Roosevelt School Glee Club Heard On Music Program

The Roosevelt school glee club under the direction of Mrs. Florence Hunsaker was featured last evening on the Medford musical society program. Mrs. Bruce Bauer accompanied the Glee club on the piano.

Misses Kelielor Feted At Farewell Tea Here Sunday

In compliment to the Misses Annie and Katie Kelielor, prominent local women, approximately a hundred guests called at the Catholic parish hall Sunday afternoon for a farewell tea. Hostesses for the affair were members of the Catholic church Altar Society.

Decorations in a Christmas motif prevailed about the rooms and the table was appointed with a lace cloth, beautiful silver sets at either end and a centerpiece of white chrysanthemums and red carnations. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Lawrence Duff Sr., and Mrs. Rose Schieffelin. Mrs. Duff was the first president of the Altar Society.

The Rev. Father Francis W. Black acted as master of ceremonies and paid tribute to the Misses Kelielor. He also presented them with a gift from the society. Mrs. Schieffelin gave a farewell speech in behalf of the society and Mrs. John C. Boyle, present Altar Society president, gave a brief talk honoring the sisters. Sharing honors at the tea was Mrs. Joseph D. Sinnott, sister of the Misses Kelielor from Seattle.

The Misses Kelielor plan to leave here tomorrow with their sister for Seattle where they will make their home. They have resided here for the past twenty-nine years during which time they have made scores of friends and entered into the spirit of civic endeavors. They have been prominent and active members of the Catholic church for years and it is with regret that their numerous valley friends learn of their departure from this city.

The two women came here in 1910 from Texas at which time they purchased the attractive residence at 1019 South Oakdale avenue where they have lived for the past twenty-nine years.

Before taking leave for the north, the Misses Kelielor said that they would always call Medford home.

The delightful tea was in charge of the following committee: Mrs. J. R. O'Connor, chairman, Mrs. E. H. McKee and Mrs. W. Clements.
