

103,300 Fans See Mighty Trojans Held to Scoreless Tie by Uclans

TROY POWERHOUSE MEETS ITS MATCH IN FIERCE GAME

Bruins March 78 Yards In Scoring Threat — Negro Back Star Of Battle.

Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Dec. 9.—(AP)—The University of California-at-Los Angeles all but wrecked the Southern California Rose Bowl special today, but the Cardinal and Gold of Troy moved on to the Pasadena post-season classic after a furious two-hour battle with the Uclans that ended in a scoreless tie.

The result left the University of Southern California with two ties against its record, and the Bruins of UCLA with three in Pacific coast conference play and one outside battle.

The formality of the conference naming USC as its representative in the Rose Bowl was to be attended to later.

A record-breaking crowd of 103,300 spectators, the most who ever saw a football game west of the Mississippi, watched the two home-town adversaries struggle on near-even terms throughout the game.

The favored Trojan machine, geared for an uninterrupted march to the Rose Bowl for the second straight year, made one mighty scoring effort in the first period, and the Pulsant Blue of UCLA brought the roaring crowd to its feet with a 78-yard thrust in the final quarter.

Between whistles, the two undefeated teams tore into each other like unacquainted wild cats—yet only one serious penalty was called. It was a clipping foul ruled against USC.

For once, the yardstick accurately measured the ability of the two elevens. The Trojans made 11 first downs and the Uclans, with Halfback Kenny Washington turning in a brilliant 60 minute game, had ten. USC had an edge in yards gained, but the Trojans found a line as big and tough as their own in this Bruin forward wall.

Gathered under skies bright one moment and cloudy the next, the huge throng saw the Trojan powerhouse start off with a bang. With Quarterback Grenville Lansdell in the driver's seat, S. C. moved inside the Uclans 25 yard stride. UCLA held for downs, took over on its own 22—and then Washington fumbled on the 28.

Bob Peoples made five, Lansdell passed for four, and soon Peoples banked his way to the Bruin 11. Lansdell then took the ball, crashed over the battered right side of the Bruin line and as he reached the five he was tackled from behind. The ball flew out of his hands and over the goal line. That was the only scoring threat of an SC team figured to down the Bruins by a convincing margin.

The second and third periods rattled off quickly, but neither squad could get into scoring position.

Late in the last frame, after Doyle Nave had maneuvered the Trojans into Bruin territory, the UCLA lads took the ball on their own 20.

Jackie Robinson, Washington's halfback teammate, reeled off 13 and Kenny added ten more. Fullback Leo Cantor added a yard and the Bruins crossed the midfield stripe, on Washington's 18-yard pass to End Don MacPherson.

The tired Trojans couldn't stop the Bruins. Washington added 12 yards with another flip to Robinson, and from the 20 passed to Strode for five and first down. Another pass went for five, to Ned Mathews, and Washington went through the line for 3 to the Trojan seven. Cantor barged over the Trojan right tackle for four, and Cantor carried it to the two. Here the Trojans fought off the thrust. Washington was stopped cold and Cantor was knocked back to the four. On fourth down, Washington's pass over the goal line was knocked down by Bob Robertson, SC halfback.

In the dying moments of the game the Uclans came back across the neutral stripe, but a desperate pass by Washington was intercepted and the game ended soon after.

TENNESSEE WINS OVER AUBURN, 7-0, BUTLER SPARKLES

Now Wait For Rose Bowl Bid — Tiny Halfback Sparks Way To Victory.

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 9.—(AP)—Tennessee's orange-shirted Volunteers, a touchdown-tight team if there ever was one, climaxed a spectacular gridiron campaign today with a 7 to 0 triumph over an Auburn team that gave its all—but not enough.

The Rose bowl, an elusive honor for the gridgers who have fought under the direction of that old army strategist, Major Bob Neyland, hung in the balance as a gallant defensive Tennessee team, which knew what to do and how to do it to win, crashed through to its 23rd straight triumph and waited for an expected invitation.

As the color-capped Tennessee band whipped into a jazz-jittery presentation of "California, Here I Come," while a gathering of 20,000 witnessed the climax to a thoroughly-convinced season, the expected invitation to Pasadena's tournament of roses was apparently only a matter of course.

The sophomore sensation, slender Johnny Butler, sparked the payoff victory for the second-strangers, who have borne the brunt all season of a Tennessee team that capitalized on opportunities.

Tennessee "felt out" the Tigers in a drab first period, but, apparently realizing that points were needed to gain a claim to the Southeastern conference championship and a clinch on the Rose bowl, a second team was rushed in and produced dividends.

Butler dropped back to fake a pass. He wheeled wide to his left, feigned a forward toss just back of the line of scrimmage, dodged a would-be tackler and then tucked the pigskin under his arm and raced, ahead. Momentarily checked at the 25, he squirmed out of a trio of tackles and sprinted for a touchdown.

That touchdown might easily be termed an $85,000 scoring jaunt. For Tennessee just a few days ago turned down an invitation that carried that offer for the undefeated, untied and unscored on Volunteers to play in the Cotton bowl.

Auburn's greatest threat came on a 61-yard drive that penetrated to Tennessee's 29.

Supporting matches to the main go and the women's exhibition will see Bobby Chick meeting Eddie Rogers and Bob Kenaston grappling Leo Mortensen, brother of Clara. A coin will be flipped to see which of the pair open the card.

Portland, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Jefferson high school footballers, Portland interscholastic league champions, defeated an all-star eleven today, 13-0, in a milk fund benefit game.

A crowd of 8928 attended the encounter which was played on a muddy field.

Husky Coach Signs. Seattle, Dec. 9.—(AP)—University of Washington Football Coach Jimmy Phelan and Athletic Director Ray Eckmann conferred again today over a new contract, but deferred an agreement and signing of Phelan's contract until a meeting next week. Phelan's existing contract expires December 31.

Klamath Bowlers Coming. Four bowling teams from Klamath Falls, including one feminine aggregation, will visit Medford this afternoon to tangle with local pin-upsetters. Firing will start at 1:30. Medford teams which will bowl include the Active club, M. and M. and Medford alleys. Matches will be on the team, singles and doubles basis.

METHODISTS DOWN RICE WITH EASE

Dallas, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Oft beaten Rice Institute took one more punch on the chin today, Southern Methodist landing a 13-6 wallop, but it came within six inches of being surprisingly great.

The big blue and grey machine picked to lead the south-west conference chase was imbedded in the cellar after today's closing game, not a circuit victory on the books.

Runs and passes netted Rice 205 yards to the 118 gained by Southern Methodist on running plays only, but the big Rice line permitted Methodist charges in the fourth period to permit a blocked kick that made all the statistics go by the board.

For the third time this season, all in crucial spots, sophomore end Roland Goss of Southern Methodist charged in and hurled his flying body against Olle Cordill's kicking leg. The ball bounded down to the eight, center Ray Pope picked it up and ran for the clinching touchdown.

Between whistles, the two undefeated teams tore into each other like unacquainted wild cats—yet only one serious penalty was called. It was a clipping foul ruled against USC.

LADY GRAPPLERS ON ARMORY CARD PROMISE THRILLS

It won't be ladies' night, in the sense that feminine grappling fans will be admitted free, but the Medford armory will probably be jammed to the rafters tomorrow evening with members of the fair sex anxious to witness Miss Clara Mortensen, world's woman lightweight champion, return to match arm and headlocks, and maybe some hair-pulling, with Gladys Nolan, a capable blonde miss from Kansas City.

The two gals, positive top-notchers in the wrestling industry, female division, will face off for 45 minutes or the best two out of three falls. They'll go to work between the semi-windup and the main event, and if the match is anything like those others in which Miss Mortensen has taken part in here, the fur will fly and the customers will receive more than their money's worth.

The woman champ is really a fine grappler. She has met and defeated the best in the country, and in Miss Nolan she expects to face one of her most dangerous opponents. The latter, weighing 140 pounds, has been a consistent challenger for La Mortensen's title, and although this won't be a championship match it will furnish Miss Nolan the opportunity of obtaining a large measure of satisfaction by defeating the crown-wearer.

Topping the four-play program will be King Kong Clayton and Paul Bozell tussling in a rematch from their grueling struggle of last week, when Bozell broke through the Negro's defense to whip on a couple of Boston crabs and win the match. Clayton asked for another chance at the powerful ex-Black Dragon and the latter agreed.

Supporting matches to the main go and the women's exhibition will see Bobby Chick meeting Eddie Rogers and Bob Kenaston grappling Leo Mortensen, brother of Clara. A coin will be flipped to see which of the pair open the card.

HOSTAK READIES FOR SEELIG BOUT

Cleveland, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Promoter Mike Jacobs will get his first glimpse of middleweight champion Al Hostak of Seattle in action Monday night. Hostak meets Eric Seelig of New York in a 10-round title go, and Jacobs has reserved seats.

Ed Bang, matchmaker, said the New York promoter is eager to arrange a championship bout between Hostak and Ceterino Garcia, Filipino "bolo puncher" recognized as middleweight king by the New York boxing commission.

Promoter Nate Druxman of Seattle, credited with "bringing Hostak up," has signed Seelig to meet Hostak in a return bout at Seattle within 90 days, just in case the New York German should take the tiara here.

The rugged Hostak received an airplane shipment of water from Seattle today, ordered after the fighter complained that Cleveland's water did not agree with him.

In another title bout on Monday's card, welterweight king Henry Armstrong faces Jimmy Garrison of Kansas City.

S.O.C.E. Wins. Ashland, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Although Lowerie, Dairyman center, was high with six points, the Southern Oregon College of Education quintet beat Lost River Dairy, 21-19.

Rubenstein Beaten. Salem, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Williamette came back after a poor showing Wednesday against Oregon State and beat the star-studded Rubenstein Oregonians, 44 to 42, last night. Laddie Gale was high scorer with 14 for Rubenstein.

Mound Ace Plays. Vancouver, Wash., Dec. 9.—(AP)—Freddie Hutchinson's presence wasn't quite enough to put the Sick's Select Stars of Seattle over in a basketball game with Clark county coaches last night. The Stars, with the famous young pitcher scoring five points, were beaten, 55-53.

ARMSTRONG FIRM TO FIGHT MONDAY

Cleveland, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Henry Armstrong, world's welterweight boxing champion, said today he would go through with his Monday title fight here with Jimmy Garrison of Kansas City, in spite of a warning from the New York state athletic commission.

The New York board, which decided to take no action until after the fight, probably will consider his suspension then.

The Negro titlist will box on the Cleveland News Christmas fund card, which also includes a world's championship bout between Al Hostak of Seattle, middleweight king, and Eric Seelig of New York.

Informed the New York board had refused him permission, Armstrong said: "I'll have to fight on my own permission."

Game Approved. Roanoke, Va., Dec. 9.—(AP)—The University of Southern California football team was balloted into the Rose Bowl for the second consecutive year, C. V. Ruzek, president of the Pacific Coast conference, announced tonight.

Ruzek, following conference policy, did not disclose how the faculty representatives of the 10 conference schools voted, but stated that the choice "was decisive."

Lateness on the part of a few of the schools in balloting in the telegraphic vote delayed the announcement about two hours from the time the first vote was received, Ruzek said. He mentioned that the vote of U.C.L.A., only other unbeaten conference team, was "one of the last to arrive."

The voting conference members were U.S.C., U.C.L.A., Stanford, California, Oregon.

TENNESSEE WILL PLAY TROJANS IN ROSE BOWL GAME

Coast Conference Choice is 'Decisive'—Uclans Last Team To Cast Ballot.

Los Angeles, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Tennessee and Southern California will clash in the twenty-fifth consecutive Rose bowl football game January 1.

Director of Athletics Willis O. Hunter of U. S. C. announced formally tonight that undefeated, untied and unscored upon Tennessee had accepted an invitation to meet the twice tied Trojans in the Pasadena post-season classic.

The coveted bid and acceptance were consummated within a short time after the Pacific Coast conference had notified U. S. C. it had named as the host school for the big game. Tennessee's selection came as no surprise.

Corvallis, Ore., Dec. 9.—(AP)—The University of Southern California football team was balloted into the Rose Bowl for the second consecutive year, C. V. Ruzek, president of the Pacific Coast conference, announced tonight.

Oregon State, Washington, Washington State, Idaho and Montana.

This will be Southern California's sixth Rose Bowl game. The Trojans previously defeated Penn State at Pasadena in 1923, Pittsburgh in 1930, Tulane in 1932, Pittsburgh in 1933 and Duke last year. They have never lost a Rose Bowl game.

The three-pledge U.S.C. squad of this season was tied twice, by Oregon in its first game of the season, 7-7, and by U.C.L.A. today in its last, 0-0. Between those deadlocks the Trojans won seven games. U.C.L.A., only possible disputant of Troy's right to the bowl selection, was undefeated but had been tied three times in the conference and once outside.

Ruzek, member of the Oregon State college faculty, ordered the schools to vote by telegram after today's U.S.C.-U.C.L.A. game.

All Quiet. Paris, Dec. 9.—(AP)—The French army high command reported a fruitless German raid today in an otherwise quiet day on the western front.

Extradition Delayed. Salem, Ore., Dec. 9.—(AP)—Extradition of John Hellman, charged in Washington with second-degree kidnaping, was delayed today by a writ of habeas corpus served on Governor Charles A. Sprague.

Dividend Declared. Chicago, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Directors of the Carnation company today declared an extra dividend of $1.00 per share on the common stock payable December 19 to stockholders of record December 15.
