

EUGENE DRIVER OUT 36 CENTS ON METERS

Eugene, Ore., Dec. 21.—(P)—Added to the host of worries resulting from the city's experiments with parking meters was a petty bill received by police chief Carl Bergman today. Ruth Lilly Simon asked the chief for 6 cents for money put into a meter which didn't work, 10 cents for gasoline burned looking for a spot without meters and 20 cents for loss of time.

Nightmare Gifts Result of Repressed Hostile Impulse

Chicago, Dec. 21.—(P)—There's a reason why people give those "nightmare" neckties for Christmas. It's the same reason, a psychological one, which impels friends or relatives to give you caramels when they know they'll plague your false teeth, or prompts homely girls to give particularly nauseous perfumes to beauties.

Dr. Robert N. McMurry, psychologist on the staff of the Chicago Central Y. M. C. A. college, said today that "unconscious hostile impulses" were partly to blame for the giving of gifts not always appreciated. "All too often," he explained, "the object of respect, admiration and even love is also the object of envy, rivalry, fear and hatred. The only difference is that the respect, admiration and love are conscious, while the less admirable sentiments, being regarded as ignoble, have been repressed, put out of mind, buried in the limbo of the unconscious."

"But these hostile, aggressive impulses, although no longer conscious, have not ceased to strive for satisfaction. Being denied direct expression, they seek a round-about satisfaction. The result is a compromise. The object of these uncharitable sentiments is not attacked openly—the individual's conscience will not permit this. "Instead, at Christmas time or at a birthday or wedding, a gift is chosen, which, while superficially the expression of very noble sentiments, contrives at the same time to attack, injure or frustrate the recipient."

However, Dr. McMurry said, no one should get peeved about such gifts because actually the giver is not conscious of the motivating subconscious impulses and neither is the recipient.

Rear-Admiral Dies. Washington, Dec. 21.—(P)—Rear-Admiral Reginald Fairfax Nicholson, retired, veteran of the battleship Oregon's dash around the horn in 1898 for the battle of Santiago, died yesterday. He also was the last naval officer surviving from the Civil war.

DUTCH FIRE UPON ALIEN WARPLANES

Amsterdam, Dec. 21.—(P)—Netherlands planes fought an air battle with aircraft of undetermined foreign nationality today in full view of hundreds of residents of Utrecht. The engagement started about noon.

The invaders were reported to have come from the east where The Netherlands borders Germany.

A smoke curtain was dropped by the foreign fighters, who escaped under this protection. Heavy firing was heard from anti-aircraft guns and plumes of smoke from shells were seen.

An official of a nearby village reported sighting eight or nine planes, but other reports told of only two or three.

A short time earlier three foreign military planes had been sighted over Veluwe in the border province of Gelderland, which is north of Essen, Germany. Netherlands anti-aircraft batteries fired on the planes and they were chased by Netherlands air patrols.

BRITAIN SEEKING PASCO HOTEL BLAZE FORCES GUESTS OUT

Washington, Dec. 21.—(P)—Great Britain, official quarters disclosed today, has offered to buy between $15,000,000 and $30,000,000 worth of lumber in the United States if she can at the same time purchase American ships in which to transport it.

The sale of the ships—reported to be 10 in number—has been discussed by the government's interdepartmental neutrality committee.

Negotiations for the purchase of the lumber and ships are in the hands of Sir Ashley Sparks, British shipping magnate, who is a member of the British purchasing mission in New York City.

GERMAN SAILOR LIKES LIFE IN U. S. BETTER

Indianapolis, Dec. 21.—(P)—Herbert F. Lieflander, 38, German sailor from Danzig, in municipal court on a charge of illegal entry into the United States, told Judge John L. McNelis:

"If I'm sent back to Danzig, I'll find some way to come back here. I'd rather die than go back. You can't talk to your best friend without fear of being thrown into a concentration camp."

Lieflander will be taken to New York for a hearing before Immigration authorities.

Weather, except in the cases of some species of ducks and geese, has nothing to do with the migration of birds to the south each year. Instinct, it is conceded, is the cause of the migration.

PASCO HOTEL BLAZE FORCES GUESTS OUT

Pasco, Wash., Dec. 21.—(P)—Twenty guests fled to safety when fire destroyed the Hotel Pasco and an office building adjoining last night at a loss estimated at more than $150,000. Patrons of the adjacent Liberty Theater fled into the street in an orderly manner as the fire spread to the theater roof. The blaze was confined to the roof.

Telephone employes in another building nearby remained on duty until clouds of smoke poured into the room. Telephone communication was temporarily cut off.

Taj Mahal has been called the most beautiful building in the world.
