APPLAGATE GROUP NOW CONDUCTING RED CROSS DRIVE

Big Applegate, Nov. 16.—(Spl)—With a corps of 13 workers assisting Mrs. Lee Port, chairman of the American Red Cross roll call drive in the Applegate district, this community is swinging into action this week

Send Thanksgiving cards to those friends and loved ones with whom you have observed Thanksgiving in days gone by. Your thoughtfulness will recall pleasant memories of happy times together and make this Thanksgiving a little brighter for all of you.

in support of the Red Cross drive lasting from Armistice to Thanksgiving. Mrs. Port was placed in charge of the Applegate by Robert Dodge of Ashland, chairman for Jackson county, and has named the following co-workers.

Mrs. Tom Mee, Mrs. Lee Wallis, Mrs. Helen Davis, Mrs. Audrey Crenshaw, Mrs. John Black, Mrs. Marie Benedict, Mrs. Dorothy Ross, Mrs. Gerald Buck, Mrs. Albert Collings, Mrs. Jack Crump, Mrs. C. C. Buck, Mrs. Fred Straube, and Miss Maude Pool.

Applegate residents heard the importance of Red Cross work discussed at the Applegate community hall Monday evening, when Dwight Houghton of Medford and Ben Carpenter, first aid and life saving representative of the Red Cross, spoke on the subject. Mr. Carpenter is conducting a swimming class in Medford this week.

Both speakers stressed importance of every man, woman and child, having a membership in the Red Cross. Fifty cents of each membership is contributed to the national organization, while the remainder of the fee is retained in the Jackson county chapter. Mr. Carpenter pointed out. The Red Cross is the most unexploited organization in the world, it was said, although it is continually giving aid to those in need. Miss Lillian Roberts, executive secretary of the Jackson county chapter, also was introduced at the meeting.

Weather. Northern California: Fair to night and Friday, fogs locally on coast; no change in temperature; light variable wind off coast.

CHILDREN'S LIBRARIAN SPEAKS TO APPLAGATE TEACHER-STUDY GROUP

Big Applegate, Nov. 16.—(Spl)—Mrs. Ruth Drysdale, children's librarian at the Medford public library, addressed the meeting of the Applegate teacher-study group held at Ruch Friday. Mrs. Drysdale spoke on "Book Week" November 12-18th.

Miss Vera Humphrey of Medford also spoke to the group in regard to organizing a Junior Red Cross in the local schools during the roll call drive this month. Miss Humphrey stimulated much interest in this project, and Junior Red Cross chairmen will be appointed soon in each district.

Mrs. Ina Purcell, primary teacher at Ruch-Sterling, presided at the meeting Friday, when use of pictures in reading was discussed by Mrs. Leora Pease, primary teacher at Applegate. Miss May Bonham of Uniontown.

An excellent program of study has been arranged for the coming month. The next meeting will be held December 8th, when Edith Bork of the Southern Oregon College of Education will speak on remedial reading.

Destroyer Launched Quincy, Mass., Nov. 16.—(AP)—The nation's newest destroyer, named in the honor of the late Admiral William S. Benson and christened by his widow, slid down the ways today at the Bethlehem shipbuilding plant.

Ex-Lawmaker Dies Portland, Nov. 16.—(AP)—Oscar W. Horne, 71, Republican representative at the 1915 and 1919 legislatures at the 1920 special session, died at his home here today.

NEW HIGHWAY PAVING SOUTH OF ROSEBURG READY FOR TRAFFIC

Roseburg, Ore., Nov. 16.—(AP)—A portion of the new highway grade and pavement immediately south of Roseburg will be opened to traffic today it was announced at the local division office of the state highway department.

The west half of the 22-foot pavement and a 7-foot shoulder will be used for a distance of 2,000 feet south from the city limits, while a connection is being made on the east half pavement at the city limits, where the road is tapered from the standard highway width of 22 feet to meet the 40-foot street pavement.

The entire two-mile section of new grade and pavement between Roseburg and Shady Point, it is announced, probably will be open to general traffic in about two weeks.

The new section of highway will eliminate all sharp curves and steep grades immediately south of Roseburg and will provide a standard highway for a distance of more than five miles, as it connects with the section previously built between Shady Point and Kelley's Korner.

Legion Head Whacks Kuhn and Browder

Indianapolis, Nov. 16.—(AP)—Raymond J. Kelly, national commander of the American Legion, chose his 45th birthday today to denounce Earl Browder and Fritz Kuhn, respective heads of the communist and nazi organizations in the United States, for "hiding behind masks of American citizenship."

"Behind the masks of American citizenship, Fritz Kuhn and Earl Browder follow their respective foreign masters, Hitler and Stalin," Kelly declared in a statement.
