

PLEA BY DAHACK SLATED SATURDAY

Irwin Dahack, charged with illegal possession of deer meat, was granted until next Saturday morning to enter a plea by Justice of the Peace William R. Coleman. Dahack will be represented by Attorney Tom Enright.

The venison involved is the 187 pounds, confiscated by the state police in a search of the quarters occupied by Dahack, and his brother Zera, in the upper Lake Creek district. Zera Dahack contested the seizure and was killed in a gun battle with the state police.

U. of W. Students Here for Holidays

University of Washington students started arriving here this morning for the annual Yule vacation.

Coming in on the train this morning were Miss Elaine Brophy and Jim Bayliss. Miss Brophy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Brophy of the Eagle Point road, is a senior good this year on the Seattle college campus and a member of Chi Omega sorority.

Expected to arrive here tomorrow are Warren Bayliss and Jim Henry. Jim is the son of Mr. Rupert Henry. The Bayliss boys will divide their vacation time between Medford and their home at Mount Crest ranch in Hill, Cal.

Russell Ulrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, will be late in coming home, as he has a job in Seattle during the holidays. He is expected to arrive here Christmas eve.

Harold and Donald Stanley, sons of Lieut. and Mrs. H. A. Stanley, are due to arrive here soon, as is Kenneth Scripser, son of the E. D. Scripser.

Dinner Party Fetes Mrs. J. P. Watkins

Mrs. J. P. Watkins was the guest of honor at a going away dinner party given at the home of her daughter, Miss Lottie Watkins, on West Main street Monday evening.

Guests included relatives and close friends of Mrs. Watkins: Mrs. R. S. Snyder, Della James and Horton Snyder, James and Theodore Daily, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snyder, Jr., Leo and Ruby Snyder, Mrs. Lydia Vincent and Dr. Susie V. Standard.

Mrs. Watkins left Medford Tuesday evening by train for Hermleigh, Texas, where she will spend the holidays and enjoy a family reunion with her brothers and sisters on Christmas Day.

K. P. Dance to Be Friday Event

The Knights of Pythias will entertain wives and friends with a hard times dance Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plates dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little PASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) denture powder on your plate. It's a real aid to thousands in holding such plates more firmly in place so that they feel more comfortable. PASTEETH checks bad "plate odor" (denture breath), because it's alkaline. Get PASTEETH at any drug store.

Wings Return Home From Extended Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wing returned to their Medford home yesterday after a five weeks' motor trip through 17 mid-west, eastern and southern states, during which they traveled 7,560 miles.

Highlight of the vacation was a visit to the home of John N. Garner, vice-president of the United States. Mr. Wing called at the Garner residence in Uvalde, Texas, to greet the vice-president and present him with a box of Comice pears. Mr. Wing said that Mr. Garner lauded former Oregon Governor Charles Martin and spoke highly of Charles McNary, Oregon U. S. senator.

In Kansas the Wings were the house guests of Mr. Wing's two sisters. In Claremore, Okla., they viewed the new Will Rogers memorial. They also spent an interesting time in New Orleans, Mississippi and Chicago.

They returned to Medford via the southern route, going by way of Reno and Lake Tahoe. Mr. Wing said that sunny weather prevailed during most of the trip and that they only saw snow once. He also said that he believes economic conditions in the states he visited are improving.

Seattle Woman Visits in City

Mrs. Maurice Littlejohn of Seattle arrived in Medford this morning by train to be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Trowbridge. Mrs. Littlejohn is Mrs. Trowbridge's niece.

Holt Home Scene Of Dinner Party

The Corning Court home of Dr. and Mrs. William P. Holt was the scene of a pleasant dinner party and bridge evening Tuesday.

Guests included members of the Tuesday evening bridge club. Lewis Ulrich and Mrs. V. E. Rolfe were awarded the card prizes. Twelve guests were present.

P. T. A. Activities

Jackson school P.T.A. will convene tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. James K. Hoey will lead a discussion on the National Parent-Teachers association.

The following members will give two-minute talks on these subjects: Mrs. Lyle Wilcox, "Children's Quarrels"; Mrs. Howard Coburn, "When Children Fail to Tell the Truth"; Mrs. Harry Olson, "Spiritual Training"; Mrs. Nina Carlon, "What P.T.A. Means to Members"; Mrs. Ivah Murray, "Cooperation Between Parents and Teachers."

Mrs. Gertrude Lorton's music students will present a program.

Kresses Score for High Bridge Points

Dr. A. F. W. Kresse and son Walt, Jr., tied with Mrs. George Coddling and Dr. Robert Coe for first place honors in the weekly contract bridge duplicate tournament held Tuesday evening in the Hotel Medford. The two teams rated scores of 30 1/2.

Second place went to Mrs. Kresse and Mrs. Gordon R. Green with rating points of 27 1/2.

Five tables of bridge were in play throughout the evening. Mrs. Kresse, director of the tournaments, pointed out today that all persons interested in playing in the weekly club are invited to attend.

D.A.R. Party Is Saturday Affair

Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will enjoy a Christmas party Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Volney Dixon, 526 West Tenth street.

An exchange of inexpensive gifts among the members will be a feature of the affair. Hostesses include Mesdames Glenn O. Taylor, H. C. Stratton, Richard McElhose and Frank Newman.

St. Mark's to Enjoy Party

St. Mark's Episcopal Guild will gather tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock in the parish house for an annual Christmas party. Luncheon will be followed by an exchange of gifts. Committee in charge includes Mesdames A. G. McMillan, Charles Clark and Oliver Gould.

NAZI BATTLESHIP BADLY BATTERED LIMPS INTO PORT

warship was seeking when the naval battle began, reached port at 10 a.m. with passengers shaken by the engagement they witnessed.

Some of the passengers still were incoherent today.

A short distance from the entrance to the harbor the Admiral Graf Spee rode.

Far into the night she lay at anchor, potential target of the guns of the cruisers Ajax and Achilles which were scarcely cool from yesterday's battle.

Damage Seen

Daylight permitted closer inspection of the Admiral Graf Spee's wounds—two large holes in the bridge area, another astern and a fourth at the bow, as well as slighter damage from shellfire along her starboard above the waterline, particularly in the engine room area.

The wounded crewmen remained aboard, except for two gravely injured seamen who were taken to a military hospital.

The decision on disposition of the dead was yet to be announced.

A silent, awed throng jammed police lines through the night, craning for a glimpse of the battered ship.

Montevideo officials said early this morning no steps had been taken toward internment of the Admiral Graf Spee.

The engagement—the greatest naval encounter of the war thus far—occurred within the American neutrality belt and much of it could be seen from the Uruguayan shore.

Started Yesterday

The Admiral Graf Spee touched off the battle when she came upon the cruiser Ajax just after dawn yesterday. The British warship was conveying the French merchantman Formosa from Brazil to Uruguay.

The German vessel rushed into battle, her heavy guns blazing. The French freighter slipped away to safety. The Ajax returned the German fire with her six-inch guns, momentarily repulsing the attacker and at the same time summoning the Achilles and Exeter.

Commodore H. H. Harwood of the Exeter was named by the British legation as the victorious commander.

The battle occurred 25 years to the month after the British admiral, Sir Doveton Sturdee caught German Admiral Van Spee's two armored cruisers, three light cruisers and three supply ships off the Falkland Islands near the southern tip of Argentina.

All but one of the German ships was sent to the bottom. That was on December 8, 1914, and the victory gave Britain undisputed command of main ocean routes for the rest of the World war.

BANKS RECEIVING FUNDS FOR FINNS

The amount of money contributed by Medford citizens for relief in Finland leaped from zero yesterday to a tidy $40.50 this afternoon, and a check of the three banks revealed that more was expected before closing time.

Contributions, the banks reported, ranged from $1 to $5, with all donors expressing their sympathy for the little nation, being invaded by Russia, and wishing they could contribute more.

The Finnish relief program is headed by former President Herbert Hoover, and all contributions may be turned in to any of the local banks, the First National Bank of Portland, Medford branch; the United States National Bank of Portland, Medford branch, or the Farmers and Fruitgrowers bank.

The closing hour for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings was determined by a poll of retail merchants. Mr. Adair related. This closing schedule, he emphasized, does not affect grocery stores or drug stores which have their own schedule of hours. Affected, Mr. Adair pointed out, are only those stores that ordinarily close at 5:30.

STORES OFFER AID TO LATE SHOPPERS

Majority of downtown stores will remain open evenings until 8:30 next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, to accommodate late Christmas shoppers, it was announced today by Charles Adair, chairman of the retail merchants committee of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce. The public was urged, however, to complete Christmas shopping early, whenever possible.
