M-J-B WHY?

"It got me a $10 tip..."

2 He ordered a cup, anyway. "I've heard about your remarkable coffee," I said, serving him, "but I think you'll find this quite good." He picked up the cup and tasted it. "Humm," he said. "It is really delicious. It is, in fact, superb. What kind, may I ask?" "It's M-J-B, sir," I explained.

M-J-B's RICHER ROAST gives you RICHER FLAVOR
Drip or Regular Grinds
*For drip or glass coffee makers

1 Believe me, folks, a waiter on the streamliner has to hump to keep everybody happy—like on our last trip. We had a roly-poly Dutchman from Java and I took special care of him because he seemed kind of finicky, especially about coffee. "Only Java knows anything about good coffee," he said.

3 I continued: "Our passengers come from all over the world so their tastes in coffee vary. We use M-J-B because its Richer Roast gives a rich coffee flavor at any strength we make it." The gentleman from Java was impressed. "Waiter," he said, "accept this little token of appreciation from one connoisseur of good coffee to another." It was a $10 bill!
