Rain at this time of year in Crater Lake national park is considered unusual. Also considered unusual is the lack of snow in the park, all evidence of a few light falls thus far this season having vanished at road levels before this morning's rain.

Wall St. Report

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Outbreak of actual warfare between Russia and Finland today helped give the stock market further bearish twinges. The list extended Wednesday's decline fractions to 3 points in the forenoon in fairly active dealings. There were subsequent recoveries and dips and, at the close, prices were above the lows in most cases.

Steels, aircrafts, motors and chemicals were in the front ranks of the morning retreat. Rails, utilities, rubbers, coppers and merchandising issues generally kept losses to small proportions. Dealings slackened appreciably after mid-day when attempts were made to prop leaders. Transfers for the full proceedings approximated 900,000 shares.

LAND, SEA AND AIR ATTACK LAUNCHED ON TINY FINLAND

were blasted apart by bombs and set ablaze. Southwestern Helsinki, where most of the bombs fell, was red with fire. An area of 12 blocks was blazing, and windows were shattered over an area of a square mile. The capital was completely blacked out tonight, but blazing buildings provided a beacon for enemy aircraft.

The population steeled itself for new attacks. Viipuri, 65 miles from the Soviet border, was attacked by warships as well as bombing planes. Sections of the port were in flames.

Purest Aggression Foreign Minister Eljas Erkkko declared the Russian attack was "the purest aggression imaginable."

Aviation Drama Rialto Feature

With eyes only for the sky, Randolph Scott and Margaret Lindsay are seen in the starring roles of a thrilling film of America's new college airman—"20,000 Men a Year," which opens a three-day run today at the New Rialto theatre. Miss Lindsay has no use for flyers until she falls in love with Scott, who plays a civilian aviation instructor selected by the Civil Aeronautics Authority in its national training program—the same program that will be carried out at our Southern Oregon Normal School in the next few months. Preston Foster, Jane Darwell, Maxie Rosenbloom and Mary Healy have supporting roles in the daring sky adventure. "In Old Monterey," starring Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette and George "Windy" Hayes, plays as the companion action feature with "20,000 Men a Year."

Consequently, the story deals with the hilarious but futile efforts of a big Hollywood film company to make a picture with Kyser and his band, and in so doing it offers gay and laughter-packed entertainment. Kyser and his musicians portray themselves throughout and Menjou has the role of the luckless producer assigned to the task of bringing Kyser to the screen.

"That's Right—You're Wrong" crowds an immense amount of snappy new music, Hollywood satire and uproarious novelty entertainment into its footage. As part of its plot action, the film presents "The College of Musical Knowledge," the radio audience-participation show which has earned Kyser renown over the air lanes.

Kyser scores notably in his initial effort and with Menjou easily grabs the laugh-getting honors of the film. Lucille Ball is excellent as the glamor girl and May Robson furnishes much of the fun as Kyser's redoubtable grandmother, Edward Everett Horton, Roscoe Karns, Dennis O'Keefe and Moroni Olsen, along with the Kyser soloists, Ginny Simms, Harry Babbitt, Sully Mason and Ish Kabibble, earn abundant comedy laurels.

Kay Kyser Scores Hit With Audience At Craterian Show Something delightfully new under the screen sun is the tuneful comedy, "That's Right—You're Wrong," which opened yesterday at the Craterian theatre.

Starring Kay Kyser with his orchestra and Adolphe Menjou, the picture breaks sharply away from the conventional boy-meets-girl success-story theme on which most band leader films have been based. With engaging candor, the producers admit that such a theme is threadbare—and develop their plot around the ingenious thesis that it is impossible to find any other theme.
