AAUW Regional Conference Held In Klamath Falls

Miss Delle Whisenant, Mrs. L. C. Taylor and Mrs. Edith Thompson, three Medford members of the American Association of University Women, traveled to Klamath Falls Saturday to attend the regional conference of the organization. Klamath chapter was host group to representatives from Bend, Lakeview, Ashland and Medford.

The Oregon state A.A.U.W. president, Miss Beryl Holt of Salem was present at the confab and Miss Virginia Fick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Fick of this city, president of the Klamath organization, presided at the various affairs associated with the conference.

Entering into the meeting prominently were the three local delegates. Miss Whisenant, Medford junior high school principal, spoke regarding educational work in the local schools in conjunction with safety, leisure art and vocational education.

Miss Taylor, representing the A.A.U.W. International Relations study group here also presented a report.

Miss Dorothy Schupp, state education chairman and active in affairs of the Klamath county chapter, spoke during the morning on "Democracy in Education," an interesting and inspiring address.

Later in the morning Miss Holt spoke on the national convention of AAUW which she attended in Denver, Colo., this past summer. She also showed a number of moving picture reels taken at the session.

The business meeting was opened at which time Frank Jenkins, publisher of the Herald and News, spoke on "The World's Future and Ours."

Mrs. David Yale, president of the local organization, announced yesterday that Medford has been selected for the state A.A.U.W. convention to be held in April. Several hundred delegates will be in attendance. Also an important item on the club's calendar for winter events will be the Christmas tea, December 16 at the home of Mrs. W. H. Fluhrer on Wellington Heights.

Mrs. Kellom, Queen Presides At Fall Nile Ceremonial

Fifteen candidates were formally initiated into Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile Saturday in Klamath Falls when the regular fall ceremonial was conducted with Mrs. Lenore E. Kellom of this city, queen of the temple, presiding.

Members of the Klamath Falls Nile club were hostesses to the visitors from Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland and several Klamath county towns. It was the first ceremonial ever held in the neighboring city.

The impressive ceremonial took place amid an oriental atmosphere and was conducted in the Masonic temple.

A formal reception at the Willard hotel followed when candidates and guests were greeted by Mrs. Kellom and her officers.

A dinner dance followed the day's festivities.

Mrs. Kellom and her following officers attended; junior past queen, Lulu Franco, Ashland; Princesses were: Royal, Ruth Newbry, Ashland; Tirzah, Sophia Baker, Grants Pass; Badoura, Francis Cunningham; recorder, Ethel William, Grants Pass; banker, Amelia Britt, Jacksonville; marshall, Edna Overmyer; chaplain, Peggy Ebel; Lady of the Keys, Helen Swem; Lady of the Gates, Mable Loomis; musician, Ellen Cox, Ashland; five Ladies in Waiting were, Mamie Spalding, Grants Pass; Anna Carter, Dorotha Bearss, Cave City; Lolita Noyes, Grants Pass; Loraine Morris and the two attendants, Mary Brown, Betty Hinthorne, Ashland.

Members of the local Nile Patrol who also attended the affair were Belle Thompson, captain, Grace Holmes, Ina Alenderfer, Maude Clemenson, Billy Fabrick, Minnie Leavitt, Lema Price, Elizabeth Jerome, Mable Conger and Blanche Frisbie. Other members from Medford were also present at the beautiful ceremonial.

Auxiliary American Legion

The Armistice day luncheon was a big success, about seventy-five members and guests being present at the Hotel Medford. Maisie Daily and her committee spent much time on the table decorations which were beautiful. All guests and Gold Star mothers were introduced. Mrs. Luticia Kunz had charge of the musical program which followed the luncheon.

Mrs. Edna Overmyer and her committee are preparing several Thanksgiving baskets to be given out to needy families the Tuesday before Thanksgiving.

Another of the series of card parties to be given this year will be held at the home of Mrs. R. R. Ebel at 8 p. m. on November 27. Mrs. Lee Garlock, 1064-R, is to be called for reservations. Mrs. George Hoard and Mrs. Russell will be the assisting hostesses.

The next sewing meeting of the auxiliary will be held on November 29, at the home of Mrs. Ray Wright, 60 North Orange, instead of the fourth Wednesday in November.

Jobs Daughters Meets Wednesday

Job's Daughters will convene Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Masonic Temple for a regular session.

Electa Social Meets Friday

The Electa Social club will convene Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Vinnie Cook, 805 West Second street. Committee in charge includes Mrs. Carl Bennett, Mrs. Clara Donaldson and Mrs. Cook. Dessert luncheon will be followed by a business meeting. All members who plan to attend and bring guests are asked to phone Mrs. Bennett.

Wall St. Report

New York, Nov. 21. — (AP) — Selected stocks breasted mild selling currents in today's market but the list generally drifted downstream.

Efforts to stir up a rally in the first hour met with scant response and early fractional advances were soon erased or replaced by small minus signs in many instances.

Analysts in the financial district apparently were unable to bring out any outstanding reason for the recently chilly speculative sentiment.

A number of stocks, seemingly buoyed by generous year-end dividends and heartening earnings statements, presented a firm front, but the majority of these did not run away.

Many commission house customers were disposed to keep funds liquid because of the forthcoming holiday. The exchange will be closed Thursday for the new early Thanksgiving Day
