Jennings, Sr. At the time of Mrs. Jennings' death Dr. Jennings was in Portland, where he had driven last Saturday with Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Glutsh of Medford to attend an optometry clinic. Dr. Jennings left Portland for Winfield, where he will remain until after funeral services for his mother.

AMERICAN BOY MAGAZINE COMPANION TO THOUSANDS Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine.

It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood clown," writes one high school senior. "THE AMERICAN BOY seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in THE AMERICAN BOY."

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, basketball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles. Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys clubs also recommend THE AMERICAN BOY enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of THE AMERICAN BOY advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with experienced staff to produce in THE AMERICAN BOY, the sort of reading matter boys like best. THE AMERICAN BOY sells on most newsstands at 15c a copy. Subscription prices are $2.00 for one year or $3.50 for three years. Foreign rates 50c a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to THE AMERICAN BOY, 7420 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan. (Adv.)

Band to Carol—Accordion bands of Medford and Grants Pass will go caroling throughout this city tonight. Band members are to gather at the Baldwin Piano Shoppe at 7:15 to take their places in a truck which will convey them to their calls. The bands caroled in Grants Pass last evening.

Driver Tests—The usual examination of applicants for licenses or permits to operate motor vehicles will be held here Saturday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Applicants are to report to the examiner in council chambers on the top floor of city hall. These examinations are held here regularly every Saturday.

Pay Checks Here—Members of Company A, 186th infantry of the Oregon national guard will receive pay checks for their recent field training at tonight's semi-weekly drill. It was announced by Capt. Carl Y. Tengwald, commanding. The checks arrived yesterday afternoon. Headquarters company, third battalion, was paid off Tuesday night. Both companies will drill tonight at 8 o'clock in the armory.

Going South—Jack Fowler, sales representative, and Mrs. Fowler will leave tomorrow by motorcar for the south. They will be guests for a few days at the home of Mrs. Fowler's brother, Dr. D. F. Herd of Sacramento, and will then continue to San Francisco where Mr. Fowler will attend the annual sales meeting of his company. The Fowlers plan to be back in Medford for New Year's.

Data Asked—Members of Jacksonville and Medford Townsend clubs were requested today to notify Mrs. Atlanta P. Satchwell of the number of children who will attend the Townsend Christmas party December 29. The information is to be telephoned Mrs. Satchwell at Medford 1139-J. The party will be held at 8 p. m., December 29, in Townsend hall, 123 1/2 West Main street. So that adequate plans can be made, it is necessary to have a fairly accurate estimate of the number of children who will attend, Mrs. Satchwell said.

To Go North—Ernest A. Roessel, U. S. navy chief petty officer on recruiting duty here, will leave tomorrow morning by motorcar for Seattle, Wash., where he will spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Roessel and their son. Skilling Good—Crater Lake national park rangers reported by radio this morning that skiing was good on selected slopes. There was a slight fall of snow during the night, the ground cover being 3/4 inches deep at headquarters this morning. The snow was described as "normal park." To insure safe driving, the rangers advised use of tire chains. The weather this morning was partly cloudy, with fair visibility. Lowest temperature during the night was 14 degrees. The prevailing wind was from the southwest.

RUTH ETTING WINS IN BALM CONTEST

Los Angeles, Dec. 21.—(P)—Superior Judge Samuel R. Blake today denied Mrs. Alma Alderman's claim against singer Ruth Etting for $75,000 heart balm. He held Miss Etting did not wrongfully prejudice Myri Alderman, whom Ruth later married, against his wife. In a lengthy decision handed down after nearly five months' deliberation, Judge Blake held that Mrs. Alderman, during the trial of her alienation of affections suit, had failed to prove that the love of her husband had been stolen by Miss Etting.

Sea Saga on Rialto's Screen

A swashbuckling saga of daring heroes in conflict with cut-throat slave runners is revealed in "Mutiny on the Blackhawk," which opens a three-day run today at the New Rialto Theater with Richard Arlen and Andy Devine co-starring in the second of their adventure films. Noah Beery and Constance Moore head the supporting cast of the film which takes a crew of mutinous men on a storm-lashed trip into unknown waters. "Red River Range," starring John Wayne and The Three Mesquiteers, is added as the second action feature with the Arlen-Devine opus.

Mystery Show Wins Approval of Crowd Craterian Showing

A spook-and-spoof picture which provides that gagging screen and radio comedian, Bob Hope, with the funniest material he has ever had was presented to local audiences for the first time last night at the Craterian Theater. It's "The Cat and the Canary," starring Paulette Goddard with Bob, and featuring a host of players admirably suited to the alternately gay and chilling moods of the picture. The eerie doings have their inception in a spooky old mansion in the Louisiana bayous. The strange gentleman who owned the place—he has been dead ten years—has provided that his heirs hear the reading of his will at midnight ten years after his death. Consequently, Hope and Miss Goddard proceed thence, along with four others, and the lawyer who is to read the will. They are greeted—more or less—by the deceased's housekeeper, a strange looking lady who has lived there alone since her master's death.

With the reading of the will, and the naming of Miss Goddard as heiress provided she doesn't go insane or mad within a month, the creepy mood really becomes intensified. Ensnaring events are marked by the appearance of "The Cat," who—or which—is supposedly an escaped, murderous lunatic from a nearby asylum. Terror stalks through the house that night with "The Cat" scaring everybody, especially Miss Goddard. "The Cat" murders the lawyer—the only person knowing the name of the second heir—and events lead to a thrilling, hair-raising climax.
