Billy Hulen says:

Predictions For 1939 Sports Year Run Hot And Cold

Messing around today in what passes for our files, we ran across a "colyum" done on the 31st day of December, 1938.

As we are not in the habit of hoarding our alleged literary efforts, it was with considerable misgivings that we dragged it from a conglomeration of this and that, which will never be of any use to us.

Immediately our worst suspicions were realized, for it was that out-on-a-limb thing we penned on the last day of last year, that glimpse-into-the-future pillar wherein we attempted to put the finger on a lot of sports results for this year of 1939.

Reading that piece now, when the current year is on its last legs and the 1939 sports parade is practically at an end, we are overcome with mixed emotions. For some of those predictions are masterpieces of insight, in reverse, while others are—well, we are modest and all that, but some of them are pretty nifty, if we do say so.

For instance, and all that follows in quotes are the predictions:

"They can't stop them Yanks, who will blast their way to another American league pennant and whip the Cincinnati Reds in the world series." That's not bad calling, sub. nor is this: "In the Southern Oregon league, Medford will repeat its flag hoisting ceremonies." Nor this: "Nobody will bust Babe Ruth's homer record of 50. Dizzy Dean won't be of much use to the Cubs. Bob Feller will go great guns for the Cleveland Indians."

On the other hand, look at these screwy baseball predictions: "Paul Dean will make a great comeback with the Cardinals, Lefty Grove's arm will still bother him and he won't win over 10 games for the Red Sox, Freddy Hutchinson will star for Detroit." And, the crowning insult to our prognosticating prowess: "In the Pacific Coast league, Portland will grab the championship." Well, that's right, we guess, for the Beavers did win the loop bunting (cellar variety).

Our fling at the boxing future was no better than at the national pastime, as witness: "Joe Louis will lick John Henry Lewis and retain the heavyweight title. Lou Nova will wallop Maxie Baer and Tony Galento." The latter was half right, anyway, but this next one was 100 per cent off: "Armstrong will lick Ambers again." Lou turned the tables on Hammerin' Hank, despite many squawks from Armstrong's camp.

In basketball, we must submit to the laurels being placed on our cranium. Read 'em and weep: "Medford's Tigers will grab off the district 9 championship and finish one-two in the state tournament. Oregon's

Kenny Washington Gets Most Votes for All-Coast Eleven

Webfoots will win the northern division crown of the Pacific Coast conference, and in the playoff series with the southern winner, will become conference champs." The Tigers, you remember, were runners-up for the state crown, and Oregon certainly copped the coast title, along with the national championship. We just didn't carry the Webfoots far enough.

In football, some predictions were good and some were werra, werra bad. "Klamath Falls will finally win itself a Southern Oregon conference championship, by virtue of beating Medford in a stupendous battle in Klamath Falls." Not so good, that, but the Pelicans did get a half interest in the championship, although they didn't beat Medford, only tied them.

But, look at this one: "Southern California will once more win the coast conference crown, with Oregon State's Beavers in second place." When the Trojans beat UCLA tomorrow, that's exactly the way the coast one-two teams will line up. "Oregon will be a disappointment, because of a weak line; Jimmy Phelan will again be on the pan at Washington, and Tiny Thornhill will move out at Stanford after a bad year." Well, Oregon wasn't a disappointment and it certainly didn't have a weak line; Phelan was on the pan for awhile but it looks like he has got off, and Thornhill is through, no doubt of that.

Saving the best for the last, here is what we call some stupendous long-range predicting: "Other sports happenings of the year will see Australia lift the Davis cup from America, Don Budge beat Ellsworth Vines in the majority of their pro tennis matches, Eddie Simmons repeat his victory in the Southern Oregon-Northern California golf tournament here, California crew beat Washington and win at Poughkeepsie, professional football come to the coast in earnest, softball enjoy another big year in Medford, and nobody run 100 yards in 9 seconds."

Seattle, Dec. 8.—(P)—Coach Jimmy Phelan will be at the helm of the University of Washington football machine next year.

This was the assumption on the Washington campus today when Director of Athletics Ray Eckmann admitted he planned to confer during the day with Phelan.

Campus observers assume the meeting could mean but one thing—that a new contract would be negotiated.

Indications are that Phelan will be offered a one-year contract at probably a lower salary than he now receives. Under a new university rule an athletic coach cannot receive a higher salary than a dean, which is about $7,000.

Kisselburgh, Schultz, Stuart Named — Trojans Win Two Posts; Broncs Two.

San Francisco, Dec. 8.—(P)—Kenny Washington, U.C.L.A. halfback whose phenomenal playing this season brought him the admiration of teammates and opponents alike, polled the largest number of votes to easily take first place in the Associated Press' 15th annual All-Pacific coast football eleven.

Washington, 6-foot-1 Negro, received 46 first-place votes in selection of the 1939 all-star team, a consensus of the choices of 53 of the west's top coaches, game officials and sports writers. He also was on the 1938 eleven.

Smith Repeats

Harry Smith, 211-pound Southern California guard, was second with 45 votes. He, too, was a member of the mythical 1938 squad.

Two men each were chosen from the Universities of Southern California, California at Los Angeles, Santa Clara and Oregon State and one apiece from Oregon, Washington and California.

GEE WALKER GOES TO SENATORS IN BASEBALL TRADE

By Judson Bailey

Cincinnati, Dec. 8.—(P)—Gee Walker, the Chicago White Sox outfielder, who a couple of months ago was bellowing for a recount, is going where they really know what the word means—Washington.

In a midnight maneuver that topped the previously feeble trading efforts of the mid-winter baseball meeting, the pale horse sent him to the Senators for outfielder Taft Wright and pitcher Pete Appleton.

The deal was the answer of the Chicago management to the anguished cries of Walker concerning his bonus arrangement with the club last year.

Except for this consideration and the possibility that it was the forerunner of another transaction, the deal did not make sense.

Chicago has been seeking a right-handed hitting outfielder and instead got a left-handed batter. The club gave up an experienced 30 year old slugger who batted in 111 runs last season, his poorest in six years, for a frequent but not timely hitter and a 35-year-old pitcher who only once in his long service with five major league clubs ever won more than eight games in a season.
