MYSTERY SHROUDS BEST CHRISTMAS BUSINESS SINCE 1929 THIS YEAR

Washington, Nov. 25.—(P)—The best volume of Christmas business since the boom year 1929 was seen tonight by government economists.

MYSTERY SHROUDS BEST CHRISTMAS BUSINESS SINCE 1929 THIS YEAR

Consumers, they said, have more money to spend than at any time since the new deal has held office and are showing a greater willingness to buy.

MYSTERY SHROUDS BEST CHRISTMAS BUSINESS SINCE 1929 THIS YEAR

Economists who have access to current business reports told the United Press that while dollar volume of Christmas sales will be the highest for the Roosevelt administration, it still will be substantially below that for December, 1929. However, they added, the quantity sold will compare favorably with the pre-new deal boom year.

MYSTERY SHROUDS BEST CHRISTMAS BUSINESS SINCE 1929 THIS YEAR

Christmas shoppers will pay less for what they buy than they had to in 1929. Indications are, the experts said, that although prices will be slightly higher than last Christmas season, they will be no higher than in 1937, the best business year since the depression.

MYSTERY SHROUDS BEST CHRISTMAS BUSINESS SINCE 1929 THIS YEAR

The economists said they expected a better than seasonal increase in business this December. They estimated that the federal reserve board's index of department store sales will reach 97 or 98 as compared with 89 in December, 1938. The index, which reflects dollar volume, is based on an average of 100 or the years 1923 through 1925.

Plans for another migratory labor camp to help drought-stricken farm families return to the soil were announced today. Its location will be the 120-acre May ranch on the Walla Walla river.

MYSTERY SHROUDS BEST CHRISTMAS BUSINESS SINCE 1929 THIS YEAR

Walter A. Duffy, regional director of the farm security administration, said the camp would house 140 families in peak labor months and 24 the year around.
