and won a Northwest conference game 28-19.

Winston (Shorty) Campbell, 150-pound Frosh halfback from Medford, threw three passes of 9, 22 and 12 yards to Redkey for scores, and rallied the Wildcats to an 80-yard march in the last period for another touchdown.

C. P. S. scored in each of the first three quarters. Madden ran 21 yards on a reverse for the first touchdown and passed 24 yards to Underwood for the second. An interception in the third quarter was followed by a long C. P. S. drive for the third score.

JUNIOR GRIDDERS DEFEAT CAVEMEN

Medford junior high's hard-snacking gridders brought their 1939 season to a brilliant climax Friday night in Grants Pass by defeating the Cavemen freshmen, 13 to 0, with touchdowns in the third and fourth periods. The win gave the locals the Southern Oregon junior high conference title.

Cliff Jones, fullback, gave the juniors their first score when he broke through the big Grants Pass line and raced 80 yards to a touchdown. He then converted the extra point.

The juniors' final tally came in the fourth period when Ray Casebeer, center, viciously tackled a Grants Pass ball carrier and Medford recovered the subsequent fumble on the Cavemen 25-yard line. An end-around play took the ball to the six-inch line, from where Roger Barker, left half, hammered off tackle for the touchdown.

Grants Pass threatened the Medford goal line twice but both times Fleser, Stan Smith and Casebeer, in addition to the other linemen, rose up to hurl back the threat.

The juniors this season won six games and lost one, defeating Grants Pass and Ashland twice each, the high school sophomores and the Klamath Falls frosh once. Lone defeat was to Klamath Falls. The team, coached by Riney Cook, scored 120 points to its opponents' 20.
