JIM KISSELBURGH, SCHULTZ, STUART, GRAYBEAL NAMED

Trojans Win Three Places—Washington Called Best Back; Smith Top Lineman

By James A. Sullivan (U.P. Staff Correspondent) San Francisco, Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—The sports editors and writers of United Press newspapers in the far west today present their Pacific coast all-star football team for 1939.

One of the strongest teams ever chosen in the annual poll, it offers 11 players whose work this year gained not only sectional but also national recognition.

Six teams are represented on the first squad, with University of Southern California, considered the strongest team on the coast, winning three places; Santa Clara, king of the independents, and Oregon State, beaten only by U.S.C. this year, getting two each; Oregon, a team that started fast and then slumped, placing two; and U.C.L.A., which plays U.S.C. for the conference title next Saturday, and University of Washington getting one each.

Lansdel Best Quarter.

These were the players selected for the first team:

Ends: William Anahu, Santa Clara, and Jay MacDowell, Washington.

Tackles: Jim Stuart, University of Oregon, and Phil Gaspar, U.S.C.

Guards: Harry Smith, U.S.C., and Eberle Schultz, Oregon State.

Center: Johnny Schiechl, Santa Clara.

Quarterback: Grenville Lansdel, U.S.C.

Halfbacks: Kenny Washington, U.C.L.A., and Jay Graybeal, Oregon.

Fullback: Jim Kisselburgh, Oregon State.

The second team lined up as follows:

Ends: Krueger, U.S.C., and Reginato, Oregon.

Tackles: Stoecker, U.S.C., and Artoe, California.

Guards: Sommers, U.C.L.A., and Younce, Oregon State.

Center: Mucha, Washington.

Quarterback: Schindler, U.S.C.

Halfbacks: Johnson, Santa Clara, and McAdams, Washington.

Fullback: Zimmerman, San Jose State.

Washington was considered the outstanding back and Smith the best lineman.

The vote for Washington for halfback, Lansdel for quarterback, Schiechl for center and Smith for one guard post was almost unanimous. Anahu was considered the "leading end; Stuart the best tackle.

Zimmerman Gets Votes.

One of the features of the poll was the support given for Leroy Zimmerman, top scorer of San Jose State's undefeated team, heaviest scoring college team in the nation. Other San Jose players and stars of Fresno State, College of Pacific, Portland and other so-called "smaller schools" also caught the attention of the selectors.

For the first time in years, possibly for all time, no players from California or Stanford, each of which had its "worst season on record," made the first team.

Pena, Leovich Mentioned.

Aside from the first and second team selections, the other players nominated for the all-star team were:

Ends: Strode, U.C.L.A.; Winslow and Fisk, U.S.C.; Semmens, California; Marz, Washington; MacPherson, U.C.L.A.; Ryan, Idaho; Allen, San Jose; Telemanic, U.S.F.; Pena, Oregon State; Smith, Idaho; Leovich, Oregon; Garcia, U.S.F.; Bettencourt, St. Mary's; Mulkey, Fresno State.

Tackles: Anderson, Stanford; Sears, Oregon; Reinhard, California; Zarubica, U.C.L.A.; Bronzan, Fresno; Ward, St. Mary's; Stubler, Santa Clara; Hackenbruck, Oregon State; Katzmeier, St. Mary's; Kelama, Oregon State; Renfro, San Jose State; Lyman, U.C.L.A.; Bantz, Washington State; Tornell, San Jose State.

Guards: Pool, Stanford; Plaseh, California; Cook, San Jose; Rosso, California; Frawley, U.C.L.A.; Baker, Gonzaga; Robertson, Oregon; Donovan, Idaho; Sohn, U.S.C.; O'Connor, Santa Clara; Martinelli, St. Mary's; Bob Smith, Placed.

Centers: Castenasa, Oregon; Titchenal, San Jose; Devine, Washington State; Tountsouvas, Oregon State; Dempsey, U.S.C.

Backs: Standen, Stanford; Hoffman, U.S.C.; Smith, Ore-

Huskies Score Against USC

Here's the pass that put Washington into the lead against Southern California, and which the Trojans did not overcome until the final moments of the game at Los Angeles that thrilled some 50,000 fans. Site's (23), Washington halfback is shown snaring the ball thrown by McAdams as Robertson (28), Trojan back, tried to break it up. Other Trojans are Lansdel (78), Sohn (55), and Dempsey (80). MacDowell (37) is Husky end.

gon; Peoples, U.S.C.; Heffernan, St. Mary's; Canadeo and Hare, Gonzaga; Enzler, Portland; Morrie Kohler, Oregon State; Albert, Stanford; Swarthout, Montana; Peterson and Poore, Fresno State; Adamina, College of Pacific; Doovan, Oregon; Roche and McCarty, Santa Clara; Robinson, U.C.L.A.; Minter, San Jose State; Renfro and Emerson, Washington State.

AAU BASKETBALL TEAMS TO MEET

Organization of an Amateur Athletic Union basketball league for Jackson county will take place Wednesday night at 7:30 in the chamber of commerce building, and all persons planning to sponsor independent teams are urged to attend. Fred Lennard is A. A. U. director for Medford, and will be in charge of the meeting.

Several teams are being formed here and in Ashland and smaller county towns, and it is believed a strong loop will be organized.

MIGRATORY BIRD STAMP SALE UP

Sale of migratory bird stamps at the Medford post office this year indicates a substantial increase in number of those hunting ducks and geese. According to Postmaster Frank DeSouza 677 stamps were sold this year, compared with 308 last year, an increase of 169 or 33 per cent. The hunting season, which ends today, brought good bags for most gunners, according to DeSouza, who said geese were much more plentiful this year.

SNOWMEN MAKE VISIT TO McDONALD BASIN

Eight members of the Rogue Snowmen visited McDonald Basin in last Sunday, living out ski runs for winter use, checking over the new chalet built by the forest service and laying in a supply of firewood. The chalet contains eight bunk beds and has a storm-proof door.

Those making the trip were Ken Denman and his son, Don; Harold Larson, Aubrey Norris, Mark Taylor, Frank Cello, Sammy Young and Hans Hoerlein.

HOT FORWARD WINS FOR LUTHERAN FIVE

Forest Grove, Ore., Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—Sig Sigurdson, Pacific Lutheran forward, got "hot" in the closing minutes and scored eight points last night in his team's victory over Pacific University, 49 to 35, in a basketball game.

BOZELL'S BOSTON CRAB MANEUVERS DEFEAT KENASTON

By the expert usage of the Boston crab hold, his favorite grappling maneuver, Paul Bozell defeated King Kong Clayton in the Medford armory last night for his fourth straight victory since returning to Medford.

Bozell's two falls came after Clayton had taken the first tumble of a hard-fought match, eight minutes after the opening bell. Punched around the ring and blinded by Bozell's eye-work in the clinches, the Negro flash suddenly cut loose with a series of dropkicks that flattened Bozell, then wound up the outburst with a shoulder stand for the fall.

Seven minutes later the erstwhile Black Dragon had his first fall. He roughed Clayton from pillar to post and when the time was ripe he grabbed his legs and flopped him over and bore down with the crab hold. Clayton was forced to give up, and to clinch things Bozell gave an extra lunge.

It was probably that extra lunge that enabled Bozell to end things a short time later, for when the gong rang for the third fall King Kong was in such bad shape that Paul had little trouble in finishing the match. He came out and pounded Clayton across his aching back. After five blows to Clayton's back the latter was ready for the payoff and Bozell gave it to him in the form of another crab hold.

The match was extremely rough, with Bozell pouring it on and Clayton, evidently bewildered by such tactics, being fairly easy prey for the bad boy. Only once did the Negro take control, in the first ten minutes of the match. After that it was all Bozell.

Bobby Chick, returning to Medford after a two year absence, garnered two straight falls from Bob Kenaston of Gold Hill. He got his first pin in the third round with a reverse jackknife, and won the match in the fourth round on a foul, when Kenaston refused to stop a terrific and foul body attack.

Kenaston raved and ranted in the ring long after Chick had gone to the dressing room, but Referee Earl Yoakley stood pat on his decision and Kenaston accepted for a fine, large booby at the hands of the crowd.

Eddie Rogers took two out of three falls from Herb Parks in the opener, in a great scientific match. Rogers gained the first fall in the second round with a body slam, Parks came back in the fourth round to even the score with a series of dropkicks and a body press, and Rogers took the deciding fall in the fifth with an alligator clutch.

Portland, Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—A new interscholastic league extending from Astoria to Hood River may be considered at the annual Oregon High School Athletic association meeting late this month.

The proposed league would include Astoria, The Dalles, Rainier, Scappoose, Hood River, Hill Military Academy and Columbia Prep school.

Hill and Columbia were dropped from the Big Nine league recently.

'SKULLDUGGERY' IN MINOR LOOPS, SAYS BRAMHAM

Small Leagues Sinful, Is Assertion—Magnates Make Large Talk, No Deals.

By Gayle Talbot Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—In the absence of any real news, the hero of the minor league and major league baseball convention here will have to remain Judge William G. Bramham, the czar of the little fellows, who at the last account at least was viewing with alarm.

The minor league chieftain spoke loud and importantly late yesterday, saying there was skullduggery within his kingdom in the form of fake contracts, and that baseball faced some bad days indeed.

No one, as a matter of fact, was very much excited over whether Judge Bramham had or had not discovered some fact work inside his organization, but his remarks at least offered a diversion. His report upon the sad state of affairs in baseball—the boys for the time being to forget that the big leaguers still had made no trades.

Judge Supplies News They still are here—all of them—and they have been jawing since Saturday. One lobby is full of magnates and rich, blue cigar smoke. Potentially there might be a baseball player deal every 15 minutes, the way they talk. But they make no trades, whatsoever, and Judge Bramham supplies the news.

One interesting thing was the disclosure of General Manager Larry MacPhail of the Brooklyn Dodgers that he had at one time offered $200,000 cash for Joe Medwick of the St. Louis Cardinals. MacPhail, incidentally, said he still had that much money waiting for Medwick.

Tells of Fake Contracts Judge Bramham—to get back to the most exciting man of the meeting—said he knew one club "owned by a millionaire" that was paying its players a lot more than the figures called for on the contracts sent into him. He said this was sinful and that, furthermore, Judge Landis probably would catch on to it and punish the sinners. It is surprising what a bluff Landis has on baseball in general. Sometimes they wonder why they hired the little gray-haired man in Chicago. He's a terror.

TEXAS AGGIES TOP FOOTBALL POLL; VOLS, TROJANS FOLLOW

New York, Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—You can take your pick among Texas A. and M., Tennessee and Southern California as the nation's best 1939 football team, but right now the experts are picking the Aggies.

They completed their regular campaign last week with their tenth straight victory, while their two leading rivals have to play a couple of dangerous rivals Saturday before they can breathe easily, sit back and wait for bowl bids.

It may have been a wait-and-see attitude on the part of the football experts participating in the season's next-to-last Associated Press ranking poll that made them list the Aggies, Tennessee and Southern California in that order.

Texas A. and M., rated first by 28 of the 87 voters, polled 763 points of a possible 870. Tennessee, moved into second place with 19 first-place votes and 741 points, and the Trojans came in third with 18 firsts and 709 points.

The remarkably close call Southern California had against Washington last Saturday, winning 9-7 in the last two minutes of play, apparently influenced the experts considerably. A week ago, after their triumph over Notre Dame, the Trojans shared the lead with the Aggies. Tennessee was fourth last week, but bounced back again after its decisive victory over Kentucky.

Southern California's rival in the season's windup this week-end is U.C.L.A., and the rankings reflect the general forecast for the game—U.S.C. overcoming stubborn opposition to win. Tennessee faces Auburn, a possible upsetter, with its backfield starts, George (Bad News) Cagelo and Johnny Butler, injured.

The standings of the teams (points figured on 10-9-8, etc., basis, first-place votes in parentheses).

Teams	Points

2—Tennessee (18).....	741
3—Southern Cal. (18).....	709
4—Cornell (15).....	665
5—Tulane (5).....	572
6—Duke (1).....	307

GRID ATTENDANCE SHOWED INCREASE

New York, Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—The popularity of that well-known "triple threat"—a good game, a clear day and the popular-priced tickets—was reflected again this year in an increase in college football attendance.

Based on reports from 69 representative schools throughout the nation, an Associated Press survey today showed a 333-game attendance mark of 7,570,150 for 1939, compared with 7,489,785 for 341 games a year ago. That is a gain of barely one per cent for the entire country.

The far west showed a gain of 4 per cent, due largely to a grand U.C.L.A. team which drew about 400,000—the largest crowd to see any one team in the country. That includes an estimated 101,000 for next Saturday's game with Southern California.

Michigan's Game Take Lansing, Mich. (U.P.)—Michigan's 600,000 small game and deer hunters annually bring home wild meat with a butcher-shop value of nearly $3,000,000. The state conservation department estimates that 13,947,475 pounds of game are taken annually.

Accident Shot Rips Cap Off Pitcher

Fresno, Cal., Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—A shotgun blast tore a hole through the cap of Monte Pearson, New York Yankee's pitcher, but luckily a bump on the head was all he had to show for the hunting accident today.

Pearson and a 15-year-old Fresno high school baseball player were in a double blind. A flock of geese alighted nearby, and Pearson rose to fire at the moment the youth did likewise.

Pearson said the charge from the boy's gun pierced his cap and knocked it from his head.

SAN JOSE COMPLETING BOWL ARRANGEMENTS

San Jose, Cal., Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—Arrangements were virtually completed today for San Jose State college to play an unnamed eastern or mid-western opponent in an "Olympic bowl" football game in Los Angeles December 18.
