

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Ill At Home—Miss Betty Wilm, clerk at Rogue River national forest headquarters, was confined to her home at 203 Genesee street with a sore throat today.

Confined To Home—Sylvester Stevens, clerk at the Rogue River national forest warehouse on McAndrews road, was confined to his home in Talent today with influenza.

Fire Call—The fire department's chemical crew was called at 3:15 p. m. yesterday to the home of H. I. Nigl, 611 South Ivy street, where an excess of fuel in an oil burner had become ignited. The oil flow was turned off and no damage was done, firemen reported.

Improved—Marked improvement was noted today in the condition of J. W. Shirley, who has been confined to his home at 211 Vancouver avenue for the past week with a severe cold. Mr. Shirley expected to be out and about again in a day or so.

Court Citations—Arthur W. Limbeck, 22 of Central Point, was cited by state police yesterday to appear in justice of the peace court this afternoon charged with driving a car without an operator's license. Forest L. Linderman, 34, of Redding, Cal., was cited to appear on a charge of operating a truck with no P.U.C. plates.

Overcast—The sky was overcast and visibility was poor in Crater-Lake national park today, rangers reported by short-wave radio. Roads in the park were icy this morning but rangers thought the ice would melt before noon. Lowest temperature during the night was 31 degrees. The mercury registered 33 degrees at 8 a. m., time of the broadcast.

Plane Passengers—E. J. Bristol arrived from Portland on the 3:53 p. m. southbound flag-stop Mainliner at Medford municipal airport yesterday. G. C. Delvalle left on the same plane for San Francisco and Los Angeles. Miss H. Bish left for Portland by Mainliner yesterday afternoon. The northbound flag-stop and the midnight southbound Mainliners last night and the early morning northbound and the forenoon southbound Mainliners today flew over Medford, unable to get in here because of fog. It was thought that the northbound afternoon plane due here at 3:19 might be able to get in.

Ill At Home—Helen Holt Wilson is confined at her home on Corning court with influenza.

Chorus To Meet—Jackson County Teacher's chorus will convene Saturday at 10 a. m. in the county court house auditorium. This was described as an important session and all chorus members were asked to attend.

Here Today—Walter Dennis, superintendent of Rogue River schools, was a Medford visitor this morning. Mr. Dennis said that attendance in Rogue River schools last month, during the height of the influenza epidemic, was 96 percent of normal.

Minor Accident—Mrs. Rose M. Houston of 221 1/2 North Holly street, and Robert A. Rae of 1217 West Eleventh street, drove cars involved in a minor mishap at East Main and Bartlett streets Thursday afternoon, according to a report on file today.

Mrs. Palm Ill—Mrs. Callie Palm is confined at her home, 343 South Holly street with influenza. She is being taken care of by a nurse. Also ill with influenza is Miss Joan Buchter at the home of Mrs. E. N. Eldridge, 424 South Grape street.

Visit—Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Childs and daughters Helen and Ruth, of Griffin creek, spent the Thanksgiving week-end with Mr. Childs' father, W. A. Childs, at his home in Crescent City, Cal. The senior Mr. Childs has been confined to his bed for the past two months but is now able to sit up in a wheel chair.

McINTYRE REELECTED PORTLAND C OF C HEAD Portland, Dec. 1.—(P)—The Portland chamber of commerce re-elected President Ross McIntyre today and complimented his administration as "representing the greatest period of growth in nearly a decade."

Taught to Box. Cleveland, O.—(UP)—Edmund H. Ruh, of suburban Lakewood, has a boxing cat—Mr. Buster—which he has trained to wear gloves on its forepaws and box round after round with him. "The cat is a mild animal," Ruh said, "until the gloves are put on. Then it becomes a veteran boxer—and never retreats."

Hops Bring 23 Cents Portland, Dec. 1.—(P)—The agricultural marketing service reported the sale of about 90 bales of medium quality 1939 hops today at 23 cents a pound but generally there was little activity during the week. Top quality 1939 clusters were quoted nominally 25 cents a pound, net growers. There were no new contracts.
