

KUHN TRIAL JUDGE CUTS FIVE COUNTS FROM INDICTMENT

Action Leaves Bundsfuehrer Facing Charge of Misappropriating Only $1217

New York, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Judge James G. Wallace today dismissed five counts in the 10-point indictment against Fritz Kuhn, German-American Bund leader, on trial for grand larceny in the alleged theft of bund funds.

The dismissal left Kuhn charged with the misappropriation of only $1,217 instead of the $5,641 originally alleged.

Judge Wallace made his ruling after hearing legal argument in the absence of the jury.

Contradicted by Lady
Earlier, blonde Mrs. Florence Camp, once described as "my golden angel" by Kuhn, appeared as a rebuttal witness and contradicted testimony given by the bund leader in his defense.

Both sides rested shortly after she left the stand.

At the conclusion of the introduction of testimony Judge James G. Wallace announced he would hear motions this afternoon and summations on Monday. This would put the case in the hands of the jury either late Monday or Tuesday morning.

The jury was dismissed until Monday.

Mrs. Camp testified Kuhn urged her to divorce her husband, Charles, and to bring her furniture to New York so they could use it after their marriage. Kuhn already was married and the father of two children.

Missive Not Funny
Handed a copy of Kuhn's initial love note, in which the bund leader vowed he was "terrible" in love with her, Mrs. Camp said she saw "no fun" in the missive. Kuhn had testified he wrote the billet doux "all in fun" on the night of a ship's party, aboard the S. S. Westernland.

She contradicted Kuhn's testimony she had given the bund official $565.76 in cash in return for Kuhn's financing the transportation of her furniture from Los Angeles to New York. Later, under questioning by the court, however, Mrs. Camp acknowledged she had given Kuhn $600 in three installments. Kuhn had then accounted for part of the money which he is accused of stealing from the funds of his organization.

The "golden angel" witness, smartly dressed in a black ensemble with a bustle-backed dress, testified Kuhn gave her a ring in August, 1938. She identified the diamond, which Kuhn had testified was not the one he had bought.

Never Aided Bund
Mrs. Camp, whom Kuhn had described as a "patriotic lady" interested in supporting the bund, said she had never contributed to the bund, had never become a member of the women's auxiliary and had never even sympathized with it.

"I knew nothing about the bund," she said.
Mrs. Camp was dismissed after only 45 minutes on the stand—without more than skirting the romance that first inspired the bundsfuehrer to call her his "heaven-sent" and then flizzed out with Kuhn's conclusion that she was "no lady."
Kuhn looked relieved as she left the stand, brightening for the first time since the prosecution aired his series of lyric but ungrammatical notes to Mrs. Camp.
