Place Changed—Oregon Real Estate board examinations to be held here next Monday will take place in the city hall instead of the armory as was previously scheduled. Examinations will begin at 9:30 a. m. The board consists of W. B. Shively and W. H. Ross, Portland, Lowell Williamson, LaGrande, and Carl Y. Tengwald, Medford. Claude H. Murphy, real estate commissioner, is chairman of the board and will assist in conducting the examinations. In order to conform with the new real estate law, approximately 450 brokers and salesmen are required to submit to examination before obtaining 1940 licenses. Similar examinations will be held in Eugene at 1:30 Tuesday at the city hall.

Heading Rialto Double Bill

Elmer Gantry, the famous blind horse who jumps steeplechase hurdles with all the courage and sureness of a well-trained and sure-sighted hunter, is the chief actor in "Pride of The Bluegrass," which heads the double bill coming to the New Rialto theatre for Sunday and Monday. James McCallion, popular young star, is jockey and trainer for Gantry in the heart-

Coming To Craterian Sunday

A smart get-together of romance and revelry with a top-rating cast headed by Tyrone Power and Linda Darnell, the new "find" who made her bow in "Hotel For Women," comes to the Craterian theatre Sunday with the opening of "Day-time Wife," which will show three days. The carryings-on of a husband who goes whistling under the wrong balcony (his secretary's) and a perfect wife who rests on her oars (but not for long), "Day-time Wife" is a hilarious, modern version of the old gag—"Sorry, dear, but I have some work to do at the office tonight." Blinnie Barnes, Warren William, Wendy Barrie and Joan Davis are featured.

Texas Sheriff

As a fighting sheriff, Charles Starrett halts a desperate cattleman's war against sheep-raisers in "Texas Stampede," which comes to the Roxy theatre for tomorrow only. Iris Meredith is his leading lady. Episode number 13 of the "Flying G-Men" serial will play on the same program.
