RUSSIA LAUNCHES ATTACK ON FINNS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—Communists who paint Soviet Russia as a land of progress, never explain that Portland, Ore., has 5,000 more passenger autos than the entire U.S.S.R., that Seattle has 15,000 more passenger cars than in all the land dominated by Joe Stalin (originally Djugasvili). The Soviets last year had a total of 85,418 such automobiles.

United States bureau of public roads has compiled some interesting figures on the motorists of Oregon and Washington (figures for 1933) which are likely to open the eyes of the motorists themselves. For instance: Oregon motorists pay 50.2 per cent of the total state taxes; Washington motorists pay 32.7 per cent of the total state taxes and the national average of state taxes paid by motorists is 37 per cent.

Land, Sea, Air Forces Stage Sudden Sorties; Capital City Bombed

Kirkenes, Far Northern Norway, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Finnish towns 200 miles above the Arctic circle were partly destroyed by Soviet bombing planes today as Russia carried her air operations to the Norwegian border.

Russian airplanes several times today attacked the main Finnish road which runs to Petsamo and at several points touches the Jakob-Selven river, which forms the Finnish-Norwegian boundary in that area.

An ordinary omnibus carrying mail between Petsamo and Enare was machine-gunned by warplanes.

Five Finnish refugees, all women and children, reached Kirkenes.

 Helsinki, Nov. 30.—(AP)—(5:20 p.m.—7:20 a.m. PST)—Russian bombing planes set the southwestern section of Helsinki afire today in a sudden land, sea and air invasion of Finland.

After Soviet bombers roared over the capital in successive raids, the sky over southwestern Helsinki was red early tonight with the glare of burning buildings hit during the afternoon's bombardment.

Several bodies were recovered in the streets and the wreckage of buildings in the evening. The number of dead and injured could not be determined immediately.

Starts Early in Day
 The Soviet invasion began early today, with infantry advancing into Finnish territory on the Isthmus of Karelia under heavy artillery fire.

Soon bombing planes were dropping explosives on the port of Viipuri (Viborg), about 65 miles from the Soviet frontier, and "Red" warships had begun seizing Finnish islands in the Gulf of Finland.

President Kyoesti Kallio declared the country to be "in a state of war," issuing a decree "for defense and the maintenance of law and order of the Finnish Republic."

Finnish defense forces were rallied quickly into action, and anti-aircraft batteries fought bitterly against the attacking Red squadrons.

It was estimated ten Soviet planes were shot down, of which two fell in Helsinki.

After a preliminary bombing of Helsinki's Malm airport on the outskirts of the city, the Soviet bombers began attacking the city proper shortly after 1 p.m. (6 a.m., EST).

War Bulletins

London, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Reuters, British news agency, reported in a dispatch from Stockholm today that Soviet troops landed on Hango, island off the south Finnish coast on which Russia had demanded the right to establish a naval base.

The landing was made after an air bombardment, Reuters said.

London, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The 2,700-ton British steamer Sheaf Crest was reported sunk by a mine off the southeast British coast today. Twenty-nine survivors were landed, a number of them injured.

Paris, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The high command's communique tonight announced that "one of our patrols successfully attacked an enemy submarine."

Of the war on the western front the communique said merely, "usual activity of our patrols."

Stavanger, Norway, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Two British warships, one apparently a large cruiser, arrived at Haugvaldstad near here today, towing a damaged submarine marked TR-53. Residents believed the British ships had been in a battle reported off the coast yesterday between warships and airplanes. From shore, men could be seen working on the submarine's afterdeck.

RED AGGRESSION DRAWS CRITICISM OF CHAMBERLAIN

Invasion Of Finland Must Result In Fresh Suffering And Loss To Innocents.

London, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain today declared Russia's invasion of Finland was a "fresh attack on a small, independent nation which must result in fresh suffering and loss of life to an innocent people."

He told the house of commons the British government "deeply regret" the invasion and stated the government's belief it was not justified by the issues at stake.

Chamberlain spoke in answer to a private notice question by Clement Attlee, the opposition laborite leader.

After reviewing the Russian demands in Finland, Chamberlain declared the British government "found it difficult to believe that strategic measures of such scope and importance as were suggested should have been considered necessary to protect the Soviet Union against a country as small as Finland."

Members of Parliament cheered this and other statements indicating sympathy toward Finland.

When Parliament's only communist member, William Gallacher sought to ask Chamberlain a question he was greeted by shouts of other M.P.'s to "sit down!" "Sit down!"

Gallacher began by referring to Lord Baldwin's famous statement "our frontier is on the Rhine," and the speaker of the house intervened with the remark, "you are asking questions about another part of the world."

Gallacher was howled down.

MRS. ROOSEVELT DISAPPOINTED IN DIES TESTIMONY

Nothing New Learned in Flying Visit To Hearing, Says She—Causes Flurry

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Rep. Martin Dies (D., Tex.), chairman of the committee investigating un-American activities, said here today he was returning to Texas to rest for a month under doctor's orders.

Because of that, he said, it was necessary to cancel a speech in Detroit tomorrow night and one in Toledo Saturday night.

Meanwhile, because of a shortage of funds and lack of time, he said his committee would continue hearings only for about four or five days.

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, attended all in green, paid a flying visit to the Dies committee today, listened to 50 minutes of testimony and went away "disappointed."

"There's nothing that we don't already know," she told acting Chairman Starnes (D., Ala.) at the end of her visit. "I'm disappointed, I thought I would hear something new."

The first lady had intended being present while officials of the American Youth Congress, which she has defended against charges it was communist-controlled, testified. However, all the time she attended a Detroit Negro, William O. Nowell, was on the stand talking about communist activities in this country.

Visit Causes Flurry
 Mrs. Roosevelt's arrival caused quite a flurry of excitement in the committee room. She had said Monday she would be willing to appear as a witness if she had any information—especially about the youth congress—that the committee thought would be helpful.

But she soon sat at rest speculation over whether she might testify by saying she had dropped in merely as a spectator. She declined Starnes' invitation to sit at the committee table and chose a seat among officers of the youth congress, with whom, from time to time, she exchanged whispers.

Waits Sentence

Fritz Kuhn (above), Bund leader, who was found guilty of stealing the organization's funds, and falsifying records, will be sentenced December 5.

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Fritz Kuhn, portly Fuehrer of the German-American Bund, convicted of stealing $1,217 in bund funds and falsifying records, will face a maximum of 30 years imprisonment when he comes up for sentencing December 5.

He merely blinked his bespectacled eyes and said nothing at all last night when a jury of businessmen, after deliberating eight hours and thirty minutes, found him guilty on all five counts of grand larceny and forgery which had been left to its decision. He showed no emotion as he was led across the Bridge of Sighs into musty Tombs prison.

Counsel Warned
 Judge James G. Wallace gave Kuhn's attorney, Peter L. F. Sabbatino, permission to postpone until the day of sentencing any motions he might care to make. The attorney did not indicate the possible nature of such motions.

The judge also told Sabbatino he would "continue the question of what action I shall take for your conduct throughout this trial until that day (Dec. 5) or the day after." The judge and the attorney had clashed several times in the trial, which began November 9. Yesterday, the judge told Sabbatino, "you never seem to realize you are in a courtroom on a trial; you imagine you're on a political rostrum."

Kuhn, who was born in Germany and became a naturalized American citizen, had based his

FINLAND STANDS IN WAY OF REDS EXPANSION PLAN

The Russian invasion of Finland marks another stride in the Soviet program of expansion which was fully launched September 17 when the red army joined that of Adolf Hitler in the partitioning of Poland.

Finland is the fourth northern nation formerly a part of the Russian empire to stand in the path of Moscow's efforts to regain all the strategic power held by the czars. A nation of about 3,364,000 population, she confronts a great power of 165,000,000 people.

Negotiations Fail
 Russia, successful in gaining military, naval and air base concessions from the three small Baltic states of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, sought to extend her zone of influence into Finnish territory but the negotiations collapsed November 13.

Three separate attempts to reach an agreement in Moscow failed.

Beginning with Russia's invitation on October 7 to Finland to "talk it over," the negotiations were cloaked in secrecy until, on October 31, the Soviet demands were divulged by Vyacheslav Molotov, Russian premier-foreign minister, in his report at the meeting of the supreme Soviet in Moscow.

Molotov said Russia first wanted a mutual assistance pact similar to those negotiated with the three Baltic states. That

JOSEPH T. GAGNON, LONG A RESIDENT, TAKEN BY DEATH

Joseph T. Gagnon, 77, a resident of Jackson county for the past 32 years, died early this morning in a local hospital following a brief illness. His passing came as a shock to his many friends here and in Jacksonville, as he worked steadily up until two weeks ago and always appeared in the best of health.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. Saturday in Sacred Heart Catholic church, the Rev. F. W. Black officiating. He will be buried in the family plot in Odd Fellows cemetery. The Rosary will be held at the Congregational chapel at 7:30 p. m. Friday.

Born in St. Agnes, Quebec, Canada, on November 1, 1862, Mr. Gagnon moved with his wife to Jacksonville in 1907. There he operated a sawmill, and a year later moved to Medford, where he resided until his death. With his wife he lived at 341 South Oakdale avenue.

During his long residence in Medford, Mr. Gagnon became affiliated with several sawmills and later followed the contracting profession, which he was engaged in at the time of his death. For a time he was associated with the Jacksonville-Medford railroad, some 25 years ago.

Mr. Gagnon is survived by his wife, Emma, of Medford; one adopted daughter, Mrs. Valentine Coulon of Berlin, Maine; three brothers, Thomas, Milken and Frank Gagnon, all of Quebec, and one sister, Mrs. Boudris of Quebec. There are also several cousins, nieces and nephews.

LIBERTY MARKET IS SOLD BY PECH

R. L. Hollenbeck, La Grande business man, has purchased the Liberty meat market, 206 West Main street in this city, from Emil R. Pech. The new owner will immediately assume active management of the well known market and a complete line of prepared sea foods and fresh fish will be featured in addition to the same quality meats as previously sold by the Liberty market, it was announced.

Don Bieberstedt, meat cutter who has been in the Liberty meat market staff for the past five and one-half years, will continue to serve the public under the new management.

After 31 years devoted to serving the people of southern Oregon, Emil Pech will retire from active business following the sale of his concern to Mr. Hollenbeck. During his many years of business activity here Mr. Pech has made a host of friends, who, while regretting the fact that he is leaving the Liberty market, will welcome the news that he will enjoy a well deserved rest. Mr. and Mrs. Pech will leave soon for an extended vacation trip at the coast.

R. L. Hollenbeck, new owner of the Liberty meat market, is now establishing a permanent home for his family in Medford. Mrs. Hollenbeck, a son and daughter, will reside here while two older sons are associated with the Union Pacific system in eastern Oregon.

REBUKE TO RUSSIA URGED BY SOLON

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Representative Smith (D., Wn.) asserted today that the United States should recall its ambassador to Russia as a rebuke for the Soviet's "cowardly and brutal attack on little peace-loving Finland and also because of the communistic propaganda in our own country emanating from Moscow."

This action, he added in a statement, "would at least show how the United States regards the conduct of the regime of Stalin."

RUSSIANS SHOOT AT HUNGARIANS

Budapest, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Reports from the Ruthenian frontier today said Russian soldiers had opened fire on a number of Hungarian sentries.

There was no official confirmation, but it was learned tension had been caused in the frontier region by the shipment into Ruthenia of Russian propaganda pamphlets which were reported to have been seized by Hungarian military authorities.

(Ruthenia is now the common frontier between Hungary and the Russian-occupied parts of Poland. Hungary took Ruthenia after the collapse of Czechoslovakia.)

25,000 TURKEYS LEFT IN VALLEY

Turkey growers of the Rogue River valley sold 30,000 fowls, during the double Thanksgiving period, leaving around 25,000 birds for the Christmas, New Years, and late winter trade, according to Swift & Company estimates. This year's turkey production was about 56,000, and it is figured 53 per cent of this total went to market.

Turkeys were quoted locally today at 15c per pound for toms, and 19c for hens. It was expected the eastern market Christmas opening price would be made late this afternoon.

Bombs Punctuate Story of Correspondent in Helsinki

(Editor's note: In the midst of a new air bombardment of Helsinki by Soviet Russian planes, Lyn Heinzerling, the Associated Press correspondent in the Finnish capital, today telephoned the following story to the outside world via Copenhagen.)

By Lyn Heinzerling
 Helsinki, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Fourteen Soviet planes were seen near Helsinki early this afternoon, but no bombs were dropped at first.

The United States legation has arranged for quarters at Grankulla, but has not yet decided to evacuate.

Soberly thoughtful as his office received reports from various points, Finnish foreign minister Elias Erkko made the following statement to the Associated Press:

(Here the telephone communication was interrupted by the crash of a bomb. "People outside are running for cover," said Heinzerling. "An air raid warning has not yet been sounded, and they were caught unawares. Now continue Erkko.")

"Despite the fact that we have shown to the last a willingness to try to find a peaceful solution of the difficulties which have arisen between Finland and Russia in the face of the Soviet demands and despite the fact we have tried all means possible to avoid any conflict on the frontier, we have been attacked today."

"As a reason for the attack the pretext was used that we invaded Russian territory and our troops threatened Lenin's

CONTINUE PEACE EFFORT IN S. F. MARINE STRIKE

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—(AP) Waterfront strike settlement efforts continued today with Dr. Louis Bloch, U. S. maritime labor board mediator, optimistic over the outcome despite any surface evidence of progress.

"I don't think they're so far apart," Bloch said.

320 AMERICANS LISTED IN FINNISH TERRITORY

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—State department reports show that as of last January 1 there were 320 Americans in Finland and 400 Americans in Russia.

26 States Enjoy Turkey on Traditional Holiday Date

By the Associated Press
 Residents of 26 states observed Thanksgiving today while the rest of the nation went about its ordinary business—the turkey and the celebrations only a week-old memory.

The 26 were mostly states which did not accept President Roosevelt's proclamation designating the holiday one week earlier than usual. But they included three—Colorado, Mississippi and Texas—which observed both days.

Business generally took less of a holiday than it did last week, for many of the populous centers are situated in states which chose the earlier observance. There are financial markets of importance in only three of the states having a holiday today. The District of Columbia celebrated a week ago, under the president's proclamation;

HONOLULU CLIPPER IN RECORD ZEALAND HOP

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—(AP) The Honolulu Clipper completed the fastest round-trip San Francisco-New Zealand flight on record today preparatory to the contemplated establishment of regular service.

Application for a permit is before the Civil Aeronautics authority.

The Honolulu Clipper left its Treasure Island base here Nov. 18. The round-trip to New Zealand approximated 16,000 miles.
