HUSKIES TO TRY FOR SIX IN ROW OVER EL TROJAN

Seattle, Nov. 29.—(P)—The University of Washington 33-man football squad rolled southward today to challenge the powerful Southern California Trojans...

The team: Fisk, USC, and Smith, Idaho, ends; Stuart, Oregon, and Gaspar, USC, tackles; Smith and Sohn, both USC, guards; Mucha, Washington, center; Lansdell, USC, quarter; Washington, U.C.L.A., and Schindler, USC, halfbacks; Standie, Stanford, fullback.

TIGERS DECLINE MILKAUKIE OFFER FOR CLASH HERE

Bowerman Says Team Can't Get In Shape In Time; May Play Next Year.

Portland, Nov. 29.—(P)—Football games to determine the state prep championship hung up yesterday on the same old reef—the ninth semester rule.

Jefferson high, unbeaten Portland champion, refused to play Milwaukie, unbeaten No-Name league champion, without its ninth semester players.

Hopes for a Medford-Milwaukie football game this weekend to determine the mythical state championship were blasted today when Coach Bill Bowerman of the Black Tornado informed Coach Merritt McKeel of Milwaukie, by telephone...

Bowerman told McKeel that the Medford team, which disbanded after the Coquille game last Thursday, couldn't reach the proper physical condition in time for a game Saturday.

Milwaukie's offer to play in Medford Saturday came yesterday afternoon, an hour after Medford had been invited to meet Milwaukie in Multnomah stadium Friday night.

Bowerman explained that all yesterday afternoon he kept this players in readiness to report for practice in case Milwaukie accepted the offer for a Saturday game in Medford...

Then, when Milwaukie changed its mind and decided to accept the Saturday offer, the Medford players had scattered and a practice session was out of the question.

Bowerman said that during his telephone talks with McKeel tentative arrangements were made to bring Medford and Milwaukie together next season.

OFFICIALS TRYING TO AVERT RIOT AT TULANE-LSU GAME

New Orleans, La., Nov. 29.—(P)—Tulane and Louisiana State university are trying so hard to keep their football game here Saturday from ending in a rout that they are getting downright mad about it.

This year, student councils and officials of both schools agreed, they would preserve the dignity, teeth and goalsposts which have become lost in melees at some previous games.

The student councils got together and decided to present the winning school a flag on the field after the game, the idea being spectators would be awed by the spirit of it all and stay put.

President Paul Hebert of L.S.U. thought it would be nice to have his cadet corps parade on the field before the game with the Tulane naval reserve unit.

The L.S.U. student newspaper and student body raised indignant howls, and Dr. Hebert said he wouldn't let the cadet corps go to the game, as it seemed Tulane didn't want them.

Last night Dr. Harris explained, in effect, that Tulane really wanted the L.S.U. students and cadets, but merely feared that if they paraded some ardent spectator might shout from his cups something to start the riot everybody was trying to avoid.

There matters stand. The game, expected to draw a record southern football crowd of more than 50,000 if the weather is good, is Tulane's last hurdle to a Sugar Bowl invitation.

BRUINS-COUGARS ARGUE OVER BALL

Los Angeles, Nov. 29.—(P)—Athletic officials of Washington State and U.C.L.A. are trying to settle a controversy over the type of football to be used tomorrow night in the conference game between the two schools.

Washington State, it was understood, wants to use a white ball, and the Bruins are holding out for the natural brown shade.

The Cougars argue the white ball can be seen better at night, the Uclans contend the brown leather is easier to handle because of the grain, and does not get so slippery from night dew.

Decision In Month Seattle, Nov. 29.—(P)—Dean Wayne L. Morse of the University of Oregon law school, third member of the Puget Sound ferry arbitration board, will hand down a final ruling in the controversy in about a month.

$15 A WEEK JOB INSURANCE DENIED CLEVELAND STAR

Cleveland, Nov. 29.—(P)—Ken Keltner, Cleveland third baseman, today tried to forget his unsuccessful bid for jobless benefits, major league owners breathed easier and baseball's "bench jockeys" loaded up with 1940 ammunition.

Keltner, who makes about $7,500 a year with the Indians, applied for state job insurance of $15 a week on the contention he is unemployed this winter.

In refusing, the Ohio unemployment compensation bureau explained Keltner was under a year's contract and so had not separated from his employment.

If Keltner had been granted the approximate $240 in benefits, subsequent claims might have forced club owners to revise their player contracts, distributing the pay over 12 months instead of concentrating it in the six-month season.

"Bench jockeys" are expected to relish the incident as the foundation for "ribbing" the Tribe's infielder next year.

At his Milwaukee home Keltner said: "I didn't know I had any compensation coming until about two weeks ago. As soon as I found out I wasn't entitled to any, I withdrew the claim. The whole thing was just a big joke."

WRIGLEY SLATES WORK FOR DEAN

Chicago, Nov. 29.—(P)—Owner P. K. Wrigley of the Chicago Cubs has decided that one thing—work—will take the miseries out of Dizzy Dean's $185,000 pitching arm.

Wrigley said he has convinced "Old Diz" sore right flipper was healed and that he would be expected to start pitching himself into shape as soon as the Cubs land on Catalina Island next March for spring training.

The Cubs bought Dean from the St. Louis Cardinals, in April, 1938, for $185,000 and three players. He won seven and lost one in 1938 and last season won six and lost four.

Bigger League Planned. Seattle, Nov. 29.—(P)—With an eye to an enlarged six-team circuit for next year with northern and southern divisions, directors of the Pacific Coast Hockey league last night approved a round-robin competition with a circuit to be launched in California next month.

Barker Selects Army Over Navy, Bruins Over Cougars

New York, Nov. 29.—(P)—Taking one last pot-shot at the fading football season: Thursday's games: Kentucky - Tennessee: Some say the unbeaten Volunteers are due for a big surprise. If so, this guesser will be surprised at the same time. Tennessee.

Texas-Texas A. and M.: All the rules of fiction-writing fraternity would call for Texas to win this one, with Jack Crain running madly in all directions. The chances are that Crain will do plenty of running, but this hide-bound conservative will string along with undefeated Texas A. and M.

U.C.L.A. - Washington State: No reason to believe that Kenny Washington and U.C.L.A. can't get past this one.

Vanderbilt-Alabama: Hard to figure since Alabama's offense has been nothing to write home about. Vanderbilt played great ball against Tennessee. The hat is the only solution... Alabama. Arizona-Montana: Taking Arizona.

Saturday's games: Army-Nevy: These two seldom have come up to their annual duel with worse records. Neither has won a major game. As far as this guesser is concerned, this is an absolute toss-up, so the coin spins and says... Army.

Tulane-Louisiana State: Doubt that L.S.U. is equipped to stop the unbeaten green wave. Tulane. Southern California-Washington: Washington has improved rapidly, but appears to be in for a lacing here. Southern California.

New York University-Fordham: Probably close. A faint nod toward Fordham. Dartmouth-Stanford: Stanford plays well in the east, but we'll take Dartmouth.

Southern Methodist - Texas Christian: S.M.U. is the choice. Long-range guessing: Dec. 9, Southern California over U.C.L.A.; Tennessee over Auburn; Southern Methodist over Rice.

Fear Snow Blockade Bend, Nov. 29.—(P)—Reclamation bureau and CCC officials ordered the evacuation of Camp Wikipu today before December 15 to prevent a blockade from a sudden storm.
