

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Drury Away—Allen B. Drury of 1009 South Oakdale avenue left yesterday by motorcar for Portland.

Convalescing—Mrs. Jim Rummel, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Owens, is slowly recuperating from an attack of the flu.

Inskip Ill—Dr. L. D. Inskip has been confined to his home at 2401 Hillcrest road with influenza. He plans to return to his office in the Medford Center building either tomorrow or Thursday.

Board to Meet—The State Real Estate board will convene next Monday morning at 9:30 in council chambers of the city hall. All applicants from southern Oregon should appear at that time for examinations.

Flue Fire—The chemical truck of the Medford fire department was called at 6:56 this morning to extinguish a flue fire at the home of C. T. Wake, 231 West Fifth street. No damage was done, firemen reported.

To Portland—Planning to leave tomorrow by motorcar for Portland are Mr. and Mrs. Emil Mohr and Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson. The group will attend the Oregon State Hotel association convention to be held for three days. Mr. Mohr is manager of the Hotel Medford.

Guard to Meet—National guard will hold regular drills this evening and Thursday evening at 8 in the Medford armory. The final phase of the seven-day field training will be held starting Friday afternoon at 4 in the armory and continuing until Sunday. Advanced field problems will be taken up in conformity with war department orders at the three-day session.

Plane Passengers—J. H. Biehn, going to San Francisco, boarded the forenoon southbound United Mainliner today. The early morning northbound plane due to arrive at the Medford airport at 4:52 today arrived at 11:30, the delay being due to poor weather conditions. There were no passengers. The scheduled Monday midnight plane was due to arrive here at 1 p. m. today. It was held in Portland because of fog. J. H. Biehn got off the Monday evening flagstop plane and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hampson were passengers of the Monday afternoon northbound ship. Mrs. L. L. Aubert boarded yesterday's forenoon southbound plane for Los Angeles. The early morning northbound plane flew over Medford because of fog conditions. Getting off the Sunday evening southbound plane here were S. W. Dwinell, W. S. Dwinell, E. A. Hewes and W. O. Lowrey. Boarding the same plane were G. Mark for Los Angeles and Miss Mary Gail Konkel to San Francisco.

Kincaid Better—W. B. Kincaid, service manager for the Chevrolet Motor company, who has been seriously ill in Sacred Heart hospital, is reported by his attending physician to be slowly improving. Mr. Kincaid, whose residence is in Central Point, entered the hospital on November 8. He has been suffering from pneumonia.

New Building—Kay Marshall and Marshall-Smith-Leonard applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a new building at 20-26 South Fir street at a stated cost of $16,000. Charles Niedrich of 34 Willamette avenue applied for a permit to make an addition to a dwelling at a stated cost of $150.

Home for Visit—Allen H. Dodge of 1108 Niantic street, son of Allen H. Dodge, has arrived home on a ten-day furlough to visit relatives and friends. Dodge enlisted in the army July 28, was assigned to the hospital in Vancouver Barracks, Wash., and has been appointed a private first class. Frederick V. Buckner, 303 Beatty street, enlisted August 19. Both boys graduated from the local high school last year.

Well-Baby Clinic—Monthly well-baby clinic will be held in the Sparrow county courthouse from 1:30 to 4 p. m. Thursday. Dr. A. E. Merkel, county health officer, will be in charge. He will be assisted by Elizabeth McCalliard, county nurse. Parents are requested to telephone 1359 for appointment. The health department emphasized that the clinic is for well babies only, as the name implies. No babies having colds or coughs will be admitted, parents were counseled.

Play Try-Outs—Try outs for four one-act plays to be presented in January at the Holly theater will be held Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week in room 212 in the Medford Center building. The room was formerly the Shakespearean Festival headquarters. Try outs have been called by Angus Bowmer, drama director of the Southern Oregon College of Education and widely known in southern Oregon as a director. Mr. Bowmer will direct the series of plays. He pointed out that anyone interested is invited to try out and that acting experience is not necessary.

Minor Accidents—A car driven by Mrs. William H. Stinson of 706 South Riverside avenue struck a parked truck belonging to Albert C. Booth, on South Riverside avenue this morning, a report on file stated. Mrs. Stinson said she was forced into the truck by a passing car. W. M. Bergman of 24 Lincoln street and D. F. Newton of 513 Liberty street drove machines involved in a slight accident at Eighth and Bartlett streets this morning, according to a report on file. Cars operated by E. L. Ernst of Gold Hill and Al Brewer of Central Point were involved in a minor accident in the 200 block on North Riverside avenue this morning, according to a report on file.

Chicago Wheat, Chicago, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Wheat sold at $1 a bushel in the Chicago spot market today for the first time since March 3, 1938. Dollar wheat in the market where actual grain is bought and sold accompanied the sharpest upturn of futures prices here and at other world markets since the September war boom. Chicago wheat futures advanced almost three cents a bushel to their highest level in about two years. Prices at Winnipeg and Buenos Aires, the other principal world markets, were up even more. The upturn of wheat was associated with unfavorable crop reports from the United States and Argentine producing belts. (wheat) Open High Low Close Dec 94 94 94 94 May 90 90 92 92 July 88 90 87 90.

Wall St. Report, New York, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Aversions and speculators led a selective recovery in today's stock market. Gains, running to a point or so for favorites in the forenoon, were cut down in many instances in subsequent dealings and, at the close, numerous issues were unchanged or off moderately. Transfers for the full session were around 600,000 shares, or about half the volume necessary.

"Mr. Smith" Coming To Craterian

A home-spun youth suddenly and bewilderingly appointed to the United States senate, James Stewart immediately runs into trouble. Her name's Astrid Allyn, and she's Jean Arthur's romantic rival in Frank Capra's latest triumph, "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington," the much-discussed film opening a four-day showing tomorrow at the Craterian theater. Frank Capra's name has become synonymous with "guarantee" as far as film entertainment is concerned and this latest hit is no exception. Already it is known as the outstanding motion picture of the year and will undoubtedly win for Capra his fourth Academy award. The picture features, among others, Claude Rains, Edward Arnold, Guy Kibbee, Thomas Mitchell and Beulah Bondi.

Swing Band Heads Rialto Bill

Artie Shaw and his famous swing band, with Lana Turner, Richard Carlson and Ann Rutherford, bring to the screen of the New Rialto Theatre the year's hottest swing and jive show, "Dancing Co-Ed," which opens a three day run today. Based on swing the campus way, "Dancing Co-Ed" comes to the popular Main Street showhouse as one of the most eagerly looked-forward-to pictures of the season. "Missing Evidence," co-starring Preston Foster and Irene Hervey, plays as the companion feature with the Artie Shaw jamboree.

Geneva, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Soviet Russia, in the opinion expressed today in League of Nations circles, faces the choice of quitting the league, or being thrown out. These quarters took one or the other eventually for granted after the Finnish appeal Sunday for action to "check the aggression" of the Soviet union and yesterday's demand from Argentina and Uruguay for immediate ejection of the U.S.R.

Oslo, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Norway's foreign minister, Halvdan Koht, today called a conference for Thursday of Scandinavian foreign ministers to discuss the ominous situation growing out of the Russian-Finnish conflict. Issuing invitations to foreign ministers, Richard Sander of Sweden and Peter Munch of Denmark, Koht emphasized the earnest Scandinavian desire to re-establish peace in northern Europe. Any speculation the three nations might take a stronger stand in support of Finland, however, was promptly discouraged by a statement of Prime Minister Thovald Stauning of Denmark that his nation would maintain neutrality.

Portland, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Opening of the Christmas movement to the east suggested considerable activity in the turkey market today. Little was done in the consumers' trade and there was no price changes. San Francisco, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Net prices paid producers for live poultry delivered San Francisco: turkeys, young toms, under 18 lbs., 17c; 18 lbs. and over, 16 1/2-17c; young hens, 21-22c.
