This is an annual affair and is sponsored by the Nurses' association.

Patrons and patronesses include Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Inskeep, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Bishop, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Buonocore, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Haines, Dr. and Mrs. C. I. Drummond, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Holt, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Green and Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Everett.

Klamath Couple Wed Monday Here

Last evening at 5 o'clock, in the Presbyterian manse at 27 Ross court, Miss Ruth Ellen Bennett became the bride of Ralph Andrews Thompson, both of Klamath Falls.

Uniting the couple in marriage was Dr. Sherman L. Divine, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hathaway, also of Klamath Falls. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bennett of Mound City, Mo.

The newlyweds will make their home at 514 High street in Klamath.

Medford Man Is Wed To Ashland Girl Thanksgiving

The Full Gospel church in Ashland was the scene of a beautiful wedding at 8 o'clock the evening of Thanksgiving, when Miss LaVerne Cooper, daughter of Mrs. Thora Cooper of Ashland, became the bride of Mr. George M. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martin of Medford, in the presence of relatives and 150 guests. The Rev. Robert Schmidt, pastor of the church, read the marriage vows.

The bride was lovely in a floor length white net, over taffeta. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and chrysanthemums.

Before the ceremony, Miss Bernice Haight improvised in prelude music. Mrs. Margaret Swanson sang "I Love You Truly", as Gemmy Lee Cooper in pink organza lighted the candles. Gilbert Elder sang, "Oh Sweet Mystery of Life", before the bride and groom entered and took their places on the platform. The bride, on the arm of George Icenhower, who gave her in marriage, was preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Arthur Icenhower and Lewis Monroe; the maid of honor, Miss La Velle Cooper and bridesmaids, Miss Leona Rowe and Miss Bonnie Lewis. The bridegroom was supported by Vance Rowe, as best man. As the dedicatory prayer was spoken Mrs. Swanson sang "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go."

A reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Icenhower on Allison street for the bride and groom.

The bride attended the Ashland schools and the bridegroom is a graduate of Medford high school. They are now at home in this city.

John Gores Home From Trip East

Mr. and Mrs. John Gore returned to their home here this morning from Philadelphia where they vacationed for the past seven weeks.

In the Eastern city, the Gores were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. George C. Henny and children. Mrs. Henny is a daughter of the Gores.

The Hennys returned to the United States just shortly before the local couple traveled east to visit them. They had spent the summer in Europe and returned to their home at the outbreak of the war.

Enroute to Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Gore stopped in California for visits.

Harold Burelson, Tenor, Makes Debut On Music Program

Musical Society of Medford presented another of its entertaining semi-monthly programs last evening.

First selection on the evening's program was a girls' chorus under the direction of Miss Helen Leach, head of the music department of the junior high school. Miss Leach accompanied the chorus on the piano. Numbers were "The Token," a German folk song; "The Carol of the Shepherds," a Bohemian folk carol, and Mendelssohn's "On Wings of Music."

Next appearing was a sextette of girls chosen from the chorus. They were Marjorie Hardy, Shirley Weisenburger, Barbara McGrew, Virginia Sims, Betty Latham and Dixie Davis. Their selections included "Green for the Mountain Side," a Tyrolean folk song, and "The Herd Bells."

The chorus next sang Neapolitan Nights. It was Mrs. James Stevens, society commentator, pleasure present a singer new to Medford audiences. He is Harold Burelson, tenor, who recently came to this city to reside. Mr. Burelson's songs were "Because and The Cradle Song." He was accompanied by Mrs. R. L. Lantz on the piano.

Next on the interesting program was a chorus composed of girls and boys of the eighth and ninth grade music classes. They sang two Negro melodies, "Go Down, Moses, and O, Mary, Don't You Weep."

St. Mark's To Have Bazaar

Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock St. Mark's Guild will hold its annual bazaar and turkey dinner.

A variety of interesting features will be offered during the evening, including a fish pond and booths where foods, candies and needlework may be purchased.

Following dinner, Miss Ruth Luy will present a dance review and floor show.

Reservations may be phoned to 1357-J or 698-R.
