High School News by Student Reporters

Report cards for the second six weeks of the semester ending January 19, were handed out December 6.

The seniors led the second six weeks honor roll with two more members than the closely following sophomores who placed 13. The Juniors were last with 8.

The office released the following list: Seniors—Alice Allen, Margaret Ash, Marybeth Bradford, Gerry Bunch, Jean Jennings, Ann Luman, Audrey Price, Lillian Newton, Dorothy Wilder, Durrell Adams, Eugene Ash, Lloyd Colbaugh, Walter Enders, Dick Finch, and Ned Lyman.

Juniors—Elmer Bashaw, Betty Brown, Barton Clemens, Carlton Fanger, Jean Henselman, Bill Holberton, Lois Pringle, and Jean Woolridge.

Torch Honor Society held regular monthly meeting Dec. 4. A complete revision of the club's constitution was favored by unanimous vote.

Lloyd Colbaugh was appointed chairman and Ned Lyman and Barbara Franklin, members of a committee to draw up a new club document.

The Torch will obtain possession of the candy sales concession for one week to enable them to pay for their page in this year's annual.

A special feature for this week is announcement of the winners in the ping pong tournament. In the beginners' finals, Jean Lillie met Barbara Randolph, with Jean Lillie taking the title. For the advanced players' finals, Pat Dippel, Savella Davidson, June Kincaid, and Dorothy Cyr, paired off, with June Kincaid emerging victorious and making her the champion of the advanced girl players. Savella Davidson won the consolation honors from Pat Dippel.

Shuffleboard practice has begun with practices held this week. A large number of girls have signed up but more are asked to participate. Volleyball has been active for the past two weeks with a tournament to start this week. Girls still have a chance to earn at least five points in this tournament.

All members and prospective members of the Girls' Athletic association are reminded that points may be made by hiking, bicycling, or skating.

Amo will leave for their new property soon. Immunizations for smallpox and diphtheria were given at the Gold Hill school December 11 by the county health officer.

The Grange Live Oak Grange had an interesting meeting December 4. The "hobo" lunch was quite a success. Worthy lecturer, sister Greenwood had an interesting program, especially one rousing number, a song by Frank Greenwood, George Hutchins and Frank Hall.

Next meeting will be our Christmas party. Members are to bring gifts for the Grange instead of individuals. The pie social December 1 was well attended and we wish to thank all who took part in the program and evening.

The clash, marking the first appearance of a college team here in two years, will be played in the senior high gymnasium. A preliminary tilt between Ingle's Cowboys of Ashland, last year's district A. A. U. champs and the Lewis Super Service team of Medford, will start at 7:30 sharp.

The Lost River club will take the floor with a galaxy of former college and high school stars studing its lineup. Bill Hoxie and Darrell Leavens, ex-SONS players, will hold down the forward berths. At center will be Paul Lowery, member of last year's Medford high quintet, Charlie Warren, ex-Ashland high flash and George Harrington, former Linfield college luminary, will take care of the guard positions.

Other members of the Lost River squad, which held Southern Oregon College of Education to a two-point win last Friday night, include Billy Piche, Vern Pointer, Jess Barton and Dick Porterfield.

Pacific will hit town with what is expected to be its finest team in years, one boasting four regulars from last season's Northwest conference runners-up.

Champaign, Ill., Dec. 12.—(AP) The best college football in the nation was played on the Pacific coast this season, according to the systematic ratings of Frank Dickinson, University of Illinois professor.

Dickinson, originator of the Dickinson system of rating grid elevens, ranked Southern California as the top team and the west coast as the number one section.

On a 30-point basis, the Trojans had a point rating of 25.73, followed by Texas A. and M., 25.43; Cornell, 25.28; Tulane, 23.61; Tennessee, 22.97; Notre Dame, 22.59; Michigan, 22.50; Duke, 22.34; Missouri, 22.39; U.C.L.A., 21.91, and Iowa, 21.02.

ARMSTRONG AND AL HOSTAK WIN CHARITY BOUTS

By Larry Hauck. Cleveland, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Today is Henry Armstrong's 27th birthday and the world's welterweight boxing champion was something to celebrate.

Last night Henry returned to the form that won him his big following and the nickname "Hammerin' Hank," as he pounded Jimmy Garrison of Kansas City to the floor in the seventh round for a technical knockout.

Al Hostak, the Seattle slugger, retained his world's middleweight crown by flattening Eric Seelig of New York in the first round.

The Armstrong and Hostak bouts topped the 14th annual Cleveland News Christmas show that attracted 10,988 fans, grossed $28,578 and dumped approximately $10,000 into a toyshop fund.

Garrison held Armstrong fairly even in the first two rounds of their scheduled 10-round title bout with jabbing lefts. In the seventh, Armstrong dropped Jimmy with a right for a nine and then waded in with both hands as Garrison arose. Jimmy went down again at 1:19 and Referee Benny Leonard said "enough."

Armstrong weighed 138 1/2 and Garrison 141. Hostak, the National Boxing association champion, knocked out Seelig in 1:21 of their scheduled 15-rounder.

In the dressing room, Seelig termed the westerner the "hardest puncher I ever faced." Hostak weighed 159; Seelig 160.

Manager Eddie Mead said Armstrong's next fight would be against Pedro Montanez of Puerto Rico in New York, January 24.

PACIFIC-DAIRYMEN IN HOOP OPENING WEDNESDAY NIGHT Basketball makes its 1939-40 debut in Medford Wednesday night when Coach Pete Miller's Pacific university team from Forest Grove, members of the Northwest conference, come here to tangle with the Lost River Dairy quintet, one of southern Oregon's most powerful independent outfits.

The clash, marking the first appearance of a college team here in two years, will be played in the senior high gymnasium. A preliminary tilt between Ingle's Cowboys of Ashland, last year's district A. A. U. champs and the Lewis Super Service team of Medford, will start at 7:30 sharp.

The Lost River club will take the floor with a galaxy of former college and high school stars studing its lineup. Bill Hoxie and Darrell Leavens, ex-SONS players, will hold down the forward berths.
