Musical Society Presents Program Monday Evening

A program featuring a chorus of 40 fourth, fifth and sixth grade students from the Washington school, under the direction of Miss Laura York, was presented Monday evening by the Musical Society of Medford in conjunction with the society's series of outstanding musical programs.

The following selections were given: "Dawn at Carmel," by Carl Gross; "Where God Has Walked," from the opera Joseph, by the chorus; "Bed in Summer," a poem by Robert Louis Stevenson, set to music by Nobel Cain and dedicated to his own daughters; "Waltz in A-Flat," by Brahms, and "There Was a Little Turtle," by Vachel Lindsay, and set to music by John Alden Carpenter. These numbers were sung by a double trio.

The chorus was also heard in "Fairy Ring," and an ensemble of small boys sang "Weel May the Keel Row" and "The Fisherman," by Welkerlin. In conclusion they presented "O Sole Mio," and the chorus chose for its final number "Now the Day is Over," by Barnby.

The personnel of the double trio includes the following: Evelyn Tison, Laurice Mae Peters, Suzanne Campbell, Marian Tilley, Doris Knutson and Jean Zacharisen. In the boys' chorus were Earl Keilbeck, James Fraley, Richard Kyle, Kenneth Dully and Aubrey Davis.

Mrs. Esther Church Leake acted as accompanist and Mrs. James Stevens, the Musical Society's regular commentator, announced the selections.
