Billy Hulen says:

I. Pickem Takes Final Swing At Gridiron Games

With today's peerless grid picks, I. Pickem pulls in his neck, packs away the trusty crystal ball and calls it quits for another football season. He'll make one last, quick appearance just before the Rose Bowl game between Tennessee and U.S.C., but today really winds up this year's prognosticating program.

There is a dearth of encounters billed for tomorrow afternoon, so Pickem is forced to present only half of his weekly dozen. But, what tomorrow lacks in quantity it certainly makes up for in quality. The following games are tough and Pickem doesn't expect to do much better than hit six for six.

Washington-U. S. C.: It has been six long years since Howard Jones managed to send a team on the field able to whip Jimmy Phelan's Huskies. Last year Washington surprised even its most rabid rooters by upsetting the Trojans, 7 to 6, and I. Pickem, however, has the nerve to again name Washington, and the game is called like this: Southern Cal. 13, Washington 0.

Stanford-Dartmouth: Ending one of their worst seasons in history, the Stanford Indians travel clear back to Hanover, N. H., to take another licking. Dartmouth hasn't looked any too strong of late, but it should have enough power to beat the Coast club with ease, about 20 to 6.

Army-Navy: About the only claim this crowd has to glory is the huge crowd that's certain to attend and the fact that it's the biggest "natural" of the season. Both outfits are below par, but Pickem believes Army will eke out a 7 to 3 win.

Tulane-L.S.U.: Tulane's Green Wave is rolling toward a "bowl" game and should engulf a better-than-average Louisiana State team. The clash figures to be one of the most bitterly-fought in the south this year, and anything can happen in a game of this kind. It's still Tulane thought, by a 14 to 6 tally.

New York-Fordham: Another traditional struggle between two great rivals. Fordham was a slight disappointment this season and New York university did better than was expected of it. However, we'll stick with Jimmy Crowley and his Rams, Fordham, by 13 to 0.

Southern Methodist-Texas Christian: This is the big "blood" battle of the southwest and its simply a matter of take your choice. Pickem's choice is Southern Methodist, after an aerial battle de luxe. Score: 27 to 14.

OREGON EXTENDED TO DEFEAT OILERS

Eugene, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The University of Oregon basketball team, defending national intercollegiate champion, was forced to the limit last night to defeat Signal Oil of Portland, 47 to 43. The Webfoot, after trailing most of the first half, tied the count at 23-23 at halftime and then went on to win in the last two minutes.

Ted Sarpola of Oregon and Chuck Patterson of the Oilers tied for high point honors, with 14 each.

The score was tied several times in the second half.

Tennessee and Texas Aggies Clinch "Bowl" Invitations

EXPERTS PREDICT ROSES FOR VOLTS, SUGAR FOR AGGIES

Trojans, Tulane Expected To Win Bids In Final Games; Few Tilts Left.

By Judson Bailey

New York, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Half filled now, a couple of football bowls are going to be tanked right up to the brim before the week is over if the same form that held good in yesterday's juicy Thanksgiving day menu doesn't spoil before Saturday.

The Texas Aggies completed an undefeated season of ten games with a 20-0 conquest of their old rivals, the University of Texas Longhorns, and the mighty Tennessee Volunteers edged the Kentucky Wildcats 10-0 to extend their undefeated and unscored upon string right up to the final fray of the season.

These developments, as half of the country observed the calendar holiday, gave the two winners everything they needed to get to the Rose and Sugar bowls except the railroad tickets. Until they get them figuratively at least, nobody will know just which will go where, but the best brains are booming Tennessee for Pasadena and the Aggies for New Orleans come New Year's day.

Tulane To Play L.S.U. The other halves of the casts in these two spectacles are likely to be filled to the satisfaction of the public on Saturday when Southern California attempts to hurdle a Washington eleven and Tulane tackles its bitter foe, Louisiana State.

Providing U.S.C. and Tulane triumph, their assignments for next New Year's day already are laid out for them. The Trojans will be hosts in the Rose bowl and the Green Wave will receive at the Sugar bowl.

While attention already has turned to the gridiron's post-season activities, there still are some attractive morsels of the regular program remaining.

The prospective Rose bowl rivals have games pending on December 9, Southern Cal. against UCLA and Tennessee against Auburn.

The Army-Navy vaudeville performance is booked for Philadelphia municipal stadium tomorrow with more than 100,000 patrons expected. In New York there'll be Stanford and Dartmouth, and N.Y.U. against Fordham. In Boston the fans will have Boston college and Holy Cross in one of the fiercest of feuds.

Other sectional fronts the rambling wreck of Georgia Tech, tied for the Southeastern conference title, will scrap with Georgia; undefeated Duquesne bumps into Detroit, and Southern Methodist and Texas Christian and Baylor and Rice collide.

Yesterday's firing cost Rutgers its first defeat as the Brown Bears scored twice in the final period for a 13-0 decision.

Colorado Wins Title One conference championship was settled as Colorado captured a wild 27-17 fracas from Denver in the Rocky mountains' Big Seven.

Alabama's slow-starting steam roller flattened Vanderbilt 39-10, once-beaten North Carolina walloped Virginia 19-0, and Florida escaped with a 7-7 tie against Auburn when the game ended with the Tigers on the two-yard line.

Nearly every national park in the United States showed an increase in the number of hikers on forest trails. The overnight pack-horse types of hiking gained especially in adherents.

Sgt. Bob Kenaston (above), Gold Hill's big crab and swivel man, grapples Bobby Chick on next Monday night's armory wrestling program. The sergeant is a tough baby and most fans will be pulling for the elder Chick boy.

KEN WASHINGTON STARS AS BRUINS TRIM WSC, 24-7

Negro Flash Pitches Two Playoff Passes to Keep Team In Bowl Running.

Los Angeles, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Those University of California at Los Angeles Bruins still are a big threat in Southern California's Rose bowl campaign, and so are the Washington Huskies, whose long jinx over U.S.C. will get a stiff test in the coliseum tomorrow.

The unbeaten Bruins finished off Washington State, 24-7, last night with a burst of fourth-period touchdowns, and go into their final Pacific Coast conference game December 9 against the toughest of them all, Southern California's powerful Trojan eleven.

Until that encounter, the Bruins are a Rose bowl contender.

Once again, as it has been all season, the Uclan victory rested on the prowess of Kenny Washington, Negro halfback star. It was Washington who put the Bruins in front last night with a touchdown pass, good for 44 yards, and who moved them into the lead again in the final period with another scoring strike, good for 26 yards.

Robinson Helps Jackie Robinson, Kenny's dusky helmpate, caught the last pass, and late gave a brilliant exhibition of broken field run time and more than a light clamor to shift his talent to other places.

Rain and mud slowed his massive warriors but yesterday, while 40,000 wet customers shrieked, his Aggies whipped the University of Texas 20-0 to close a perfect ten-game season in which stout opposition scored only 18 points.

Today Coach Norton left fog-shrouded College Station on a duck hunt until Tuesday. Then the Aggies, while not officially confirming any rumors, are expected to vote a preference for the New Orleans Sugar Bowl game.

Admittedly eager to play in the Rose Bowl, the Aggies were believed to harbor a feeling they were running second to Tennessee's Vols.

Reliable reports were that Norton had been approached by a major Pacific coast school. He had little to say about such reports.

San Jose Looks For Bowl Invite San Jose, Cal., Dec. 1.—(AP)—San Jose State, unbeaten and untied in 13 games, was looking around today for an invitation to play in some post-season "bowl" game after winding up its season with a 12 to 0 victory over Drake university last night.

A crowd of 13,000 saw the high-scoring Spartans boost their season's point total to 324 against 29 for their opponents as they knocked over a fighting Drake team with the usual offensive trickery cooked up by the veteran Glenn S. "Pop" Warner, advisor coach at San Jose with head man Dud DeGroot.

Coach "Vee" Green of Drake praised San Jose as "one of the finest teams we've met in years."

CLAYTON-BOZELL GRAPPLING MATCH STIRS INTEREST

By his victory over Sgt. Bob Kenaston last Monday night, King Kong Clayton earned a main event wrestling berth, and he gets it next Monday eve.

Standing by his promise to Clayton, Promoter Mack Lillard has matched the Negro gladiator with big, tough, undefeated Paul Bozell, and the struggle is expected to cause more real grappling interest here than any in a long time.

Clayton has lost only one match since coming to Medford a month ago and fans are almost unanimous in declaring him the finest all-around man of the current crop. Bozell, on the other hand, is bigger and probably slightly stronger and will have the further advantage of being able to employ a "sudden death" hold—the Boston crab.

Bobby Chick, older brother of the famous Dude and former light-heavyweight champion of the world, returns after a two year's absence to meet Kenaston in the middle bout. Bobby, since leaving here, has made a sweep through the east and middle west, and comes back in perfect physical condition and with a reported number of new maneuvers, which he may need against the Kenaston tough fellow.

Another old favorite—Popeye Pat O'Brien—will be seen in action in the opening go, when he faces Herb Parks, the sweet-wrestling Canadian. O'Brien, although getting along in years for a top-notch athlete, is one of the smartest gents in the business. He still can go at top speed with any of the younger boys and Parks may have his paws overflowing with O'Brien.

SEAHAWKS TRIM BUCS TO THE HOCKEY LEAD

The Seattle Seahawks went into a tie with the Portland Buckaroos for first place in the Pacific coast hockey league last night by defeating the Bucs 2-0 in Portland. It was their second victory over the Buckaroos in as many nights.

Invention's Mother Oklahoma City (AP)—Seeking a way to save her chrysanthemum beds from frost, Mrs. B. R. Tichnor erected canvas tents over them and heated the tents with electric lights. The scheme worked and Mrs. Tichnor walked away with most of the honors at the Oklahoma City chrysanthemum show—15 blue ribbons.

End of Race Berkeley, Calif. (AP)—The Kallias tribe of Indians, who once ranged over a great area in Lower California, has dwindled to five families, says Dr. Feyerly Meigs, who has just returned from a study of the redmen.

TRAPSHOOTING TO START AT LOCAL GUN CLUB SUNDAY

Regular Sunday trapshooting will commence at the Medford gun club Sunday morning. During the upland bird and duck shooting seasons the club has not been shooting regularly.

With Klamath duck shooting reported very poor the last several weeks few hunters have been making the long trip and the demand for regular trapshooting has caused the gun club to start trapshooting every Sunday commencing this week.

After the first of the year the club will hold its annual meeting at which officers for the coming year will be elected, the yearly team shoot of all members will be held and the eventual annual banquet will be served at the club house.

The "Hunters Special" shoot, now a popular event with all gun clubs in every part of the United States and Canada, will probably be held in February. In these events the gun clubs canvass every available shooter, especially non members and business men, to compete on one of the teams.

The club management invites the public to shoot at the Sunday shoots at any time without the necessity of joining the club.

last year, was among students of Mrs. Prentiss' accordion band playing at the Christmas opening in Medford Thursday.

First December meeting of Applegate Extension unit will be held December 8 at the clubroom. Mrs. Mabel Mack will give the second project on weight control. Roll call will be answered with "an exercise that helps me keep it." The meeting will open at 10 a. m. and everyone interested is invited to attend.

Upper Applegate Grange members are making plans for a dance at their hall Christmas night. In the meantime, however, the Grangers will sponsor a card party December 16 to which everyone is invited.
