

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Ill at Home—T. J. Fuson is confined to his home at 2005 East Main street with a severe case of influenza.

Chorus to Meet—Women's chorus will convene Wednesday at 7:45 p. m. in the Baldwin Piano shoppe.

Meet Delayed—The Thursday evening session of the Fraternal Order of Eagles auxiliary has been cancelled because of Thanksgiving.

Club to Meet—Home Economics club of the Central Point Grange will meet for desert luncheon at 1 p. m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Eudora Bohnert.

Returns Home—Mrs. E. T. Burelson, owner of Burelson's Ladies' Ready-to-Wear store, returned by train this morning from San Francisco where she spent several days on a combined business and pleasure trip. She purchased new Christmas merchandise for her store.

On Inspection—Frank A. Kittredge of San Francisco, regional director of the national park service, was expected to arrive here this afternoon after making an inspection in Crater Lake national park in company with Thomas C. Parker, assistant superintendent of the park. On a tour of inspection, Mr. Kittredge is en route back to San Francisco from a trip that has taken him as far north as Seattle. He is to leave here for San Francisco by train tonight. Mr. Parker left here last evening to meet Mr. Kittredge at Chiloquin.

Fire Damage—Fire early this morning damaged a wall in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Sowell, 804 Beatty street. The blaze was attributed by firemen to a defective stovepipe or chimney which permitted flame to escape and ignite the studding. Firemen had to tear away some of the wall to get to the flames. The fire was discovered at 2:45 a. m. by Miss Ethel M. Sowell, who was awakened by flames licking out of the wall of her bedroom, firemen reported. Soot in the chimney and pipe ignited and burned itself out the previous night and the family then made a check of the equipment and thought everything was in good order, firemen related. The fire department answered a ward alarm.

Plane Passengers—Mr. and Mrs. George S. Hamilton, Grants Pass turkey ranchers, left by United Mainliner this forenoon for Los Angeles. Ed Hewes left by Mainliner early this morning for Seattle, Wash. M. K. Luhman arrived by Mainliner from Wenatchee, Wash., last midnight. A. B. Martin arrived from Seattle last evening and I. E. Kesterson, Klamath Falls lumberman, left on the same plane for San Francisco. H. Martin arrived from the south yesterday afternoon and F. Humphrey and Seely V. Hall departed on the same plane for Portland. Vic Vette, United Air Lines radio technician, arrived from Portland yesterday afternoon and leaving on the same plane were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hampson, to Denver via Sacramento. Mrs. John N. Pincomb, to Oakland, and Miss Lila Burkett, to Sacramento. After fog over Portland and the San Francisco bay area had disrupted schedules for several days, all planes since yesterday afternoon have operated on time.

Back from Klamath—John H. Lock painter and interior decorator, has returned to Medford for the winter after residing in Klamath Falls since August 10. He makes his residence at the Hotel Holland.

New Garage—Harold W. Hubler of 1406 Euclid avenue applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a new private garage at a stated cost of $100.

Minor Accident—Roy Young of Medford and F. Voris of Jacksonville drove cars involved in a slight accident on Sixth street between Ivy and Holly streets Monday morning, according to a report on file today.

Court Citation—William C. McIntyre, 48, of 814 East Ninth street was to appear in Jacksonville justice of the peace court today to answer a state police charge of being drunk on a public highway. McIntyre was arrested last night by state police in his car on the Jacksonville highway.

Fined $25—Pleading guilty to a charge of reckless driving, Horace F. Peck, 39, of Trail was fined $25 in city court yesterday afternoon. Peck drove a car which collided with a parked machine, then jumped the curb and struck the residence of Mrs. Susan K. Eads, 29 Kenwood avenue. Lowell V. Pratt, 21, charged with drunkenness, was released on $10 bail.

Rialto Comedy

Dad Jones has never been so upside down, but all his headaches are hilarious in the Jones Family's latest comedy, "Too Busy To Work," which heads the double bill opening for today and tomorrow only at the New Rialto theatre. Spring Byington and Jed Prouty are again seen as the genial heads of America's first fun family. Joan Davis is added to the cast in this episode as country cousin Lolly, a "screwball" cousin who moves in on the Joneses and takes over. "The Witness Vanishes," starring Edmund Lowe, Wendy Barrie and Forrester Harvey, plays as the second feature with "Too Busy To Work." The second film deals with a newspaper publisher who, railroaded to an insane asylum by his four bitterest enemies, gets free and deals out his revenge on the doomed four.

Deanna Durbin Coming Sunday in "First Love"

Deanna Durbin enjoys a thrilling new experience on the screen in "First Love," coming to the Craterian Theatre Sunday. Robert Stack, the handsome young fellow to Deanna's left, is the lucky chap who gives Deanna her first movie kiss, while Lewis Howard is Stack's rival for Deanna's affections. Helen Parris, Eugene Pallette, June Storey, Leatrice Joy (remembered from the old silent days) and Marcia Mae Jones, have featured roles in "First Love," which has Deanna singing four selections during the course of the film's showing.

"Going Places"

Dick Powell and Anita Louise head the large cast of "Going Places," which plays today and tomorrow only at the Roxy theatre. The outstanding musical treat, other than Powell's singing, is a special jam session with America's "King and Queen of Jazz," Louis Armstrong and Maxine Sullivan. Others in the cast include Ronald Reagan, Allen Jenkins and Walter Catlett.

Overcast—The sky was overcast but visibility remained good in Crater Lake national park today, rangers reported by short-wave radio. Only a few patches

ARTHRITIS

"For 14 years I suffered from Arthritis. I took treatments and medicines of all kinds, but they did not relieve my case in the least. Then my druggist recommended Casey's Compound. After 8 bottles I was completely well." (Signed) Mrs. A. A. Curtis, 252 North Ivy, Portland, Oregon.
