

LOCAL and PERSONAL

To Remodel - Pacific Fruit and Produce company, South Front street, applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to remodel at a stated cost of $150.

Official Here - Loren C. Cochran, federal probation officer, transacted business here last night and this morning. He arrived yesterday afternoon from Roseburg and left today for Klamath Falls.

Condition Critical - The condition of Delroy Getchell, widely known Medford resident and president of the Farmers and Fruitgrowers bank, was reported critical today by one of the attending physicians. The doctor said Mr. Getchell had passed an unfavorable night. Mr. Getchell is suffering from pneumonia.

Register Stolen - Carl B. Brown of Portland, salesman for the Allen Adding Machine and Cash Register company, reported to city police yesterday that a cash register valued at $125 was stolen from his car sometime during the day. He explained to police that he had made three stops while calling on clients, and that he first missed the cash register at the end of the day.

Small Fire - Slight damage was done by fire in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Glen V. Allen late yesterday afternoon. The pipe leading from a living room heater became too hot and ignited woodwork around the chimney, firemen reported. The firemen had to use axes in order to get at the bottom of the fire. The fire department's chemical crew answered the alarm at 5:25 p. m.

On Leave - George F. Patterson, in charge of the navy recruiting station here, left by motorcar this morning for Portland on a ten-day leave of absence. After a brief stay in Portland, Mr. Patterson planned to go to Eugene to spend the remainder of his leave. During his absence the office here will be in charge of his assistant, E. A. Roessel. Mr. Roessel spent yesterday transacting official business in Klamath Falls.

Janouch Returns - Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest returned last night after attending a series of conferences in the north. Last week he attended a conference of northwest region supervisors at Stevenson on the Columbia national forest in Washington. This week he attended conferences at the regional forester's office in Portland.

Postal Men Meet - Local 342 of the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks held a dinner-meeting in the Hotel Jackson Wednesday night. Out-of-town guests present were William I. Horner of Washington, D. C., national legislative representative, C. I. Blakeslee of Portland, secretary of the state organization, and J. H. Metcham of Spokane, Wash., first vice-president of the national organization. Also attending as guests were Postmaster Frank DeSouza and Rel and G. Beach, assistant postmaster. Adiel Neff presided.

Sponsors Dance - Talent Grange is sponsoring a dance at the Talent hall Saturday evening. Music will be by Barney's orchestra. The public is invited to attend.

Ill at Home - E. H. Hedrick, city school superintendent, has been confined to his home this week with influenza. He expected to return to his office this afternoon.

Flying North - Lee Eyerly, commercial flier in Salem, stopped at Medford municipal airport this afternoon to refuel a Fairchild plane he bought in Los Angeles and was piloting to Salem. He continued north after his plane had been refueled.

Drunks Fined - Four Indians from Klamath county, arrested by city police last night, paid $10 fines in city court this morning. They were Ralph W. Tice, 28, Lee Wilson, 34 and Amy Knight, 48, who were fined for being drunk. They were all in an automobile driven by Richard Peters, 18, who was cited for having no operator's license and fined $5, police said. Robert William Anderson, 27, charged with begging on the street, was given a 10-day "floater" out of town.

Airport Arrivals - Today's arrivals at Medford municipal airport included three army aviators from Fort Lewis, Wash. Each piloting a Douglas observation plane, they were Maj. G. H. Gale, Lieut. W. E. Stone and Sgt. Ray Stockwell. Gale was en route to Moffett field, Sunnyvale, Cal., the others to Sacramento air depot. Stockwell departed as soon as his plane had been refueled and the other two were to continue their flights this afternoon. Each piloting a new Stinson plane to be delivered to the Commercial Aircraft company in Portland, G. H. Horn and Stanley Spencer left this morning for Portland. They arrived yesterday afternoon from Oakland, Cal., after making a cross-country flight from the Stinson plant in Michigan. John R. Cattron arrived from Hillsboro yesterday in his Taylor Cub and continued to Sacramento after his ship had been refueled.

Plane Passengers - Ned Porter left by United Mainliner this noon for Los Angeles. The plane, due here at 10:55, was about an hour late because of fog. The early morning northbound plane due here at 4:52 a. m., did not go through Medford until 11:30 a. m. C. L. Fitzwater arrived by Mainliner last night from the north. Mrs. C. Starkey arrived from the south last night and B. Sturtevant left on the same plane for Seattle. W. Baker left by Mainliner last evening for San Francisco. B. Sturtevant arrived from San Francisco yesterday afternoon and leaving on the same plane were C. F. Arrow-smith, to Portland, and C. S. French to Seattle. Departing on the delayed forenoon plane yesterday were R. E. Barrington, to San Francisco, and Dr. A. W. Williams, to Los Angeles. Fog made plane schedules irregular last night. The southbound plane due here at 11:50 p. m. left Seattle early to avoid the fog, passed over Portland and came on to Medford, arriving here at 8:39 p. m. A second section was dispatched from Portland to make connections here. The Spokane plane, also passing up Portland, came on to Medford. Some of the passengers and the crew of the Spokane plane stayed here overnight.

Orange street, according to a city police report today. The Wilder car was traveling south on Ivy street and the Elwood machine was moving east on Fourth street at the time of the collision, police said. There were no serious injuries to occupants of the autos, according to police reports.

NAZIS UNINTERESTED IN MEDIATION OFFER; WESTERN LINE QUIET

Berlin, Nov. 17 - (AP) - Authorized sources said today a general mediation offer by president Roosevelt at this time would be "uninteresting" so far as Germany is concerned. France's injection of Austrian restitution into the issues at stake in the European conflict, these sources declared, shows conclusively the allies regard all peace talks as futile.

However, should President Roosevelt ask both sides to disclose war aims to him with a view to finding some common basis for mediation, Germany would be most likely to respond, these sources intimated. The western front was quiet today, however. A communique from the army high command said: "In the west, with minor local artillery annoyance fire, no noteworthy fighting activity."

Princess Ingrid Expects - Copenhagen, Nov. 17 - (AP) - News that the first child of Crown Prince Frederik and Princess Ingrid is expected in April caused rejoicing in Denmark today. If a boy, the child will be heir to the throne after his father; if a girl, Frederik's younger brother, Knud, will remain second in the line of succession.

Laughton Coming To Craterian

Charles Laughton brings a new and fascinating character to the gallery of lively portraits that includes Captain Bligh, Ruggles of Red Gap, the languorous Nero, Henry VIII and the Beachcomber. It is the fastidious, dandified, eccentric Sir Humphrey Pengallan, perhaps the screen's most perfectly portrayed villain, in the filmization of Daphne duMaurier's best-seller, "Jamaica Inn," which comes to the Craterian theatre for Sunday and Monday only.

"Espionage Agent" Here Sunday

"Espionage Agent," timely drama of Uncle Sam's trouble-shooters in the diplomatic service, comes to the New Rialto theatre for Sunday and Monday only, with Joel McCrea, Brenda Marshall and Jeffrey Lynn in starring roles. The three play agents of Uncle Sam's foreign service in which capacity they fight greater and deadlier dangers than do our G-Men and win greater battles that guarantee American safety than any standing army in the world could do. The film, which is heralded as the "scoop of the year," also features George Bancroft and James Stephenson.

Philippine Fishing in Japanese Hands

Manila, Nov. 17 - (AP) - Japanese control, the deep sea fishing in Philippine waters, President Manuel Quezon was advised today by Benigno Aquino, secretary of agriculture, who made a special investigation of the matter. Eighty percent of the fishing boats are owned by Japanese, the report to the president said, either in their own names or under the names of Filipino "dummies."
