

ELK CREEK 4-H RECEIVE AWARDS

Eleven 4-H club members of Elk Creek community were awarded achievement pins for the past year's work at a special 4-H achievement program Tuesday night, reports L. E. Francis, county club agent. Twenty people were present.

There were three clubs in the community during the past year. These were: clothing, led by Mrs. O. D. Bendure; livestock and poultry, led by O. D. Bendure.

Motion pictures of 4-H club activities at the annual 4-H summer school at Oregon State college and at the state fair were shown by the club agent. Following the pictures, pies were auctioned.

Club members receiving awards were: First year awards—Mary Ann Brill, Wendell Vaughn, Arnold Ragsdale, Harry Harding, Sterling Ditsworth.

Second year awards—Inez Sinclair, Isabelle Sinclair, Clyde Beddingfield, Eugene Ditsworth. Fifth year awards: Alice Brill, Kenneth Bendure.

Donagh New Head Of Law Enforcers

Mexico City, Nov. 21.—(P)—The Pacific Coast International Association of Law Enforcement Officials today elected Federal District Attorney Carl Donagh, of Oregon, president and chose Reno, Nev., as the site of its 1940 convention.

John Duggan, of Butte, Mont., was advanced to the first vice presidency. Chief John Walker, of Olympia, Wash., was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Schwellenbach Mum On Judgeship Hope

Ketchikan, Nov. 21.—(P)—United States Senator Lewis B. Schwellenbach (D.Wash.) here on vacation, declined to comment in an interview today on probabilities of his appointment to a federal judgeship. He had been mentioned in dispatches as a possibility to succeed the late Associate Justice Pierce Butler of the United States supreme court, or a district judgeship vacancy in Washington state.

Derby

Derby, Nov. 21.—(Spl.)—Mrs. Scott Boyer spent Tuesday in Medford. Her friend, Mrs. Claudia Scroggs had her appendix removed. Mrs. T. R. Mercer ran the service station during her absence.

H. Stanton has made arrangements with the turkeys growers' association to market his turkeys. Children and teacher of Derby school went on a hike Wednesday on Blue hill. The day was beautiful and Mt. McLaughlin was very much in evidence.

Mrs. Ruth Kaye was agreeably surprised Wednesday when Mr. and Mrs. John Mayer of Giasnevin, Saskatchewan, Canada, arrived. They are old time friends from Mrs. Kaye's home town. They will tour southern California this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moyer and Mrs. Ruth Kaye attended the teachers' meeting in Eagle Point November 17. Ladies' club met Thursday at the Derby school house. Plans are going forward for a Christmas play.

W. Theide called at the Muri Haynes home Wednesday on his way to his mining claim on Mt. Joe Dyer.

Four WPA Men Killed

New Britain, Conn., Nov. 21.—(P)—Four New Britain WPA employees were killed Monday when a train and their automobile collided. The dead: Richard McNamara, Ronald Loomis, William Frazier and Jeremiah Lynch.

KLAMATH MAY GET TRAFFIC SIGNALS

Salem, Nov. 21.—(P)—Cost of the proposed installation of traffic signals in Klamath Falls would be $14,350, of which the city would pay $7,750 and the state $6,600. Traffic Engineer John Beakey reported to the state highway commission today.

Beakey recommended an interconnected signal system, with lights on Main street at 11th, 9th, 8th, 7th and 6th streets, and at the intersection of 6th and Klamath.

The Grange

Central Point Grange will celebrate traditional Thanksgiving, Thursday, November 30, with its annual turkey dinner and dance. Central Point cooks are justly famous for their delicious turkey dinners, and those who have attended them will not want to miss this opportunity for a double celebration. Serving will start at 6 o'clock and guests are assured they will be served in the order of their arrival.

Silva's orchestra will furnish music for dancing which will begin at 8 o'clock and continue until 11. A very small admission charge will be made to those who cannot attend the dinner but who wish to dance. It is suggested that they plan to come early.

Central Point Grange gives only two of these dinner dances each year so those who are interested are urged to keep this red letter date in mind.

Jackson County Y.G.A. Young people from Bellview, Talent, Roxy Ann, Central Point, Eagle Point and Sams Valley attended an interesting meeting of Jackson county Y.G.A. at Eagle Point November 8.

Local Y.G.A.'s were reminded they should hold election of officers this month and mail a list of new officers to Edyth Bohnert at Central Point at earliest possible date in order that the names of the Y.G.A.'s and their officers may be included in the 1939 Grange Roster. Secretaries were also urged to send in quarterly reports so they can be given credit for work they have been doing. Possibility of having another Y.G.A. basketball tournament this year was discussed.

A report of the dedication Grange radio program sponsored by Rogue River Chevrolet was given. It was announced that there will be a full length Y.G.A. program, probably January 2.

The following officers were elected to pilot the Pomona Y.G.A. for the coming year: president, Allen Byrd of Bellview; vice-president, Kenneth Haw of Talent; secretary, Edyth Bohnert of Central Point; treasurer, Roscoe Roberts of Roxy Anne, and steward, John Arnold of Bellview.

After business meeting Mary Elliott entertained with accordion numbers. Recreational activities were directed by leaders from Bellview, Talent and Central Point, assisted by Mr. Bigham, a visitor from Lake Creek. Eagle Point Grange women served refreshments which were very much appreciated by the Y.G.A.'ers. Next meeting will be at Roxy Anne, Wednesday, December 13.

Thompson Creek

Thompson Creek, Nov. 21.—(Spl.)—John Smith delivered a load of hogs to market November 15.

Elmer Ross, who has been hauling logs to the mill in Jacksonville, is now hauling lumber to his place for a new house which he intends to build next year.

Applegate Home Economics club held a delightful meeting at the house of Bessie Elmore November 16. The ladies prepared citrus preserves, the hostess sending a portion home with each lady. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Vula Hill, chairman; Mrs. Mae Fields, assistant; Mrs. Naomi Gasaway, secretary; Mrs. Bessie Elmore, treasurer. A delicious lunch was served. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Naomi Gasaway, December 20.

Charles Elmore, who with Mr. Brockway of Medford spent a couple of weeks hunting in the elk country, returned home November 12, each with an elk to their credit.

The Jackson county road crew has been working the road on Thompson creek and repairing the bridge in front of Billie Kinsman's place. Mr. Davidson, who has been cutting wood on the John Smith place, has moved into the cabin on the Clarence Gasaway place.

Earl Walker of Talent is cutting wood on the Clarence Gasaway place. Material from the old Thompson Creek school house was sold to Clarence Gasaway November 15 and he in return sold the lumber to Mr. Beck of Nine Mile, who is mining at that place. Mr. Beck is building a garage, bunk houses and other buildings.

The George Fields family of Williams creek called at the Frank Decker home November 17.

Nazi Flier Hit Berlin, Nov. 21.—(P)—Authorized German sources said today one crewman of a Nazi warplane fired on yesterday while allegedly flying over The Netherlands had "returned seriously wounded after the plane took a circuitous route to its home base."

Chance of Lifetime Lawrence, Mass. (U.P.)—A visitor at Lawrence high school was surprised to see a pupil stand up and shout at his teacher, "There's the door! Get out!" The teacher, Miss Marian Chine, was not pleased. She said, "Try it again, Murphy, you'll never get another chance outside of this public speaking class."

Plan for Lodging New York (U.P.)—John Grodowski, 75, explained to Magistrate Frank Giorgio that he rang the fire alarm so he could get put in jail for the winter. He said he had no relatives, no home and no means of support. Magistrate Giorgio gave him a six-months term in the Home for the Aged.

Custer's Sword Displayed Albany, N. Y. (U.P.)—Newest additions to the Albany Institute of History and Art include a number of historical exhibits of the old west, including General Custer's sword.

Improvements At Army West Point, N. Y. (U.P.)—An appropriation of $82,466 by the state works progress administration will be used for construction of improved accommodations at the U. S. Military academy.

Tough One East Haven, Conn. (U.P.)—Angelo Cifarelli stopped the air raids on his chicken coop by shooting a gray eagle which had a seven-foot wing spread. It took three shotgun blasts and a club to kill the bird.

Record Beet Harvest Toledo, O. (U.P.)—The sugar beet harvest in this area is a record one this year with four
