

POSTMASTER IN ANNUAL ADVICE TO 'MAIL EARLY'

Christmas is now just around the corner, for today Postmaster Frank DeSouza issued his annual advice on how to prepare Yuletide mail and parcels so that they will reach their destinations in good condition.

Major items in the postmaster's recommendations were:

Give clear, complete addresses so there will be no delay in delivery. Postoffice clerks and carriers at this busy period of year do not have time to look up street numbers and box numbers and so mail not fully addressed must be set aside until after the holidays when time can be found for such a task, Mr. De Souza emphasized.

Parcels should be wrapped and tied securely so that they can stand the shaking around they must receive during transit. Many parcels every year still break open during transit because they are not properly wrapped to begin with, the postmaster said.

Fragile articles should be given special wrapping.

And above all, MAIL EARLY! The postmaster called attention to a number of special services rendered by the postoffice department to expedite the transportation and delivery of mail and parcels. Full information about the special services may be obtained from any clerk at the postoffice.

CLEVELAND RELIEFERS FEAST AT CAFETERIA; CHARGE BILL TO CITY

Cleveland, Dec. 1.—(P)—Eighteen hungry persons ate $9.96 worth of food at a downtown cafeteria this afternoon and told the manager to "charge it to the city."

The demonstration was led by the Association of Unemployed on direct and work relief. Stanley Macklesch, secretary of the organization, which has been active in the current Cleveland relief crisis, had announced Wednesday that unmarried destitute persons, to whom the city has denied food orders, would adopt this means of getting meals.

J. J. Pratt, manager of the CAFETERIA—located in busy Euclid avenue—said he planned no action but hoped "there will be no more such visitors."
