Noon Wedding rites Medford Couple

At a lovely wedding Friday afternoon at her home, 516 North Bartlett street, Miss Doris Houston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Houston of Trail, became the bride of Frank Boothby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Boothby of Prospect.

The ceremony was performed at noon by the Rev. Wolford A. Dawes, pastor of the First Baptist church in the presence of twenty friends and relatives.

The charming bride wore a bridal ensemble of all white slipper satin with a full length veil held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms and pearls. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses, sweetpeas and bavardia from which hung satin ribbon streamers. Her jewelry was an old gold necklace with pearl drops and a matching bracelet.

Miss Wilma Houston was her sister's bridesmaid. She was gowned in rose taffeta and carried a bouquet of Talisman rosebuds.

Jack Hollenback of Copco, Cal., acted as best man for Mr. Boothby.

Prior to the service, Kenneth Raymond played "Down the River of Golden Dreams" and Miss Marguerite Luman sang "I Love You Truly." Mr. Raymond also played the wedding music.

The couple exchanged vows in front of the fireplace which was banked with white chrysanthemums, cedar and Oregon grape. After a reception they departed on a wedding trip for Los Angeles and will return to this city to make their home on North Bartlett street after November 27. For a going away outfit, the bride wore a costume suit of black with matching accessories, a fox fur and a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Boothby is a graduate of the Eagle Point high school and her husband received his education in the Prospect schools.

A shower party given by Mrs. W. A. Jones at her home on Apple street honored the bride several days prior to her wedding. Guests included Mesdames Lou Rodgers, Chester Jones, Owen Phelan, Art Kent, J. A. Houston, Ed Houston, Louis Biddle, Murrey Sample, Ludo Grieves, Mary Boothby, Chester Merriman, Emma Merriman, Arlene DeJarnett, Fred Gardner and D. S. Simmons of Vallejo, Cal., and the Misses Wilma Houston, Lucille Simmons, Helen Kent and Louise Keezee.

St. Anne's to Serve Dinner

In view of the fact that every one seems to have a free choice of Thanksgiving Days, women of St. Anne's Altar society have reserved December 6 as a third Thanksgiving Day at which time they will serve a turkey dinner in the Catholic parish hall from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Send Thanksgiving cards to those friends and loved ones with whom you have observed Thanksgiving in days gone by.

Your thoughtfulness will recall pleasant memories of happy times together and make this Thanksgiving a little brighter for all of you.

Miss Cormany Is Feted at Shower Party Affairs

To compliment Miss Constance Cormany, bride-elect of Percy Louis Evans, Mrs. George Cormany entertained with a miscellaneous shower party at her home on West Palm street, Monday evening.

Guests included Mrs. Walter Cormany, mother of the bride-to-be, Mrs. S. M. Cleven, Mrs. Richard Witt, Mrs. Lea Jane Knox, Miss Bessie Long, Mrs. George Hall, Miss Frances Cormany and Miss Jeanne Eddy.

The honoree, whose marriage will be an event of today at the home of her parents, received numerous attractive gifts at the party.

Miss Roberta Mullen of Gold Hill assisted the hostess at the pleasant affair.

The popular Medford miss was also feted at a kitchen shower Friday evening when Mrs. Richard Witt entertained at her home on South Ivy street. Her guests included Aline Fowler, Georgia Webb, Frances Cormany, Alice Ward, Mrs. Walter Larsen, Mrs. W. A. Cormany, Mrs. Leona Webb, Mrs. Galen Knox, Mrs. Michael Beck, Mrs. E. E. Carlson, Mrs. Nelson Florey and Mrs. Gladys Jorgenson of Anacortes, Wash., who came to Medford to attend the wedding today of Miss Georgia Webb and Donald Pierce Green.

P.E.O. Organizer Visits Local Units Wednesday

Mrs. P. H. Shaw of Portland, organizer of the state chapter of the P. E. O. sisterhood made her official visit Wednesday to chapters BE and AA of Medford. She was delightfully entertained by both chapters and she gave a very instructive talk at each meeting.

Mrs. Shaw recently returned from the national convention of P. E. O. in Houston, Texas. Mrs. Wilson Wait also attended this convention as delegate representing both Medford chapters and the chapter in Marshfield.

On their way to Houston the delegation visited Cottey Junior college at Nevada, Missouri, owned by the P. E. O. sisterhood. Miss Maurine Carroll, a teacher in the Medford schools for some years past is now dean of residence and dietitian at the college.

On the return trip from Houston the delegation visited New Orleans, Carlsbad caverns and the fair at San Francisco.

Mrs. Brown Feted At Shower Party

Mrs. George Brown was honored guest at a shower party Thursday at the home of Mrs. Clyde Fichtner on South Riverside avenue when Mrs. Lee Amer and Mrs. Fichtner were hostesses.

Guests included Mesdames Walter Hahner, Pat Rice, Carmen Clay, Ted Florey, Robert Forbes, Orville Goodrich, and Miss Valeria Whitney. The guests are members of the Chin and Chuckle club.

Decorations were in pink and blue and cards were enjoyed during the affair.

Daws Home Scene Wednesday Meet

Mrs. W. M. Daws was hostess for the Wednesday Birthday club's monthly meeting on Wednesday at her home on Kenwood avenue.

Luncheon was served at an attractively-appointed table carrying out the Thanksgiving motif, after which the afternoon was spent in doing needlework.

All members were present for the enjoyable occasion. They included Mesdames Bee Aberle, Ellen Estep, Miriam Kerns, Blanche Davis, Blossom Flury, Martha Nelson, Irene Larson, Vi Steinger, Mildred Hulbert, Jo Williams, and the invited guest Mrs. Daurice Meyers.

The next meeting of the group will be at the home of Mrs. Blanche Davis on South Oakdale avenue, Wednesday December 13, at which time luncheon will be served and Christmas presents will be exchanged.

Earl Gaddis Is B.P.W. Speaker

The Medford Business and Professional Women's club met Thursday evening at the Girls' community club.

Earl Gaddis spoke on the subject "Business and Government Grow Up in Our Town." He told of the early business pioneer days and first advertising in our town. He also showed pictures of the pioneer days, Maude Snider, chairman of the membership committee, was in charge. She was assisted by Clarice Rivers.

It was decided at the meeting to have a joint Christmas party with the Nurses' association. Chairmen of the respective committees will announce their plans in the near future.

P.E.O. to Meet
Tuesday Evening
Chapter BE of P.E.O. will hold its regular meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. R. Johnson on Keene Way Drive. The program for the evening will be in charge of the educational committee.

Bride-Elect Is Shower Party Honoree Tuesday

Miss Helen McAllister, popular bride-elect of John D. Raftery, whose marriage will be an event of Thanksgiving Day, was complimented at a surprise miscellaneous shower party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McAllister, on North Peach street last week.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Ray LeFevre and Mrs. Agnes Dallaire.

Guests included Mesdames E. L. Henninger, A. B. Culy, Louis Knips, Miner Boshars, Wiley Phares, John Elson, A. E. McAllister and Miss Frances Maguin.

The bride-to-be chose this time to present her matron of honor and bridesmaids with gifts. Mrs. Wiley Phair, her sister, will act as matron of honor while Mrs. John Elson and Miss Maguin will be bridesmaids.

Bouquets of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the rooms.

Mrs. Meeker Tells Of Trip in East

Mrs. C. A. Meeker entertained the Wednesday Study club at their regular meeting last week with an interesting resume of her recent trip east.

Mrs. Meeker presented highlights of the journey and said that she was especially impressed by the statue of "Time" in Chicago. She visited the New York fair, Valley Forge near Philadelphia and while in Washington, D. C., the Meekers attended congress and the Shakespearean library. In New Orleans she mentioned seeing the house built for Napoleon Bonaparte.

The speaker was impressed with the Carlsbad Caverns and by the contrast of the two cities, El Paso, Texas and the Mexican city of Juarez. She illustrated her talk with interesting pictures.

Mrs. W. J. Warner presented a paper on columnists, discussing outstanding and familiar names of the present day. She told briefly of the book "Let the Record Speak" written by Dorothy Thompson as reviewed by Raymond Gram Swing.

A general discussion followed the program. Mrs. A. J. Hanby, president, who presided, told briefly of her trip to the coast, giving some interesting early history in connection with the places visited.

Bridge Confabs Start Tuesday Evening, Hotel

Those very successful and enjoyable bridge club evenings of last winter season are scheduled to begin again this year with the initial session set for Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the lobby of the Hotel Medford.

The affairs are open to all valley bridge enthusiasts and a warm invitation has been extended to all who care to join in the weekly play. Sponsor of the events is the Medford Contract Bridge club and Mrs. Walter Kresse is tournament director.

The confabs will be held each Tuesday evening with those participating competing for rating points while once a month, a tournament will be devoted to play for master points.

This is a non-profit organization with funds realized throughout a season being used to send a Medford player to annual bridge week.

P.E.O. Organizer Visits Local Units Wednesday

Mrs. P. H. Shaw of Portland, organizer of the state chapter of the P. E. O. sisterhood made her official visit Wednesday to chapters BE and AA of Medford. She was delightfully entertained by both chapters and she gave a very instructive talk at each meeting.

Mrs. Shaw recently returned from the national convention of P. E. O. in Houston, Texas. Mrs. Wilson Wait also attended this convention as delegate representing both Medford chapters and the chapter in Marshfield.

On their way to Houston the delegation visited Cottey Junior college at Nevada, Missouri, owned by the P. E. O. sisterhood. Miss Maurine Carroll, a teacher in the Medford schools for some years past is now dean of residence and dietitian at the college.

On the return trip from Houston the delegation visited New Orleans, Carlsbad caverns and the fair at San Francisco.

Harpist Concert This Afternoon

This afternoon at 4 o'clock, in St. Mark's Guild hall on North Oakdale avenue, Ruth Lorraine Close, noted solo harpist, will be presented in concert under the auspices of the Medford Musical society. The public is invited to attend.

This artist, who has won international renown, has not previously appeared in Medford. Miss Close, American born, received her musical education in France, and since her debut in Paris, has played many concert tours in Europe. She also recently made a round-the-world concert tour, appearing as harp soloist in Shanghai, Manila, Dutch East Indies and Singapore.

Miss Close has been the solo harpist of the Portland Symphony orchestra under Wilhelm Hoogstraten for the past several seasons, and has also played under the direction of other world-famous conductors.

Musical Society Meets Monday Eve
Medford Musical society will hold a regular meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. C. Boyle, Medford Heights. A business session and social hour will be enjoyed.

Gleaners Class To Meet Soon
Gleaners class of the First Baptist church will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. L. Hague on DeBarr avenue.

An interesting program is being arranged. Mrs. E. N. Warner will give a Thanksgiving devotional message and Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini will give a talk on Americanism. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Mrs. Eugene Peterson

Mrs. Eugene Peterson, the former Miss Aileen Latham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Latham of this city, whose marriage was an event of Sunday, November 12, at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Latham, on Park avenue. The Petersons are making their home at 540 Palm street in Medford.

Many Anticipate Firemen's Ball Thursday Eve

Society in general will find a number of interesting events to attend this Thanksgiving week and among the outstanding affairs will be the annual firemen's ball to be held Thanksgiving night, Thursday, at the Oriental Gardens.

Dancing will be especially enjoyable as music will be furnished by Archie Legg's 11-piece orchestra, one of the most popular bands ever imported into Medford.

Second important reason for valley persons attending this function is the worthy cause, as all funds realized will be used to buy materials with which the firemen repair and repaint old toys for distribution among poor children at Christmas time. The firemen give their time and talent gratis, doing the work in the shop they maintain with their own funds at fire headquarters.

Thompsons Plan Thanksgiving Visit
Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thompson of Stockton, Cal., will be arriving in the city by motor Wednesday, to spend Thanksgiving holiday with relatives.

They will be house guests of Mrs. C. D. Thompson and Mrs. J. H. Butler and plan to remain in Medford until Sunday. Their arrival is anticipated by many friends, the two having formerly resided in this city for many years. Mrs. Thompson is remembered as the former Arlene Butler.

Stewards Leave For Home Today
Mr. and Mrs. S. Steward of Long Beach, Cal., plan to leave for their home today after spending several weeks visiting in the Rogue River valley with friends.
