Uniting the couple in marriage was Rt. Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, bishop of the Oregon Episcopal diocese.

Attendants were Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Moeckford of Oregon City. Among guests present were Miss M. Taggart and Mrs. B. M. Emerick, daughter and cousin of the bride, Horace Ramsey Dean of St. Stephens and Mrs. Ramsey, and a number of Portland clergy and their wives.

A wedding luncheon followed at the New Heathman hotel for the bridal party and close friends.

Father Bartlam for five years was rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church in Medford and only recently left to take over the rectorship of St. Mary's Episcopal church in Eugene. He is a past president of Medford Rotary club and has many friends in this city.

Taylor-Johnson Wedding Service Read Monday Eve.

Dr. Sherman L. Divine read the vows which united in marriage Miss Margaret Isabel Taylor and George Franklin Johnson Monday evening at 5:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian manse, 27 Ross Court.

The couple, both residents of Sacramento, Cal., traveled all the way to this city to be married by Dr. Divine, the bride being a member of his former parish in Sacramento and the assistant organist of the Westminster Presbyterian church in the latter city. She is also a teacher in the Peace Conservatory of Music and an accomplished musician.

The bride wore a lovely dress of royal blue velvet and a corsage of yellow roses. Wedding music was played by Miss Betty Wilfley on Dr. Divine's rare old Cottage organ which was shipped here from Michigan last week. The instrument is a hundred years old and belonged to Dr. Divine's mother, Nettie Landon Divine.

A wedding supper served by Mrs. Divine followed the pretty ceremony. The table was appointed in silver and white chrysanthemums, carrying out the traditional white bridal decorations.

Following supper, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left for a two weeks' wedding trip to Portland and coastal cities. They will make their home in Sacramento where Mr. Johnson is associated with the Southern Pacific company.

Views on P. T. A.

(By C. R. Bowman, School Superintendent of Jackson County.)
It is a reasonable assumption that parents are interested in the public schools that train their children; however, many of them overlook the opportunity afforded by membership in their local Parent-Teacher association, to put this interest to work in cooperative efforts to keep our public schools the best in the world.

Our government is committed to no task that exceeds in importance and in future dividends the business of running the public schools, and no governmental function, unless it be the destructive business of war, takes such a large percentage of our tax dollar.

To be a member of an organized group that plays a very helpful and important part in an undertaking of such importance and magnitude as public education should be esteemed a privilege by every parent.
