AFTER taking a quick look at the sports news I'm just about "bowled over." It seems like most every team in the country is expecting a bid for a post-season game at the Rose Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, the Sugar Bowl, the Sun Bowl, the Orange Bowl—and I don't know how many others. From the looks of things, half the nation is going to spend New Year's Day in some sort of bowl—which rates better than being in their cups. However, it still means a wholesale headache for only half the teams can win. Because of this there will be more good alms on January 2nd than the combined nations of Europe have used since the beginning of the present war—if you can name a beginning.

YAKIMA APPLES MAY GET LOWER FREIGHT RATES

Saving To Growers of Million Dollars Seen in Efforts Traff Assn. Man.

Yakima, Wash., Dec. 18.—(AP)—Reuben Benz, who on behalf of the Yakima Traffic & Credit association has been waging a one-man battle for lower freight rates for northwest apples, this noon reported to his Yakima associates that reductions of about half of the original demands now appear certain. Judging by past experiences, this reduction will represent of saving to the growers of at least a million dollars, he said.

"The transcontinental freight bureau, by a majority vote of nine members, denied the shipper's petition," Benz reported. "Subsequently the four northern lines originating the tonnage in question—the Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Milwaukee and Union Pacific—joined in giving notice of their intention to publish lower rates to be effective in the territory they service."

"This notice is now in the hands of the transcontinental freight bureau, which has the right of appeal to the western traffic executive committee."

"No action was taken in regard to northwest pears but there is time yet to seek reductions there."

Under the rate proposed by the northern lines, the freight from the Wenatchee and Yakima valleys to the Chicago and St. Louis territory would be 95 cents a hundred and to Minneapolis and the southwest 90 cents a hundred. The Denver territory rate would be 80 cents a hundred.

Prize Fighter

John Payne stars opposite Jane Wyman in "Kid Nightingale", which comes to the New Rialto Theatre for tomorrow and Wednesday as the added feature with "Two Bright Boys", starring Jackie Cooper and Freddie Bartholomew.

"Kid Nightingale," the hilarious story of a prizefighter who could sing as good as he could punch, also stars Walter Catlett and a cast of Hollywood funsters.

Greta Garbo Scores Hit With Audiences Craterian Showing. A new Garbo who laughs, sings and dances to ultra-modern swing music has reached the screen in "Ninotchka," her first picture in two years, now playing at the Craterian Theatre. The metamorphosis of the Swedish Sphinx is the result of her first venture into gay, sophisticated romantic comedy, directed by the expert hand of Ernst Lubitsch.

"Ninotchka" shows Garbo as a Russian commissar raised in the stern Soviet code. She is sent to Paris by her government to negotiate the sale of the confiscated jewels of a Russian grand duchess who also happens to be in Paris and enlists the French courts and Melvyn Douglas to help her regain the gems. Douglas, playing a French count, promptly falls in love with Garbo who reciprocates it and blossoms out as a creature of Paris fashions and glamour.

The grand duchess (Ina Claire) by clever manipulation secures the jewels and uses them to get Garbo back to Russia, but the wily French count (Melvyn Douglas) has a trick up his sleeve too and eventually he and Garbo are reunited.

Brilliant lines, whimsical situations and some gripping dramatic moments, handled with deft Lubitsch touches, keep the play excitingly interesting. Garbo displays a great flair for comedy, and is powerfully dramatic where this is called for. Douglas plays his role with debonair suavity, and Miss Claire extracts laughs out of her every line and situation. A new comedy trio is introduced in Felix Bressart, Sig Rumann and Alexander Granach as three philanthropic officials.

Not Exactly Landslide. Sedalia, Mo.—(AP)—The Sedalia Record says it has discovered that Al Smith reserved a special place in his memory for Sedalia. "If you ever happen to stop in a town called Sedalia, give it my regards," Mr. Smith recently told Father Daniel A. Lord, a St. Louis Jesuit priest. "That's the spot where I gave a speech lasting two and one-half hours and got exactly 17 votes."
