UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE PLANNED BY MEDFORD MINISTERS

As is customary each year, union Thanksgiving services conducted by the Medford Ministerial association will be held on Thursday, November 23rd at 10 a. m. Services this year will be held in the Nazarene church with Rev. Fred M. Weatherford presiding and Rev. Werner Jessen, pastor of the Zion English Lutheran church, delivering the Thanksgiving sermon. Special musical items are being arranged and, from all indications, this year's service will be one of the very best.

The Thanksgiving offering will go to the Jackson County Health association to assist in the work carried on by this organization.

A very cordial invitation is extended to everyone, whether church member or non-church member, to attend the service and give thanks to the Almighty for His bountiful goodness. A complete program of the entire Thanksgiving service will be published later.

P. T. A. Activities

(By A. H. Banwell, Manager of Jackson County Chamber of Commerce.) My contacts with the Parent-Teacher association have mostly been through the chamber of commerce. I am better acquainted with what the P.T.A. has done from a civic standpoint as a group than with the actual activities of the individual Parent-Teacher association. The P.T.A. has done many fine services for the chamber of commerce which convinces me that it must necessarily give similar services in conducting its own affairs. The growth of the Parent-Teachers association in recent years is in itself sufficient evidence that the organization is worth while, because our citizens like to be associated with organizations which do something, rather than with those who merely have a name and set of by laws. No finer work can be done in America by any organization than to take care of the rising generation as done by the P.T.A. In these days of false "isms" and the like, it is very essential that those charged with the education of our youth realize the importance of the task ahead. The P.T.A. does realize this and the work it does for the children in our schools is entitled to the support of every mother and father in the community.

NEWS VIEWS

By HALE WHEELER

WELL, I see where Finland is loaded for Bear—and if those Finns fight like they pay their debts the Russians had better wait for an invitation before they come calling. It's a funny thing about those Scandinavian countries the way they'll stand for more pushing about than a baby buggy. They love peace the same way a kid loves ice cream, and they'll do almost anything to get it. But after a while they get tired of being muscled around and they begin to remember that after all they ARE the descendants of the hardy Vikings who ruled Northern Europe back in the early days. And just when the enemy is thinking the Scandinavians are yellow, the Viking blood comes to a boil and the opposition finds they've got a Norse of another color on their hands.

Since I've owned the Unique Cleaners I've installed a lot of new services that are making a bit with folks. We make minor repairs—tips, buttons, we moth proof all clothes—and keep them that way if you continue to bring them to Unique. We carefully remove spots by hand. And if you have delicate fabrics—we'll show you how to dye or clean without damage. Better send in that formal suit or dress today to Unique Cleaners, 20 So.
