

Staters Stage Last Half Rally to Crush California Bears 21 to 0

BEAVER FUMBLES SLOW FIRST HALF, CLICK AT FINISH

Touchdown Drive in Second Half Settles Issue—Olson And Kisselburgh Star.

Bell Field, Corvallis, Ore., Nov. 18.—(AP)—Oregon State college put on a savage second half drive to route the California Bears 21 to 0 today, thereby remaining theoretically in the running for Rose Bowl honors should it win from UCLA next week and should someone knock off unbeaten U.S.C.

The Staters had a terrible time getting started before a home coming crowd of 9000. They lost the ball three times on fumbles and once on a blocked kick in the first half. It was a different story in the second half and the determined Beavers drove over one touchdown midway in the third period and added two more in the fourth.

California took advantage of all early game breaks but could not consistently penetrate the Beaver defense. The Bears marched to the one and a half yard line a few minutes after the kickoff after Bob Reinhard recovered Vic Kohler's fumble on the O.S.C. 20.

Getting the fumbles out of their systems in the second half the Staters flashed a great offensive which soon settled the issue.

Poor punting by Cliff Perry, California, started O. S. C. toward its first touchdown from California's 31. Jim Kisselburgh, who played his best game of the year for the Beavers, made four yards and reversed to M. Kohler for 9 and a first down on the 18. Kisselburgh and Bob Olson in three plays made it first on the five from where Kisselburgh scored over left tackle on the third play.

The Beavers soon threatened again after Olson completed a long pass from M. Kohler to Cal's 19. There California's line broke and they took over on downs.

A short punt set up the second touchdown early in the fourth period when Oregon State started a drive from its own 40 and made a first down on the 27. After an incomplete pass, the first of the day for the Staters, Ken Dow, Kisselburgh's replacement, drove to the 15. Morrie Kohler on a reverse ran to the two and a half yard line but it took four plays before Vic Kohler scored over left tackle.

Tony Firpo, California, returned the next kickoff to the 18 and the Bears suffered a clipping penalty before Firpo's punt went out on his own 38. A pass gave the Staters a first down on the 27 from where Ken Dow blasted through the line, picked up some interference and scored standing up.

Leonard Younce made all the conversions from placement. In a last ditch passing attack against the Beaver third team, California rolled up a flock of first downs, driving to the Oregon State 10 but the threat stopped when Gene Gray intercepted a pass behind the Oregon State goal and ran it out to the 17.

It was Oregon State's first victory over California in Corvallis and the first in history since 1926.

COUGARS MANAGE TO DEFEAT CARDS BY A TOUCHDOWN

Palo Alto, Cal., Nov. 18.—(AP) Washington State college showed a brief spark of life in the first period of its Pacific Coast conference football game with the Stanford Indians today to put over a touchdown and conversion to win, 7 to 0.

Washington State's score climaxed a 71-yard drive, the only sustained advance during the entire game. Starting from its own 29 the Cougars drove through the Indian guards and tackles for healthy chunks of yardage and pushed over the score in 15 plays.

Fullback Renfro hit left guard for the touchdown from the one-yard line. Brown, end, kicked the extra point.

Stanford, on its first series of downs, gave fans hopes that at last they might get the football victory that has eluded them all season. Left Halfback Kmetovic reeled off 23 yards on the first play to put the ball on the Washington State 36. Then Stanford started losing yardage. Four plays later the Cougars took over on downs on their own 29 and started off on their touchdown march.

Both teams moved into scoring territory several times, but each time their attacks bogged down and the backs began running the wrong way.

UCLANS HELD TO TIE BY BRONCOS

San Francisco, Nov. 18.—(AP)—It was a Mexican standoff today in Los Angeles as U.C.L.A. and Santa Clara battled to a scoreless tie before 50,000 spectators in the feature football clash of the far west.

The even strength of the two teams made it a slow struggle for 59 minutes, but the last 60 seconds were tinged with drama as the Bruins reached the Santa Clara four, then penalized to the 20, then failed in a field goal try in the last five seconds.

CORNELL WALLOPS DARTMOUTH, 35-6

Hanover, N. H., Nov. 18.—(AP) Cornell ran and passed for more than a quarter mile as it protected its clean gridiron slate by overwhelming the Dartmouth Indians 35-6 today before an overflow crowd of 16,000, the largest in Memorial field history.

The powerful Ithacans spread their scoring over every period and even with third stringers in action kept their rivals under control until the final quarter, when a too eager replacement interfered with a 33-yard pass that was ruled good for a first down on the seven-yard line.

Only one of the other 11 passes the desperate Indians attempted was completed and the first of the five that were intercepted started the Ithacans on their first touchdown march.

IOWA COMES FROM BEHIND TO DOWN MINNESOTA, 13-9

Cornell, unbeaten and untied, threw its full strength against Dartmouth in an important Ivy league struggle and swamped the Indians under a 36-0 count. Princeton, beaten only by Cornell, had to push over two fourth-quarter touchdowns to stop Yale, 13-7.

Texas A. and M., boasting a perfect record, moved steadily ahead toward the Southwest conference title by swamping Rice, 19-0, as Holy Cross, one of the east's few strong outfits, rammed Carnegie Tech, 19-0, with Joe Osmani scoring two touchdowns.

Ohio State which, like Princeton has bowed only to Cornell, found Illinois an easy victim, 21-0, and thus clinched at least a share of the Big Ten title. Notre Dame's second and third stringers led the Irish to a 7-0 conquest of Northwestern.

One of the greatest personal duels of the day occurred at Philadelphia where Tom Harmon paced Michigan to a 19-17 victory over Penn, led by Francis Reegan. The east suffered still more grief as Detroit buried Manhattan under a 36-13 count and Kentucky took West Virginia over the jumps, 13-6. Marquette won a spectacular 22-19 decision over Texas Tech.

Fordham, Catholic and George Washington were the east's lone winners. Fordham shellacked off-beaten St. Mary's (Cal.), 13-0, Catholic buried Loyola (New Orleans), 34-0, and George Washington whipped Kansas, 13-6.

In the east, Georgetown completed its second successive season without defeat by taking advantage of opportunities and bowling over New York university, 14-0. Syracuse sprang an upset in taking Colgate for a ride, 7-0, while Nick Basca's broken-field running carried Villanova to a 12-6 decision over Temple. Army had to come from behind to tie Penn State, 14-14.

Georgia Tech remained unbeaten in the Southeastern conference, nipping Alabama, 6-0, while Auburn, finally hitting the form expected of it in pre-season forecasts, buried Louisiana State, 21-7. Georgia and Sewanee gave the Southeastern group a pair of victories over Southern conference rivals. Georgia whipped South Carolina, 33-7, and Sewanee topped Citadel, 14-7.

In Southern conference games Virginia Military topped Maryland, 13-0; William & Mary conquered Washington & Lee, 18-14, and North Carolina State surprised Furman, 12-7. Virginia Tech took non-conference Virginia into camp, 13-0.

Wisconsin's Badgers almost won their first Big Ten decision but Purdue outdrew in the fourth quarter to gain a 7-7 draw. Indiana played non-conference Michigan State to the same score. Chicago's long scoring drought ended as the Maroon won from Oberlin, 25-0. Iowa State unexpectedly knocked off Kansas State, 10-0, in a Big Six test.

In the southwest, Texas came from far behind to whip Texas Christian, 25-19. Baylor knocked off Centenary in a non-conference struggle, 13-6.

All was calm in the Rocky Mountain Big Seven where Utah trounced Colorado State, 42-7; Colorado, the leader, whipped Brigham Young, 12-6, and Utah State won from Wyoming, 20-13.

"Machine Gun" Losses. San Francisco, Nov. 18.—(AP)—Federal Judge Harold Lunderback today denied the petition of George R. "Machine Gun" Kelly for a writ of habeas corpus sought to effect his release from Alcatraz prison, where Kelly is serving a life term for the $200,000 ransom-kidnaping of Charles F. Urschel in 1933.

No F.D.R. Comment. Hyde Park, N. Y., Nov. 18.—(AP)—The temporary White House today refused to comment on a telegraphed request for presidential intervention in the San Francisco waterfront strike because the telegram was made public before it reached President Roosevelt.

MISSOURI EDGES OUT OKIES, SEEKS ROSE BOWL GAME

Columbia, Mo., Nov. 18.—(AP)—The fighting Missouri Tigers removed Oklahoma from the list of the nation's undefeated teams and established themselves as the defending Big Six champions before 26,000 in Memorial stadium today.

The victory, virtually assuring the Tigers the Big Six crown, was scored on the recovery of a blocked punt in the third period of a bruising contest. Bob Orr, tow-headed Tiger end, stepped over the Oklahoma goal line after catching the ball that had bounced 90 feet in the air. Ronald King, a reserve back and outstanding player on the field for the day, place kicked the deciding point.

Oklahoma, scrapping back fiercely drove 71 yards for its touchdown in the final period and twice again threatened to pull the game out of the fire. But a missed placement try for extra point by Dick Favor proved fatal to their national championship aspirations.

Paul Christian, Missouri's all-American candidate, was just another ball player in this game. He spent much of the muddy afternoon sitting on the seat of his pants. But while the Sooners were busy hamstringing the glamor boy they were taking a beating from his less famous teammates.

With only one game remaining against weak Kansas university, Missouri now has a virtual headlock on the Big Six crown, and they are understood to be very receptive to a "bowl" bid.

MILWAUKIE HELD TO TIE BY AXEMEN

Milwaukie, Ore., Nov. 18.—(AP) Eugene threw a brick through Milwaukie high school's perfect football record last night by holding the undefeated and usually high-scoring Maroons to a 13-13 tie. The outcome left the two teams deadlocked for the no-name league championship and established Coquille, Coos, and Clatsop as the last remaining untied, unbeaten prep team in Oregon.

CONN WINS, MAY TURN TO HEAVIES

New York, Nov. 18.—(AP)—A shanty Irish kid who always snys mister and sir to sports writers an outside middleweight who weighed 171 1/2 pounds in defending his light heavyweight championship—that is Billy Conn, the Pittsburgh Adonis you'll soon see battling among the heavyweights and eventually against Champ Joe Louis.

By winning a 15-round decision over Gus Lesnevich in Madison Square Garden last night, Conn just about mopped up all the suitable talent in his class and Manager Johnny Ray is remaining in town to talk business with Uncle Mike Jacobs.

Their talk may touch upon many things, but they're bound to come upon a possible heavyweight bout with bicycling Bob Pastor sooner or later because Conn himself wants it. And it's a logical step toward the heavyweight weights that Conn and his manager have in mind.

Stanford Poloists Win. Palo Alto, Calif., Nov. 18.—(AP)—The Stanford university polo team evening its series with Utah today, winning 3 to 2 after Utah threatened to overcome an early lead by scoring twice in the final chukker. Utah won Thursday, 6-6.

PORTLAND STILL WANTS MILWAUKIE FOR DEC. 2 GAME

Tiger-Coquille Contest Here Will Be Deciding Factor In State Title Race.

Portland, Nov. 18.—(AP)—Only one major high school football team in Oregon retained its unbeaten and untied status today following Eugene high's upset 13-13 tie with Milwaukie last night.

Coquille, commander of the Coos league, has no blemishes on its record and probably can make a legitimate claim to the state high school championship should it win the Thanksgiving Day playoff with unbeaten but tied Medford high.

Portland interschool league officials—who invited Milwaukie to play in Multnomah stadium against the Rose City winner, December 2—said the Maroons' tie will not result in withdrawal of the invitation. It had been believed earlier the winner of the Medford-Coquille game might be asked.

"Our agreement with Milwaukie provided the invitation would stand unless the Maroons were beaten," Eldon Jenne, Portland athletic director, said. "As far as the tie goes, our leading team—Jefferson—has been tied."

Despite the Portland decision, the Friday night deadlock definitely shifted the spotlight to the Medford-Coquille tilt, largely because Medford whipped Eugene, 20 to 6, to establish a comparative scores edge over the Maroons.

TORONTO SURGES TO HOCKEY LEAD

Toronto, Nov. 18.—(AP)—The Toronto Maple Leafs stepped into first place in the National Hockey league tonight by blanking the Detroit Red Wings 3 to 0 on the strength of a late drive. The shutout was Turk Broda's third in four games, the Toronto goalies allowing only one goal to get past him since the season opened three weeks ago.

A neat goal by Jack Church, rookie defenseman, late in the second period broke the goal famine and started the Leafs on their march to victory. Syl Apps added a second tally early in the third while Gordie Drillon tacked on another on a freak play some minutes later.

Church had just stepped on the ice after serving a penalty when he joined Bob Davidson in a rush which ended in the Toronto defenseman taking a pass and picking the far side of the net with a whistling drive.

"No Outside Coach" Palo Alto, Calif., Nov. 18.—(AP)—No outside track and field coach will be brought in at Stanford to fill the position vacated recently by Robert Lyman "Dink" Templeton, the Stanford board of athletic control has decided.

DUKE TRAMPS ON NORTH CAROLINA

Durham, N. C., Nov. 13.—(AP) Duke university's football team exploded in the third quarter to blast North Carolina into the ranks of the defeated and to take a long stride toward at least a tie for the Southern conference crown.

The 13 to 3 score was a pretty fair gauge of the relative merits of two teams, and 50,800 fans who packed every cranny of Duke stadium and bulged into temporary stands, straggled away convinced the better team had won.

It took a blocked punt to send the Blue Devils into the lead and to eventual victory. At the half they were a worried, frustrated team, trailing by three points.

In the third period, North Carolina had the ball deep in its own territory. George Stirrweiss' quick-kick boomed into Ruffa's chest and bounded toward the end zone. Bill Bailey, Duke end, smothered it as he rolled into the zone for the touchdown.

The Tarheels came back with an attack which bordered on frenzy, but the Blue Devils intercepted or knocked down passes, smothered the ball carriers, and then launched a counter attack which clinched the game with six more points.

The victory left Duke with a one-point defeat by Pitt the only blot on its record.

HALLOWE'EN BLAST CULPRITS PLEAD

Moscow, Idaho, Nov. 18.—(AP)—Deputy Sheriff J. H. Jordan said today a damp cap attached to two sticks of dynamite failed to explode and ruined a Halloween prank for Herschel Campbell, 19, of Harward, and a 16-year old companion.

The boys pleaded guilty in probate court today to malicious destruction of property and Judge L. G. Peterson Campbell said he would pronounce sentence Monday.

Jordan said the dynamite was placed beneath an outbuilding near the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gallup of Harward.
